Lutheran Brotherhood Is to Hold Convention

Shiremanstown, Pa., Nov. 7.—The second annual meeting of the Lutheran Brotherhood of Mechanicsburg and vicinity will be held in Keller Memorial Church next Wednesday evening at 7.45 o'clock. The chief feature of the evening will be an address by the Rev. Lauretz Larson, D. D., secretary of the National Lutheran Council of America.

The men of St. John's congregation are fortunate in securing this distinguished churchman from Washington, D. C., to address them.

The Lutheran Brotherhood of the West Shore is composed of Lutheran laymen of nine congregations and numbering about 300 members. After the close of the meeting the men of St. John's will entertain the Brotherhood informally in the Bible school rooms of Keller Memorial church.

Township Loan Issue Won Out at Election

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 7.—Contrary to belief, based on an erroneous idea that the proposition needed to have a two-thirds or three-fourths majority, the $30,000 bond issue in Frankford township carried at Tuesday's election. There were 134 votes in favor of the issue and 98 against it. Forty voters did not declare their wish. The money is to be used for the erection of a consolidated high school building. County Superintendent of Schools Green said this morning the loan had carried and that a majority vote was all that was required to pass it.

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 7.—Miss Hazel M. Baer, who has recently been discharged from the army, where she was chief nurse at the United States General Hospital, No. 7, Roland Park, Baltimore, the only Government hospital for blind soldiers, sailors and marines, has entered upon her new duties as an instructor in the home nursing department of the American Red Cross. She is at present located in Baltimore, but her work will probably take her into parts of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia. Miss Baer is the daughter of D. W. Baer, this city.

Farmer Shot by Gun of Hunter Who Tarried

Windsor, Pa., Nov. 7.—John Shoaff, a farmer residing some distance from the borough, is in a serious condition as a result of a sunning accident. Shoaff was in the feeding entry of his barn, when William Smuck, who had been hunting, came along and showed his gun to Shoaff. While Shoaff was examining the gun, it was accidentally discharged, the shot entering his arm and leg.

COMPLAIN OF HUNTERS
Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 7.—Farmers are complaining of the careless hunter. At the home of George Holbrook, near Millroy, a hunter shot at a rabbit and hit a flock of valuable chickens, killing one and injuring several. Up the river west of town a hunter shot into a man's flock of chickens.

Wrightsville Ready to Welcome Soldiers

Wrightsville, Pa., Nov. 7.—Wrightsville will tender her returned soldier heroes a big welcome, starting on Sunday and ending Tuesday evening. The celebration will open with appropriate religious services and flag demobilization in the various churches.

On Monday evening there will be a mass meeting and public speaking. On Tuesday there will be field sports at 10 o'clock a. m., followed by a band concert. A parade will be held at 1 p. m. and a banquet for the service men given at the Acme store at 5 p. m. The celebration will close with a fantastic parade and street dance in the evening.
