

"Wet" Governor to Keep All Promises

Jersey City, N. J., Nov. 7.—Gov. Edward L. Edwards says he will use all lawful methods to prevent prohibition in New Jersey. "For its enforcement by the Federal Government I shall not be responsible," he said. "I construe my election as an indication of the feeling of the people of this state concerning prohibition. They are unqualifiedly opposed to it. Holding lawful methods to preserve inviolate the sovereignty of the people. "What I shall do will depend on subsequent legislation. This Congress has determined that one-half of one per cent of alcohol makes a drink intoxicating. The next Congress may decide on 10 per cent. I shall ask for the best legal advice as to the power of New Jersey in concurrent legislation.
