most versatile colored comedienne on the American stage, her singing of "Over the Top" is one of the big hits of the season. Miss Samuels' crowns are all made in one of this country's leading costume shops and from her own designs. "Over the Top" will be the attraction at the Orpheum to-day matinee and night.

"A DAUGHTER OF THE SUN"
The world-renowned beach at Waikiki came out from Honolulu is undoubtedly in a class by itself. The story of a girl who is swept away with her killing force. Here is the daily bathing place of the city of Honolulu. Here one can see the expert native Hawaiian swimmer ride the incoming surf on a board. It looks most simple and easy but to the novice it very often happens to be a most hazardous task. The native seems to belong in the water as much as upon land for they are expert swimmers.

"A REGULAR GIRL"
When Selznick Pictures presents "A Regular Girl" at the Colonial Theater, starting to-day, we shall all get our chance to welcome Elsie Janis to the American footlights again. Elsie has been abroad two years teaching the Yvonne singing their hat-tea-Thierry marching songs in French, and now she is back again, proving her faithfulness to the public by entering movies, so that her initial performance may be spread broadcast at once.

"A CHANCE EVERY GIRL TAKES"
At the Orpheum Theater, on Monday matinee and night, "A Chance Every Girl Takes" is a comedy-drama in four acts, and "Doughboy" George Smithfield, the fellow who made a record in France, is back from overseas to play the leading role, supported by the following excellent cast: Messrs. Blakely Rampton, William Wayne, Joseph J. Sullivan, Criss Greager, the Misses Henrietta Goodwyn, Agnes Loftus and Ruth B. Burke.

"TEA FOR THREE"
Charles Walker and Ernest Lawford, in "Tea for Three," Roi Cooper Megrue's latest and most successful comedy, following on entirely new production at the Maxine Elliott Theater, New York, will be presented at the Orpheum to-day matinee and night. "Tea for Three" discloses a delicious sense of humor, and its situations are intensely dramatic. It is particularly fortunate that the Selwyns were enabled to secure stars of Miss Walker's charm and Mr. Lawford's poise for the presentation of the play, and a cast of unusual excellence including Helen Burke and Kathryn Hayden. The Selwyns have staged "Tea for Three" in their usual lavish manner, and its production is one of the most handsome and costly stage settings given a dramatic play in years.

Thursday, November 27, Is Set Aside For Thanksgiving

Washington, Nov. 6. THURSDAY, November 27, is set aside as Thanksgiving Day in a proclamation by Woodrow Wilson, in which it is said the country looked forward "with confidence to the dawn of an era where the sacrifices of the nation will find recompense in a world at peace."

"By the President of the United States of America. A Proclamation. The season of the year has again arrived when the people of the United States are accustomed to unite in giving thanks to Almighty God for the blessings which he has conferred upon our country during the twelve months that have elapsed since our people poured out their hearts in praise and thanksgiving that through Divine aid the right was victorious and peace had come to the nations which had so courageously struggled in defense of human liberty and justice. Now, that the stern task is ended and the fruits of achievement are ours, we look forward with confidence to the dawn of an era where the sacrifices of the nation will find recompense in a world at peace."

"But, to attain the consummation of the great work to which the American people devoted their manhood and the vast resources of their country, they should, as they give thanks to God, reconsecrate themselves to those principles of right which triumphed through His merciful goodness. Our gratitude can find no more perfect expression than to bulwark with loyalty and patriotism those principles for which the free peoples of the earth fought and died. During the past year we have had much to make us grateful. In spite of the confusion in our economic life resulting from the war, we have prospered. Our harvests have been plentiful and of our abundance we have been able to render succor to less favored nations. Our democracy remains unshaken in a world torn with political and social unrest. Our traditional ideals are still our guides in the path of progress and civilization."

"These great blessings, vouchsafed to us, for which we devoutly give thanks, should arouse us to a fuller sense of our duty to ourselves and to our fellow citizens. It is our duty to secure to ourselves the completeness of the victory which we helped to win. No selfish purpose animated us in becoming participants in the World War, and, with a like spirit of unselfishness, we should strive to aid the welfare of all peoples and in bringing into being a world ruled by friendship and good will."

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the 27th day of November, 1919, for observance as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer by my fellow countrymen, inviting them to center on that day their ordinary tasks and to unite in their homes and in their several places of worship in ascribing praise and thanksgiving to God, the Author of all blessings and the master of our destinies."

"I have heretofore set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done in the District of Columbia this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-fourth."

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON." By the President: Robert Lansing, Secretary of State.

ESSEX MOTOR CARS The Way to Judge the Essex Consider it as 16,000 Users Rate it—by Performance and Endurance—Not by its Size and Weight. The Essex has filled a new position among motor cars, and nearly everyone knows it. At first, before they had seen it out-perform most every car, they merely regarded it as a fine, unusually well-built and finished light-weight automobile. They appreciated its quality construction. They conceded it a better built car. Still, because it has many details in common with other similar weight cars, they could not, at the time, bring themselves to look at it in the light it is now held by some 16,000 users. Put Aside Its Size and Type Consider Only Performance. That is what all Essex owners will tell you to do. Go see it with the same expectation of its value that you would examine any fine quality car. If speed is your requirement, see if the Essex does not meet it. Where luxury and finish are demanded, compare the Essex with any car. Don't put yourself in the erroneous position of classing it with light cars. Expect of the Essex the same riding qualities—the same performance ability—with a range of speeds equal to any of such cars as you consider worth $300 to $500 more. IMMEDIATE DELIVERIES Gomery-Schwartz Motor Car Co. Sales Room—116 Market St. Service Station—Court and Cranberry Sts.
