

RENCH LIKE OWN BRAND
 It may Be Difficult to Dispose of American Tobacco Now Overseas

Paris, Nov. 4.—The opinion of the average French smoker is that the government will not readily dispose of the billion packages of American cigarettes and enormous quantity of smoking tobacco bought of the American Expeditionary Force.

He admits that both cigarettes and tobacco are prepared with greater finish, that the quality may be finer, but he has the habit of the old French brand of tobacco, which is coarser, stronger and produces a far more disagreeable odor, and he wants no other.

The French brand, however, is scarce. It is distributed to the tobacco shops but once a week, in limited quantities, and, rather than accept the American substitute, the French smoker gets out early and stands in line patiently for two hours, in the hope of refilling his pouch.

Sometimes he goes away disappointed, the supply having given out before his turn came, but rarely does he accept the American substitute which is not to his taste, and moreover, is twice as costly.

Palmer Will Make Address Here to the Price Committees

Washington, Nov. 4.—Attorney General Palmer left last night for a visit to his home in Stroudsburg, Pa., and to make a speech in Harrisburg Thursday before the State Fair Price Committees. He will return to Washington Friday morning. It is considerable probable that the Attorney General will devote some attention to the coal strike in his Harrisburg address.

Swiss Mails Busy For War Prisoners

Berne, Nov. 4.—Since the beginning of the war, the Swiss mails have forwarded and transmitted for prisoners of war over 560,000,000 letters and 23,000,000 parcels.

RUSSIA TO GET LAST RED CROSS AFTER-WAR AID

Units Ready to Enter Petrograd as Soon as City Falls to Anti-Bolshevists

Bucharest, Rumania, Sept. 22, via Paris, Nov. 4.—The last scene of the great relief work done in Europe by America since the close of the war, and one that may prove the greatest yet undertaken by the American Red Cross, will probably be staged in Russia, said Colonel Robt. E. Olds, European Commissioner of the Red Cross, during an address here to Red Cross personnel departing for America.

"The Red Cross has still another and final task before it," said Colonel Olds, "one which may prove greater than all that we have done before. The great Bolsheviki movement seems to be nearing its end and when the time comes when Russia shall have a firm, stable government then it will be the duty of the American Red Cross to bring Russia's starving and sick back to health and happiness. And we must continue in this until Russia can care for herself. That, probably, will be the last great after-war campaign of the American Red Cross in Europe.

"We are there already. At the present moment, the Red Cross has units in that section bordering on the Gulf of Finland ready to enter Petrograd. In Siberia there is a unit with Kolehak's army and one in the Caucasus with the army of General Denikine. When the power of the Bolsheviki crumbles the hand of the Red Cross will be the first to help the struggling Russian nation to its feet."

Approves Draft of Treaty With Greece

Paris, Nov. 4.—The Supreme Council, sitting under the chairmanship of M. Pichon, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, has approved the draft of a treaty to be concluded between the Allied and Associated Powers and Greece, concerning the protection of racial and other minorities.

The Council decided to request the Polish government to open to traffic certain railroads crossing the German-Polish frontiers north of Warsaw. The Council will shortly examine the question of the future of Eastern Galicia, formerly Austrian territory but now occupied by Polish troops.

THIEVES TAKE JEWELRY

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 4.—The apartments occupied by A. J. McConomy, proprietor of a restaurant here, were entered yesterday by burglars and jewelry valued at $500 stolen.

Says Labor Conference Is Menace to the U. S. Peace and Prosperity

Washington, Nov. 4.—Senator Sherman, Republican, of Illinois, asserted that the International Labor Conference now meeting in Washington, was a menace to our domestic peace and prosperity, in the course of an attack on the labor conference provisions of the Peace Treaty, during the treaty debate.

"Our Government is now under the regency of 'Trusts and Baruch,'" the Illinois Senator said, "but if I were in executive position with them, I would deport some members of the conference and send men here who are interested solely in promoting discontent and fanning the flames of violence. We've got enough domestic troubles of our own, with the steel strike and its leaders, and with men like John L. Lewis heading the bituminous miners who are striking, so that it is no time to assemble here a conference of firebrands."

Presenting a report of comparative wages paid for labor in the United States and other parts of the world, Senator Sherman said American workmen stood only to lose by pooling their interests in an international adjustment.

Too Much Calling of Names, Schwab Says, on Labor Situation

Chicago, Nov. 4.—In discussing the labor situation yesterday, Charles M. Schwab, head of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, said "the situation in the United States would benefit if there were less agitation by certain elements on both sides."

"There has been too much calling of names," he said, "between the opposing forces in the steel strike, the miners' strike and other industrial revolts, and this with the excitement attendant upon the sensational reports, has a tendency to keep the people stirred up to the point where some are expressing fears of a revolution or civil war."

Convictions For Drunkenness Fall Off in England

London, Nov. 4.—In the last year of the war there was a remarkable falling off in this country of convictions for drunkenness from pre-war totals. Official figures, which show a decrease of 84 per cent follow: 1913, 188,877; 1918, 29,075. The statistics given are confined to England and Wales. The greatest falling off of drunkenness, amounting to almost 90 per cent, was in the great mining and manufacturing districts of the English Midlands, and in the thickly settled coal-mining areas of Wales.

Bless Statue of the Guide Charlet

Berne, Nov. 4.—An unusual religious ceremony was performed yesterday in the shadow of Mont Blanc. The Abbe Coutin, accompanied by five Chamonix guides, carried to the top of Charlet Peak, an altitude of 12,240 feet, an aluminum statue four feet high and weighing thirty pounds. The summit of the peak was reached after a seven-hour climb. The Chamonix aiguille is one of the most difficult peaks of the Mont Blanc range to ascend.

The Abbe blessed the statue after it was erected and pronounced a short oration. The statue is of the guide Charlet, after whom the peak is named, and who was the first to conquer it in 1879. Charlet is now 82 years of age.

Unable to Find Missing Teacher

Conneaut, Ohio, Nov. 4.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of J. Howard McIntyre, grade school principal here, Friday night remains unsolved. Police and posses have run down every clue brought to their attention without success.

The suggestion that McIntyre may have disappeared of his own volition is not believed by the missing man's father and wife.

NEW CENSUS SUPERVISION

Washington, Nov. 4.—The Secretary of Commerce has appointed Thomas L. Hoskins, of West Chester, Chester county, a supervisor of census for the second supervisor's district of Pennsylvania, in place of Lewis B. King, who declined appointment. The second district comprises the counties of Chester and Delaware.

Decayed teeth break down the health of your child

THE presence of decayed teeth in a child's mouth not only impairs the digestion but also poisons the food which should give nourishment to the little growing bodies.

Irregular teeth also diminish the child's masticating ability and lead him into the habit of "bolting his food" which is very injurious.

PYRODENTO will help the little folks to better teeth and better health. It totally destroys decay germs and keeps the breath fresh and sweet. It thoroughly removes the particles of food and candy that have found lodgment between their teeth and polishes the enamel to beautiful whiteness.

Because of its pure Olive Oil base, PYRODENTO is insoluble in the mouth juices. It clings to the tissues for hours, a protection against the ravages of Pyorrhea and contagious diseases resulting from decayed teeth.

MOTHERS—
 The examination of the teeth of 559 children in two of our public schools revealed 2,708 cavities and over 30 abscesses. Only 13 out of the 559 children did not need dental attention.

Enter Second Week of Great Sale Players-Uprights-Grands At Decided Savings

This sale is gathering momentum. Last week the selling far exceeded our expectations. We sold more pianos and players than many stores sell in a month. The reason for this overwhelming response is simple. Everyone knows that hundreds of piano factories are closed and that retailers everywhere are unable to deliver orders at this critical time. The J. H. Troup Store foresaw the approaching crisis and through buying heavily, months in advance, is able to offer prospective purchasers an opportunity to

Save $50 To $100 On The Price Of Any New Piano---Player-Piano Or Grand In Our Stock

This sale will be largely attended this week because it is so timely. The savings are genuine and are possible only because of the J. H. Troup three-store merchandising on a vast scale. It involved purchases of staggering proportions made months ago.

Hearing and Seeing Is Believing
 Come with your expert friends. Come with the best authority on music you know and learn at first hand what you can do in this sale.

18 Standard Makes Included In This Sale

For the information of those people who are not familiar with the makes of Pianos this store deals in, we give here a partial list of the names included: Chickering, Sohmer, Mehlin, Haines Bros., Estey, Shoninger, Bush & Lane, Kimball, Marshall & Wendell, Foster & Co., Clarendon, Faber, Braumbach, Frances Bacon, Davenport & Tracey and others. Back of each instrument is the full guarantee of this store, as well as the maker's.

You Save $50 to $100 on Any Instrument

During the past few weeks Piano prices, due to production conditions, have been materially advanced by the makers—in some cases as much as $50 to $100—but the instruments we offer in this sale were contracted for far in advance, so that our present prices are unaffected by any recent increase.

2 Whole Years To Pay

Our usual liberal terms of payment apply in this sale. For a small down payment your Piano or Player is delivered to your home or held in storage for delivery anytime up to Christmas. The balance of the cost of your instrument after deducting your down payment, may be spread over two whole years in weekly or monthly payments.

Immediate Deliveries
 Because of the bigness of our stock, we deliver immediately the actual instrument you select from our floor. But we advise your early visit to the store. As you know, some makes and styles of instruments sell faster than others, and the buying now is brisk—so brisk that we look for one of the biggest weeks in our History.

Don't Wait
 Don't wait for a better or even an equal Piano or Player-Piano opportunity. It will certainly not appear this year or next, for materials and labor will be high and production under normal for a long time to come and by all means choose your Victrola, Edison, Vocalion or Sonora this week. Our stocks are exceptionally large, but the demand grows greater each day. Come in today as early as possible.
