

JURY QUICKLY CONVICTS NEGROES

Disposes of the First Case in Eight Minutes; Seven For Second

Helena, Ark., Nov. 4. — Rapid progress marked the trials yesterday of cases growing out of the recent race disturbances south of this city. One negro was convicted of first degree murder after eight minutes' deliberation by a circuit court jury. Five others were found guilty of a similar charge, after the jurymen had been out seven minutes. The verdict means electrocution for the six negroes. In the first case, that of Frank Hicks, witnesses testified they saw Hicks fire the shots which resulted in the death of Clinton Lee, an ex-soldier of this city. The defense had no witnesses, argument was waived, the jury was instructed and in eight minutes a verdict was returned. Defendants in the second case were Frank Hicks, J. E. Knox, Paul Hall and Ed. Coleman, charged jointly with the murder of Lee. Witnesses testified that Moore, Knox and Hicks acted as leaders in the incident. Evidence heard showed the existence of a post of the "Progressive Farmers and Household Union of America," the organization under which it is alleged the negroes were banded for the uprising at Elaine, 18 miles south of Helena, which resulted in the death of five white persons and a score of negroes.

HORSE PLAY NOT A GOOD DEFENSE

State Compensation Board Makes a Decision in Regard to Brickmakers' Claim

A workman who falls over a wall and breaks both wrists while trying to escape from fellow workmen who were endeavoring to take tobacco from him at lunch hour is entitled to compensation according to a ruling by the State Compensation Board in the case of Hale vs. Savage Fire Brick Co., Myersdale. The accident occurred on the employer's premises and the fact that the two men chased Hale is called "a mere incident," and not having material bearing on the suffering of the workman while in the course of his employment and upon the employer's premises. In the case of Hale vs. Savage Fire Brick Co., the claim is rejected because the claimant failed to prove the injury and to satisfactorily explain how he came to be found drunk in a gutter with his eyes after having undergone treatment. New hearings are awarded in Hunt, Thornton and Frederickson vs. International Shipbuilding Co., Philadelphia, Hofton vs. Pava, Erie; Fowles vs. Canonsburg Steel and Iron Works, Canonsburg. Public Utility Corporations have filed certificates of notification with the Public Service Commission as follows: Lehigh Valley Light and Power Co., Allentown, preferred stock $1,500,000; common stock, $2,178,700; Industrial Power Co., Allentown, stock $3,500; Erie Light and Power Co., Erie, bonds, $47,000; Beaver Pipe Line Co., Pittsburgh, stock, $25,830; Clarion Electric Co., Clarion, bonds, $20,000; Pennsylvania Power Co., Ellwood City, bonds, $9,000; Shenango Valley Electric Light Co., Sharon, bonds, $2,000; Metropolitan Edison Co., Reading, preferred stock, $2,500,000; Mahoning and Shenango Railway and Light Co., New Castle, bonds, $557,000; Cambria and Indian Railroad, Philadelphia, bonds, $75,000; New Castle Electric Co., New Castle, bonds, $21,000; Pennsylvania Utilities Co., Easton, bonds $40,500; Red Bank Electric Co., New Bethlelem, bonds, $47,500; Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co., Philadelphia, certificates, $288,000. Ownership of automobiles and motor trucks on the farm of Pennsylvania has increased very rapidly this summer and fall according to records at the State Highway Department. Late figures show that there are 31,600 automobiles and 7800 trucks owned and operated on farms in this State. Counties where the bulk are owned are Chester, Lancaster, Crawford, Allegheny, Bucks, Berks, Bradford, Washington, York and Westmoreland. The State Water Supply Commission has approved applications for construction of county bridges from the commissioners of the following counties: Delaware county for Upper Darby township and Tioga for Delaware and Farmington townships; and borough of New Bethlelem. Several iron, coal and steel companies were also given rights to build bridges. The Attorney General's department has declined to pass upon game laws for the benefit of hunters and has referred some inquiries in that regard to the State Game Commission. Attorney General W. I. Schaffer took this action a few days ago when a Boyertown citizen addressed him this way: "Dear sir: Would like to know the game law about the skunks, and how you can catch them, also if you can dig them out or not." The hearing held at Sunbury yesterday by Chairman Ainey disposes of the last of the Northumberland county grade crossing cases which will now be up to the Commission to adjudicate. After various matters are considered, the Commission will apportion. Col. M. D. Brown, who will command the new First Infantry, has issued a call to men of the old 109th to enlist in the new Guard organization. It is to occupy the old First Infantry Armory in Philadelphia. Except for a few departments which had to keep in touch with the strike situation, the Capitol was closed to-day. Samuel C. Todd, chief clerk of the State Department, has gone to Washington county to vote. W. C. Stevens has been named as game protector for York county. He went on duty yesterday. The inquiry into the conduct of the Eastern Penitentiary starts Thursday under auspices of the State Board of Public Charities. Arrests have been made by State game protectors of men who broke into the Game Commission buildings in the Penn Forest game preserve in Carbon county. Considerable damage was done and an example will be made of them. The State has filed a series of appeals in the Valley Forge condemnation proceedings. They will go to court and meanwhile the State will develop the property which will be added to the State park. It practically wipes out a town. The State Armory Board has been called for a meeting here on November 20. Secretary of Agriculture Rasmussen is visiting at State College, where he voted. Gilbert H. Hassler, chief of the commission bureau of the State Department, has been at Washington.

SYRIANS MUST BE INDEPENDENT

Nothing Less Will Satisfy Them, According to Habib Lotfallah Bey

London, Nov. 4. — Nothing less than complete independence will satisfy the aspirations of the people of Syria, according to Habib Lotfallah Bey, chief representative in Europe of the Syrian Union Committee. Lotfallah Bey has been conferring in London with Prince Faisal, son of the King of the Hejaz, and with British officials regarding the political future of his country. He told the Associated Press he was confident that the scheme his organization has drawn up for the union of Palestine, Syria and Mesopotamia ultimately would be accepted by the British and French governments as the best solution of the vexed Syrian question. Bey's Government Plan Here is an outline of the plan for a provisional government that Lotfallah Bey is submitting to the British and French authorities: Appointment of a governor general by England, France and Arabia and the formation of two legislative houses, a chamber and senate, whose members will be selected on a democratic basis. A new civil constitution to be devised. The provisional government to call upon the League of Nations for the help of socialists in organizing a national debt office. Each interested Allied nation to have a representative of occupation to be in charge of the country's finances, in order to safeguard their economic rights in the country. The British, French and Arabian armies of occupation to be withdrawn as soon as the national government is established. As soon as the new government is formally recognized, the question of the need of assistance from some power holding a mandate from the League of Nations to be examined and determined. The chamber and senate to determine by vote whether the government should be monarchical or republican. "We ask only," the protest states, "that the Allies adhere to their promises to us and permit us to decide for ourselves the future of our country. We ask for complete independence, without a mandate, protection or supervision of any kind."

GAVE TENTH OF THE WAR LOANS

This State Took $2,709,947,500 Worth of Bonds, Reports Show

Philadelphia, Nov. 4. — Pennsylvania raised more than 10 per cent of the total amount of money subscribed by the entire Nation for the four Liberty and one Victory Loans. This fact is made public to-day by the Pennsylvania War History Commission from material received from both the Third Federal Reserve District, embracing Eastern Pennsylvania and Philadelphia, and the Fourth Federal Reserve District, which includes Pittsburgh and the western and end of the State. The exact per cent for Pennsylvania is 11.21, which represents $2,709,947,800 of the entire $24,072,114,400 raised throughout the entire United States in the five loans. In addition, Pennsylvania's per capita subscription to each loan, the Commission learns, is far greater than the per capita subscription of the Nation. The individual Pennsylvanian averaged about $80 worth of bonds more than the average American on all five loans. Pennsylvania's best record was in the Fourth Loan where the per capita subscription was $93.79, which was $28.31 better than the per capita for the country. In that loan also, 2,349,252 residents of the State bought bonds, which represented a subscriber among every five.

NORWAY TRADE SHOWS INCREASE

Abundant Signs of Good Relationship With United States

Christiania, Nov. 4. — There are abundant signs everywhere of the development of broader commercial relationships of every kind between Norway, and the United States, according to Marion Letcher, American consul general. In a statement concerning the Norwegian-American Exhibition here, Mr. Letcher said: "Previous to 1914 our trade with Norway was exceedingly light, but now, notwithstanding the long and extensive haul, American commodities are almost as common in Christiania as in New York. A number of Norway's enterprising young men have gone to my country during the last several months to study these conditions at first hand and to form connections there. "This exhibition, which is confined practically to goods to be displayed by Norwegian representatives of American firms, will emphasize the value of doing business through direct Norwegian representation rather than through distributing agencies located in other countries, and I am sincerely hopeful that American business men will not fail to see the force of this lesson. "Up to the present the trade that has sprung up between the two countries has been largely fortuitous. American business men will be wise to understand this and prepare for more permanent relationship through fixed local representatives."

Name: Street: City: Beauty Answers My MADAME MAREE STRENGTHENING and enlarging the roots of the hair is one of the real secrets of forcing hair to grow, something which has heretofore not been fully realized. Merely stimulating the surface tissue of the scalp will not stimulate the hair growth to the extent desired. By the new method just mentioned hair can be forced to grow several inches a month. Hair will stop falling as if by magic. The new vigor of the hair will be quickly noticed, and all bald spots will be soon entirely filled out with new sprouts. This can all be easily obtained by the simple use of beta-quinol, which can be secured at any drugstore in the original one-ounce package for 50 cents. This can be easily mixed at home with a half pint of bay rum and a half pint of water. It contains no oil whatsoever. MISS YEARS—On the contrary, removing wrinkles is easy, very easy, astonishingly easy. And it takes but two or three minutes a day and a few cents expense. That you can do it surely and positively will be proven to you absolutely in your mirror in a few days. I dare say, nothing has ever been known to produce such results so rapidly and so cheaply. I give you here. From your drugstore get two ounces of eptol, which will cost 50 cents, and mix with one tablespoonful of glycerine in half a pint of water. Mix thoroughly. The cream that results should be used very liberally and every day. Quickly you will notice the little wrinkles, deep wrinkles, crows' feet and heavy lines giving way before an ever increasing plumpness of the skin—and years seem literally to be taken from the face. ALL OVER—It is the easiest thing you can imagine to get rid of blackheads. They can be removed in a few minutes—and if you doubt it, just get some powdered norexin at the drugstore for 50 cents, sprinkle some of it on a wet cloth and rub it on the blackheads. Then look in the mirror and try to see them—you'll be surprised.
