GERMAN GRENADE SLEW THORNTON

Mother of Camp Hill Soldier Learns From Lieutenant How He Died

Camp Hill, Pa., Nov. 7.—How Miles Thornton, of this place, was killed in battle is told in a letter received by his mother from Harry Thoma, a former infantry lieutenant, who now is at his home in East Berlin, Pa. It was during the Argonne drive. A soldier who fought by Thornton's side said that the Camp Hill trooper had been put in charge of a machine gun, the position of which was exposed to some extent. While Thornton and his men were on duty several Germans swept up on them and threw a hand grenade, which exploded and instantly killed Thornton and a companion and tore a leg from a third soldier. The three were terribly mutilated. "He must have died bravely," writes Roggs, "for I have been advised that he was posthumously awarded the Distinguished Service Cross." The Argonne drive started on September 26, 1918. Thomas Wagner, a Newville soldier, was killed during the Argonne fighting.

Juniata County Hustles to Give Soldiers Welcome

Mifflintown, Pa., Nov. 7.—Throughout Juniata county there has been a hustle this week for the welcome home celebration to be held in honor of the soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses who served in the World War, and who will be officially greeted and honored on Saturday.

Not only the twin towns of Mifflin and Mifflintown, but all other towns of the county are to participate. A parade will be held at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon, seven bands to be in line. Hon. B. K. Focht, representative in Congress from the Seventh district, will be the speaker of the afternoon. A dinner for all the service men will be served at noon. On Sunday a community memorial service will be held in the court house yard in honor of the heroes who made the great sacrifice for their country.

Democratic Candidate's Vote Is Reduced by 20

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns on Wednesday showed that Daniel H. Heller, of Neville, Democratic candidate for the county commissionership, had received 4,893 votes and his party rival, Ritter, of this place, 4,877, the narrow margin of four votes separating the two. The official count yesterday revealed the fact that there had been an error in the count and that Heller had been credited with 20 more votes than actually were cast for him. It was said last evening in political circles it would take the complete count to determine which of the two men had won.

GIVE RECEPTION TO NEW PASTOR

Members of Mechanicsburg U. B. Church Welcome the Rev. Mr. Koontz

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Members of the First United Church welcomed their recently appointed minister, the Rev. Paul R. Koontz, and Mrs. Koontz last evening at a reception, to which the ministers of the various churches were invited as special guests.

A program was given as follows: Music, orchestra; welcome address, Rev. Mr. Beatty; address, the Rev. Mr. Ayres, of New Cumberland; music, piano duo, Miss Violet Beitzel and Miss Alice Ulrich; address, by the president of the Ministerial Association, the Rev. C. Kookel; vocal solo, Mrs. C. R. Pope; address, the Rev. Dr. A. B. Slator; address, the Rev. Paul R. Koontz; music, male quartet, George C. Dietz, Frank T. Hollinger, Bernard Stansfield and Lloyd Ulrich.

A feature of the evening was the presence of the men composing the conference quartet and of the Rev. Mr. Koontz is a member. They came as a surprise. They were the Rev. Mr. Beatty, of Greencastle; the Rev. Mr. Ayres, of New Cumberland; and the Rev. Mr. Rhoads, of York. There was a large attendance at the reception and the program was arranged by the committee, whom Wilbur Dietz was chairman.

The Rev. Mr. Koontz came to this place from Lemoine. He also served congregations at Myerstown, Md., and Carlisle. He was graduated from the Lebanon Valley College and Bonebrake Theological University at Dayton, Ohio.

Henry Nixon Dies of Disease at Cleveland

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Funeral services will be held in Falling Spring Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock over the remains of Henry Nixon, who died at his home in Cleveland, O., on Wednesday night, after an illness of four weeks of typhoid fever. He was 35 years of age, the son of the late William Gilmore Nixon, once a prominent business man of this place. The dead man had been an active member of Falling Spring church and before leaving here held a responsible position with the Chambersburg Engineering Company. His widow, who was Eleanor Ruthrauff, will be accompanied by the remains here because of the serious illness of her stepmother, who contracted pneumonia while caring for Mr. Nixon.

Break Ground in Perry Town For Silk Mill

Duncannon, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Juvand and Lavigne Co., Inc., of Danville, Pa., has broken ground for a silk mill on the lots which they purchased recently situated between Cumberland and Ann streets. The building will be of New Jersey maroon brick, 153 feet by 63 feet, facing on Ann street, with a plant for the generating of electricity for motor use. There also will be a recreation room for the use of employees. The contract work is being done by E. R. Hall, of Philadelphia, who expects to have the mill in operation by February 1. About 60 people will be employed.

Maid Returns $45,000 Pearl Necklace to Owner

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Percy M. Chandler, of Philadelphia, a sister of Postmaster Krebe, of Mechanicsburg, has recovered her $45,000 pearl necklace, which she lost last year while she was attending a dinner party at New York. The necklace was returned by a maid, who held the jewelry until a reward had been offered. The maid was given the reward and no questions asked.

RIVALRY BRINGS OUT HEAVY VOTE

Plessinger Defeats Black For Associate Judge in Fulton County Election

McConnellsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Much interest was shown in the election in Fulton county this year and a heavy vote was polled in every section of the county. The contest for associate judge was very keen. The candidates both made a thorough campaign and visited almost every voter in the county. The returns for this office were: P. P. Plessinger, 922; D. A. Black, 793.

In the contest for sheriff, A. D. Hohman, Democrat, received 1,037 votes, while his Republican opponent, George C. Cuddy, of New Bloomfield, Pa., received 747. S. W. Kirk was re-elected district attorney with 1,101 votes. J. R. Jackson, Republican, received 657.

For county auditor, D. Gregory, Democrat, received 990 and J. Morton, Republican, 793. I. B. Lake, Democrat, was elected county surveyor, receiving 888. F. M. Taylor, Republican, received 558.

The vote for county auditors was as follows: H. Comer, Republican, 758; W. Ranck, Republican, 769; I. C. Garland, Democrat, 811; Biddis Lynch, Democrat, 812.

Wards of State Help in Franklin Corn Field

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—While a large part of Scotland township school children were out walking through the fields and along the lanes, chaperoned by some teachers, a day or two ago, they came to a corn field in which Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ott and their three children were husking corn. Help is scarce and the Otts could hire nobody to aid in their work. The S. O. I. S. girls volunteered to help and were welcomed. Buckling to the job they husked bushels and shocks of maize and had lots of fun in the neighborhood task.

Most people in the State and many elsewhere have heard the S. O. I. S. Boys' Band play in parades. Prof. Charles Mentzer, who evolved from that bunch of little orphans of comrades of the G. A. R. a splendid musical organization and when the time comes that this band ceases to exist it surely will be missed about this man's town.

Scarcity of Houses in Reading Grows Acute

Reading, Pa., Nov. 7.—So acute has become the scarcity of houses for rent in Reading that some persons are beginning to offer cash bonuses to anyone able to find a suitable home. Recently an advertisement appeared in the classified columns of a local newspaper. In it a $5 "reward" was offered to anyone finding a suitable and ornamental house, later, the offer was increased to $10.

Mifflin County Corn on Exhibition Best Yet Shown

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 7.—The farm product show held jointly each year by the Mifflin County Horticultural and Agricultural Society and the Farm Bureau opened yesterday at the Market House Hall. Many farm products are on exhibition. The corn is the best ever exhibited in this section. Speakers from State College are to be present before the show closes.

CHURCHES READY FOR FALL DRIVE

McConnellsburg Will Start Earnest Campaign For Members Sunday

McConnellsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—The churches of this place will unite in an evangelistic campaign which is to begin Sunday evening. A survey conducted by a committee representing the churches shows there are a large number of the people in this community unchurched, and to reach these this campaign was planned. The services will extend over a period of three weeks, with meetings every evening, except Saturdays, in the McConnellsburg Presbyterian Church. The Revs. Edward Jackson, C. F. Jacobs, William J. Lowe and W. V. Grove will be the preachers. The musical part will be under the direction of the Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Cuddy, of New Bloomfield, Pa. In preparation for the services prayer meetings have been held in different parts of the town and country, as many as eight groups in different localities meeting at the same time and twice a week.

VOTES BOND ISSUE

Columbia, Pa., Nov. 7.—At the election on Tuesday Columbia voted favorably for a bond issue of $40,000 to meet the floating indebtedness of the town, which until January will probably be nearly that sum. The loan carried by 322 majority.

New Superior Court Judge Taught School in Lebanon County

Lebanon, Pa., Nov. 7.—William B. Linn, of Philadelphia, appointed by Governor Sproul a superior court justice to succeed the late Judge Henry Williams, is a son of Valentine Linn, of this place, and only recently on the occasion of a visit to his father made the presentation of a most acceptable gift to the Liberty fire company. The new justice

BANISH CATARRH

Breathe Hyomei for Two Minutes and Relieve Stuffed Up Head

If you want to get relief from catarrh, cold in the head or from an irritating cough in the shortest time breathe Hyomei. It should clear out your head and open up your nose in two minutes and allow you to breathe freely. Hyomei often ends a cold in one day, and brings quick relief from snuffles, hard crusts in the nose, hawking, spitting and catarrhal mucus. Hyomei is made chiefly from a soothing, healing antiseptic oil, that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia where Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Influenza, Pneumonia and Consumption were never known to exist. Hyomei is pleasant and easy to breathe. Just pour a few drops into the hard rubber inhaler, use as directed and relief is almost certain. A complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei, costs but little at H. C. Kennedy's and druggists everywhere. If you already own an inhaler you can get an extra bottle of Hyomei at druggists.
