

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF INTEREST

Celebrate the Birthday of Mrs. John Hilbish

A pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. John Hilbish, of 2003 North Fifth street on her fifty-first birthday.

Local People Attend Dance at Army Hospital

About forty local people attended the Halloween dance last evening at the U. S. Army General Hospital, No. 31, Carlisle.

Those present from this city were Miss Mayre M. Herbert, Miss Sarah Maloney, Miss Antoinette Sariano, Miss Mary Carroll, Miss Mary Sariano, Miss Mildred Hilton, Miss Betty Maguire, Miss Eileen Maloney, Miss Besse Sullivan, Miss Margaret Vaughn, Miss Ethel Forney, Miss Caroline McClain, Miss Hazel Rexroth, Miss Anna Haas, Miss Anna Pendergast, Miss Ruth Rexroth, Miss Mary Garland, Miss Margaret Boyle, Miss Mary McGuire, Mrs. Anthony Taylor, Mrs. John Maloney, Mrs. Frank Sariano, Mrs. James McCarthy, Mrs. William Wall, Mrs. Harry Kreidler, Miss Minerva Rexroth, Miss Mary Wilhelm, Miss Mary Nelly, Miss Kathryn Sullivan, Miss Anna Glancey, Miss Margaret Rowder, Mrs. John Elscheid, Mrs. Harry Kern, Mrs. George Nolan, Mrs. Nellie Wolf, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pfoitzgraf.

Luncheon on Monday Honoring a Bride-Elect

Mrs. Ross A. Hickok and Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming, Jr. will entertain at luncheon, Monday, at the Hickok home, in compliment to Susanna Fleming whose engagement to William Emery, Jr., of Philadelphia, was recently announced.

STORK NEWS

Professor and Mrs. L. H. Wagonhorst, of Parkside, Pa., announce the birth of a daughter, Friday, October 31, 1919. Mrs. Wagonhorst was formerly Miss Mary Gochbauer, of Camp Hill.

Funeral Tributes: Handsome Wreath $2.50, Beautiful Spray $1.25, Keeney's, 814 N. 3rd St.

Dinner Saturday Eve., Nov. 1, Stouffer's Restaurant, 4 N. Court St., 5 to 7:30, 50c

Chicken Rice Soup, Scalloped Chicken, Calf Liver in Bacon, Breadcrusted Pork Chop, Roast Beef, Mashed or Creamed Potatoes, Stewed Peas, Stewed Beets, Entrée, Ice Cream, Pie or Pudding, Coffee, Tea or Cocoa

WITCHES ON BROOMSTICKS RIDE AROUND FOR PLEASURE

Halloween Parties Galore, With Guests Wearing Gay Masquerade Costumes; Ghosts in Cellars Stealthily Enter Into Festivities While Jack-O'-Lanterns Grin

Class No. 1 of the Penbrook U. S. Sunday school spent an enjoyable evening at a Halloween party at the Kramer farm, south of Progress.

The following were in attendance: Della Flick, clown; Raye Holtzman, organ grinder; Emma Peeser, Yama Yama girl; Margaret Holtzman, colored man; Edith Eshenour, dupe; Mabel Eshenour, clown; Mary Garman, fairy; Mrs. C. D. Bonsall, Yama Yama girl; Florence Shupe, Yama Yama; Anna Smith, dupe; Florence Whistler, night; Lurene Whistler, old maid; Mabel Peeser, old maid; Ada Stauffer, gypsy; Mrs. George Sheaffer, grandmother; Harry Stouffer, Turk; George Sheaffer, clown; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shafter and two daughters; Mr. and Mrs. David Smith and family, Mrs. Bonitz and daughter, Catherine Bonitz.

Scouts Honor Captain: The Girl Scouts of Iris Troop, No. 8, of Messiah Lutheran Church arranged a surprise for their captain, Mrs. Charles C. Stroth, last evening.

Wild Rose Troop Party: Members of Wild Rose Troop, No. 5, Girl Scouts of Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, held a Halloween party last evening in the social rooms of the church.

Party at Wildwood: Miss Mary Rodkey, of Wildwood, entertained at a masquerade party where fairies, gypsies, ghosts, Chinamen and Turks mingled with clowns, Red Cross nurses, and many other strange, mysterious figures.

Bobbed For Apples: S. S. members of the Central High School held a dance at the Oriole Cottage, Dauphin. The evening was spent in bobbing apples and dancing to Victrola music.

Masks in Lemoyne: A party of young masqueraders met in the home of Miss Irene Smith, 233 Herman avenue, Lemoyne, last evening.

Girls and Boys Co-Operate: One of the happiest of Halloween socials was that of the Narcisus Troop, Girl Scouts, and the Susquehanna Social Club, held last evening in St. Matthew's Lutheran Church.

Guests of Mrs. Hippie: Guests of Mrs. Hippie at her home, 2131 Atlas street, last evening came in the cleverest of masquerade costumes.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Motor to Annapolis to Attend Naval Academy Hop: Mrs. C. L. E. DeGauge, Miss Louise DeGauge and Miss Isabelle DeGauge, of 209 South Front street, motored to Annapolis to-day to attend the Navy-West Virginia Wesleyan football game this afternoon and the hop at the Naval Academy this evening.

Rabbi Haas to Speak in Two Cities Tomorrow: Rabbi Louis J. Haas of the Ohev Shalom Temple will speak at the Shari Shomayim Temple of Lancaster, to-morrow on "Service a Duty and a Privilege."

Home from Conference: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., president of the Cumberland Valley League of Federated clubs, is home from Philadelphia, where she represented the Woman's Club of Mechanicsburg at the convention of the National Civic Association in the Bellevue-Stratford this week.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Fun for the Kiddies: Little Eleanor Musseina Swope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swope, 230 Hummel street, had the nicest kind of a Halloween party yesterday afternoon in celebration of her fourth birthday.

For Moorhead Employees: The elaborate masquerade dance given to employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company last evening in the Chestnut street auditorium, was attended by over four hundred.

Home from Conference: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., president of the Cumberland Valley League of Federated clubs, is home from Philadelphia, where she represented the Woman's Club of Mechanicsburg at the convention of the National Civic Association in the Bellevue-Stratford this week.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Fun for the Kiddies: Little Eleanor Musseina Swope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swope, 230 Hummel street, had the nicest kind of a Halloween party yesterday afternoon in celebration of her fourth birthday.

For Moorhead Employees: The elaborate masquerade dance given to employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company last evening in the Chestnut street auditorium, was attended by over four hundred.

Home from Conference: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., president of the Cumberland Valley League of Federated clubs, is home from Philadelphia, where she represented the Woman's Club of Mechanicsburg at the convention of the National Civic Association in the Bellevue-Stratford this week.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Organists' Association Plans Wonderful Season

The Harrisburg Association of Organists of which Alfred C. Kugchwa is president, Frank A. McCarrell, vice-president; Mrs. H. H. Lentz, secretary and W. R. Stonestier, treasurer, announces that this season they hope to bring to the city four eminent organists for recitals.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Fun for the Kiddies: Little Eleanor Musseina Swope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swope, 230 Hummel street, had the nicest kind of a Halloween party yesterday afternoon in celebration of her fourth birthday.

For Moorhead Employees: The elaborate masquerade dance given to employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company last evening in the Chestnut street auditorium, was attended by over four hundred.

Home from Conference: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., president of the Cumberland Valley League of Federated clubs, is home from Philadelphia, where she represented the Woman's Club of Mechanicsburg at the convention of the National Civic Association in the Bellevue-Stratford this week.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Fun for the Kiddies: Little Eleanor Musseina Swope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swope, 230 Hummel street, had the nicest kind of a Halloween party yesterday afternoon in celebration of her fourth birthday.

For Moorhead Employees: The elaborate masquerade dance given to employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company last evening in the Chestnut street auditorium, was attended by over four hundred.

Home from Conference: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., president of the Cumberland Valley League of Federated clubs, is home from Philadelphia, where she represented the Woman's Club of Mechanicsburg at the convention of the National Civic Association in the Bellevue-Stratford this week.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

GIVE CLASS SOCIAL

The Rev. J. H. Palmer's Bible class of the Market Street Baptist Church, with Mrs. John O. Jackson, Mrs. Harry Dalton and Mrs. J. H. Palmer, as hostesses, gave an enjoyable social Thursday night, at the residence of Mrs. Jackson, 409 South Thirteenth street.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Fun for the Kiddies: Little Eleanor Musseina Swope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swope, 230 Hummel street, had the nicest kind of a Halloween party yesterday afternoon in celebration of her fourth birthday.

For Moorhead Employees: The elaborate masquerade dance given to employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company last evening in the Chestnut street auditorium, was attended by over four hundred.

Home from Conference: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., president of the Cumberland Valley League of Federated clubs, is home from Philadelphia, where she represented the Woman's Club of Mechanicsburg at the convention of the National Civic Association in the Bellevue-Stratford this week.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Fun for the Kiddies: Little Eleanor Musseina Swope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swope, 230 Hummel street, had the nicest kind of a Halloween party yesterday afternoon in celebration of her fourth birthday.

For Moorhead Employees: The elaborate masquerade dance given to employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company last evening in the Chestnut street auditorium, was attended by over four hundred.

Home from Conference: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., president of the Cumberland Valley League of Federated clubs, is home from Philadelphia, where she represented the Woman's Club of Mechanicsburg at the convention of the National Civic Association in the Bellevue-Stratford this week.

Spooks Reign at Y. W. C. A.: The industrial department of the Y. W. C. A. held one of the largest parties of the season last evening in the gymnasium at the association.

Fun in the Country: Mrs. John H. Campbell threw open her country house, "Seven Pines," New Cumberland, last evening for a merry Halloween party.

For Shining Stars: Miss Ethel E. Earley entertained the Shining Stars S. S. class of Otterbein United Brethren Church, of which she is the teacher, at a Halloween party Thursday evening at her home, 1459 North Third street.

Tunes by Organgrinder: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barbour gave a masquerade at their home last evening. The guests were received by a ghost and escorted into the home, which was decorated with blackcats and pumpkin lanterns and flowers.

Flowers FOR ALL PURPOSES. Cut flowers and plants for weddings, social occasions, funeral flowers and flowers for the sick. BELL 3799-M

The Berryhill LOCUST STREET AT SECOND

Real Coffee Golden Roast Blend Coffee

The first sip will truly convince you that Golden Roast is not only a superior coffee, but one that is vastly different from others.

R. H. Lyon Coffee Purveyor to the Penn-Harris, Harrisburg, Pa.

Funeral Tributes: Handsome Wreath $2.50, Beautiful Spray $1.25, Keeney's, 814 N. 3rd St.

Dinner Saturday Eve., Nov. 1, Stouffer's Restaurant, 4 N. Court St., 5 to 7:30, 50c

Chicken Rice Soup, Scalloped Chicken, Calf Liver in Bacon, Breadcrusted Pork Chop, Roast Beef, Mashed or Creamed Potatoes, Stewed Peas, Stewed Beets, Entrée, Ice Cream, Pie or Pudding, Coffee, Tea or Cocoa

I Consider it a Compliment. I have been notified of my selection for membership in the Associated Optometrists and Opticians of America, Inc., an association nation-wide in its scope. J. S. Belsinger Member ASSOCIATED OPTOMETRISTS AND OPTICIANS OF AMERICA, INC.

ASTRICH'S 308 Market Street. Our Monday Sales Are Unique. Where is there a store in this country which offers you a complete assortment of the best hat shapes at reduced prices at a time when good, desirable Velvet Hats cannot be had anywhere, even at regular prices. THIS MONDAY WE PLACE ON SALE 1000 Black Silk Velvet Hats At $3.44 $4.44 $5.44 including all the best Fall Shapes, large, medium and small. All the new wide brim, flare Sailor Shapes, Panne Velvet Hats, Lyons Velvet Hats, Hatter's Plush Hats. The newest and best small and medium Silk Velvet Hats for matrons. Plenty of close-fitting, brimless Velvet Turbans. LARGE FANCY SHIRRED SILK VELVET HATS in all the new colors, actually worth $10. PANNE VELVET AND LYON VELVET TURBANS in Black and all the best colors. HATTER'S PLUSH SAILORS—(trimmed grosgrain bands) and hundreds of other high-class Hats go in this marvelous sale. $3.44 For Hats Worth to $5.98. $4.44 Worth to $6.98. $5.44 Worth to $10.00. Panne Velvet Tams, $1.88. DON'T MISS THIS SALE!! The Values Are Unprecedented. Children's Beavers, $3.44. ON OUR MAIN FLOOR. In order to clean up discontinued lines and to give our customers the benefit of desirable merchandise, and to get acquainted with new customers, we are offering for this Monday only: Ladies' Full Fashioned Silk Hose in black, cordovan, gray and white; also some shades of champagne. A full fashioned hose which can be dyed successfully. Regular $1.50 to $2.50 Silk Hose, Monday only $1.00. Another lot of Full Fashioned Silk Hose in navy, cordovan; also one lot of Lace Silk Hose, full fashioned in black or cordovan. Regular $2.00. For this Monday only $1.50.