The Cook
Stove That
Needs No
Watching

Just put the food in it, whether vegetables, a roast, bread, biscuit, pies or cake; go about your housework, go visiting, shopping or motoring; return four or five hours later and sit down to a good, hot meal. No burning, no steaming, no odor. It cooks the flavor into the food and not out of it. It makes a nice, brown crust on bread, biscuits or cakes.

The Domestic Science Fireless Cooker is superior in construction. It differs from the ordinary fireless cookers. Let us explain and show wherein it differs. We have convinced dozens and they are now satisfied users and recommend them to their neighbors.
