

Says Jugo-Slavia Is Without Shoes

New York, Nov. 6.—Miss Malvina Hoffman, sculptress of international reputation and vice chairman of the American Jugo-Slav Relief Committee, who has just returned to her home in New York after a tour of inspection throughout Jugo-Slavia, reports that the children there are practically without clothing for the coming winter. Shoes are not procurable at any price, she says. They are simply not in the country.

Miss Hoffman visited all the principal cities of Jugo-Slavia, and as many of the rural districts as she was able to reach. "Travel," she said, "is extremely difficult in nearly all parts of the country, as most of the railroads are demolished. The Austrians when they were driven from the country did not leave a bridge standing."

World Musi Work, Says Clemenceau

Strasbourg, Nov. 4.—Premier Clemenceau's speech here to-day, considered his political valedictory to France, rose much above party politics. It was mainly a plea for universal tolerance and social justice, and an appeal to the workingman throughout the world to resume his pre-war methods and "work."

"The world's only salvation from the social and economic chaos from which it is now emerging is work," said M. Clemenceau.

He sketched the formidable enterprise undertaken by the Peace Conference, describing the creation of new states and new frontiers, pointing the newly born democracies to national and economic life.
