BROWN BEARS HIT HARD BY GALE

Forward Passes Feature the Game in Which Were Many Thrills

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 10.—The fur flew when the Yale Bulldog and the Brown Bear clawed each other in the bowl Saturday before 30,000 persons.

Eight times Yale went over the top to the Brown twenty-yard trenches, but only twice was the play clean enough to give the final touchdown punch.

Quarterback Herbert Kempton starred. His field generalship, his punning back of punts, and his broken-field running time and again threw the Brown Bear back into its cave.

THOMAS LIPTON IS IN NEW YORK

Here to Plan for Big Yacht Race Next Year; Favors Sandy Hook

New York, Nov. 10.—Bronzed and weather beaten by sun and wind, Sir Thomas J. Lipton, Bart., arrived Saturday from England on the Cunarder Carmania buoyed up with the hope that the New York Yacht Club would accept his challenge and that the race would take place on June 24, 1920.

Sir Thomas has achieved every ambition of his boyhood dreams in his long and successful business career, and has only one wish to gratify, and that is to win what the popular Baronet terms "That Mug."
