

SENATE PLANS QUICK ACTION ON SUGAR CONTROL

Enough on Hand to Meet the Needs of Country; Shortage Due to Fear

By Associated Press
Washington, Nov. 3.—The bill proposing Federal control over sugar during 1920 was reported to-day to the Senate and placed on the calendar with a view to early action. In a majority report, Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, author of the bill and chairman of the Senate Agriculture subcommittee which investigated the sugar shortage, declared "a serious situation will ensue" if the sugar equalization board's control over sugar is discontinued. Minority views, presented by Senator Ransdell, Democrat, Louisiana, expressed agreement in the plan to continue the sugar board, with authority for its purchase of Cuban sugar, but giving the board power to buy and sell domestic sugar as an unwarranted interference with natural economic laws and as likely to unduly depress prices of Louisiana and other domestic sugar. Senator McNary's report suggested that present conditions were largely psychological, due to fears of future shortages. Data in the hands of the committee, the report stated, showed that about 730,000 tons of Cuban and domestic sugar was available for distribution until January 1, which should meet the needs of the country. The world shortage of sugar was estimated at 2,000,000 tons over the prewar average. "The Cuban crop," the report stated, "is not controlled by this government working through the sugar equalization board, will supply a field for competition with the resultant effect of extraordinary high prices for raw sugars, with corresponding reflection of increased prices to the consumer." "The Cuban crop," the report stated, "is not controlled by this government working through the sugar equalization board, will supply a field for competition with the resultant effect of extraordinary high prices for raw sugars, with corresponding reflection of increased prices to the consumer."

Governor Keeps in Touch With Mines

Reports received at departments of the State Government from the coal strike regions indicated that work is being done in the greater part of the Fayette and Westmoreland county fields and that everything was quiet. Governor Sproul was in touch with various parts of the State through his offices at the Capitol, while the Departments of Mines and State Police were in constant communication with mining centers.

The headquarters of the Reserve Militia and State Police were prepared for any emergency. The State Arsenal force, which has numerous Army trucks at its disposal, was in a state of readiness for immediate shipment of stores. The State have come from veterans of overseas service for strike duty if called.

SPROUL FOLLOWS STRIKE MOVES

Only Disquieting News Is Plan to Call State-Wide Walkout

Chester, Nov. 3.—Governor William C. Sproul, at his home near Chester, is keeping in constant touch with developments in the coal strike situation.

"About the only disquieting news of the day," he said, "is the action taken by the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor at Pittsburgh in authorizing its council to call a State-wide strike a nudging a special session of the Legislature. There is nothing to be worried about, however, and I think it wise to refrain from any statement until something occurs." "The Governor said he was in frequent communication with officials in all parts of the State, and with general headquarters of the State military forces." Governor Sproul was in Philadelphia Saturday consulting with several representatives of bituminous coal operators. The Governor determined to see that the will of the United States government in regard to the coal miners' strike is carried out in this State.

"To my mind," said the Governor, "this strike has resolved itself into simply one question—shall the Federal government in this country or shall the rule pass to the hands of irresponsible organizations?" "The Governor said he was in frequent communication with officials in all parts of the State, and with general headquarters of the State military forces." Governor Sproul was in Philadelphia Saturday consulting with several representatives of bituminous coal operators. The Governor determined to see that the will of the United States government in regard to the coal miners' strike is carried out in this State.

Soviets Are Claiming Capture of Petropavlovsk

London, Nov. 3.—The Russian Soviet communique, of Sunday, received to-day by wireless from Moscow, claims the capture of 1500 prisoners in the taking of Petropavlovsk, 165 miles west of Omsk, in the Kolchak forces.

The statement also reports fighting of the fiercest character in the Finnish gulf region and a continued advance by the Bolsheviks all along the line against the Russian northwestern army of General Yudenitch. The occupation of many villages in the Luga-Gdoh sector, east of Lake Piepus, is claimed.

PERRY COUNTY CANDIDATES IN CLOSE CONTESTS

Republican Nominees Feel Sure of Success Because of Big Primary Vote

New Bloomfield, Pa., Nov. 3.—With James Barnett, of this place, assured of election to the position of judge of the forty-first judicial district of Perry and Juniata counties, assured by reason of his big vote at the primaries, the interest in Perry county now centers in the fight for the county commissionership.

With the salary in the new term double what it has been in the past, a total of $1,000 with duties that are not particularly exacting, there was a lively fight for places. The Republican nominees are McClellan Woods, of Wheatfield township, who has already served one term, and William C. Smith, of Madison township. G. W. Meek, of Wheatfield township, and W. G. Loy, of Newport, are the Democratic nominees.

With a particularly heavy vote at the primaries, Republican leaders are confident that both their nominees for office will be elected as will practically all of the ticket. Democrats have not been especially confident and in several instances they have no candidate in the field for some of the most important offices in the county. In other instances they have filled up their ticket by writing in names of candidates at the primary.

Paul R. Flurie, of Newport, is the Republican nominee for the office of sheriff. Despite the reduction of fees that has come with the advent of prohibition, Flurie is having a bitter fight with his opponent, Newton F. Evans, of Louisville. Flurie is generally picked as the winner. James M. McKee, of New Bloomfield, Republican district attorney, will be re-elected to office without opposition, the fourth time that he will have been selected for this post. Democrats were unable to get any candidates in the field for the primaries and Walter Rice, of New Bloomfield, secured a comparatively large number of votes by friends writing in his name. He, however, has refused to permit his name to stand, and has been appointed supervisor of the census enumeration in the Perry-Juniata district.

The office of county coroner will go to Dr. George W. Gault, of Marysville, who has already served in that capacity for two terms. He has the nomination of the Republican, Democratic and Prohibition parties, although he has several friends who are in the office. The position is reputed to carry with it remuneration insufficient to even cover the officer's expenses. As a consequence no candidate appeared at the primaries. The other Republican candidates are: Director of the poor, S. A. Shope and E. M. Witt; county auditor, Maurice Shider and Nelson L. Zeigler; county surveyor, J. L. Bucke. Democratic candidates are: Director of the poor, David K. Heckendorf; auditor, R. White; county auditor, Floyd E. Wolf and Reuben Wagner; county surveyor, George Bell. White and Bell and two Democratic candidates for auditor, were nominated when friends wrote their names on the ballot. James A. Noel, of New Germantown, the Republican nominee for county treasurer, is practically sure of election. He is opposed by Chester E. Burd.

In addition to the campaigns for county officers, important contests are being waged for various borough and township offices. The fight for the school directorship in most districts is important. In the thirty-two districts, a total of seventy school directors are to be named. Every district will elect at least two men, while in several instances three members will be named. Campaigns for chief burgess, constable and other officers are being conducted with unusual vigor in most districts.

Coal Mines of Ohio Idle With Every Union Miner Out on Strike

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—Coal mines of Ohio, employing 40,000 union miners are closed and no attempt will be made to operate them until some agreement is reached and the strikers return to work, according to W. D. McKinney, secretary of the Southern Ohio Coal Exchange, the operators' organization. McKinney said that so far as he knew, every miner in Ohio is on strike. Sixty won coal miners in the Zanesville district were reported to have reached an agreement on a new wage scale, which gives them a fifty per cent. increase in wages. No change in hours was announced. The Zanesville union has wired national headquarters at Indianapolis for authority to return to work but has received no response and it is considered likely that the mines will remain closed, union officials say.

By Associated Press.
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 3.—Antonio Valentino and his son-in-law, Amelio Criscolo, both of Derby, are held in the New Haven county jail without bond, charged with the murder of Salvatore Zuzzo, 52, of Madison, N. J. Zuzzo's body, beaten and slashed with a knife, was found in Ansonia last Thursday. In announcing the arrests, Coroner Miles last night said that Valentino had confessed to the crime, implicating Criscolo.

According to the coroner, investigation disclosed that Zuzzo came from New Jersey to Waterbury to attend the wedding of his daughter, Margaret. He went to Derby to collect $150 which Valentino owed him. No anxiety over the whereabouts of Zuzzo was felt until he failed to appear at his daughter's wedding Thursday. Valentino has a wife and five children living in Derby.
