Fair Price Conference Will Be Attended by People From All Parts of State

HAVE DELEGATES

Arrangements for the "Fair Price" onference to be held at the Capitol on Thursday to discuss measures for combatting the high cost of living have been broadened to include rep-resentatives of Chambers of Com-merce and other civic associations interested in the problem. The Gov-ernor's office has invited the mayors and burgesses and district attorneys and asked that where new men are elected to such places to-morrow they be asked to attend as well. To-day it was announced that civic as-sociations would be privileged to such representatives. In addition to Governor William C. Sproul who will open the conference various representatives of the nat-lonal and State Governments will speak as will Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer. Bureau officers of the Public Service Commission who have been at work on the grade crossing study are preparing to submit a list of bad spots for immediate action by the Commission in regard to safety gates and uniform signs. The State Armory Board has been summoned to meet here on Novem-ber 20, instead of at Erle. Chairman Aincy, of the Public Service Commission, conducted a hearing at Sunbury to-day in a grade crossing case. Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, state superintendent of public instruction, was the speaker yesterday at the dedication of the memorial to the soldier students of East Strouds-burg State Normal School. Dr. O. J. Snyder, head of the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners, has issued a warning against osteopathic practitioners prescribing drugs until decisions are given in contested aseen making speeches in the Moore combatting the high cost of living have been broadened to include rep-

cases. Ex-Governor Edwin S. Stuart has been making speeches in the Moore campaign and urging support for the whole ticket. Members of the Harrisburg Ro-tary Club who attended to-day's luncheon at the Penn-Harris were

DR. SPARKS IN CITY

DR. SPARKS IN CITY Among the visitors to Harrisburg to-day for a short time was Dr. Ed-win E. Sparks, president of State College, who has been recuperating after a severe illness due to overwork during the war. He hopes to resume his duties at the college within as month or two. No educator did more princupit the period of the war then Dr. Sparks, who refused to spare himself for a single moment. It was a common thing for him to motor from State College to Washington by night in order to continue his work at the college and also carry on lim-portant assignments at the national capital. As a résult of this unusual atest in order to regain his health. surprised when they were ushered into the ballroom to find already there their wives, seated along one side of the tables, while chairs for CITY'S CASH REPORT Receipts during September totaled $43,783.70, and expenditures, $77,-865.97, according to the monthly re-port of City Treasurer C. E. Weber. The balance, October 1, was $318,-874.42, and November 1, $284,792.15.
