FAMILY ALTAR GOES; DIVORCES SHOW INCREASE

Apparent Decay of Religion Given as Reason For Marriage Troubles

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 10.—An increase of 400 per cent in the number of divorces annually granted in the United States during the last half century was attributed in the World's Christian Citizenship Conference here to-day to the "disappearance of the family altar and the apparent decay of religion."

cities; higher age of marriage; popularization of law; laxity of law and administration; the transition from the old order to the new; wrong conception of marriage and the marriage relation; the Mormon propaganda; the social evil; infectious disease; hasty marriages; the double standard; newspaper publicity; childless marriages; the war; and too many cases of the wife's failure to recognize her responsibility for the maintenance of the home.

The Judge recommended, in behalf of the World Commission on the Family, that an educational campaign be directed toward informing the general public on the causes which demoralize the family and upon the following "important phases" of the subject:

Creasy Wants U. S. to Hold Railroads Two More Years

ON THE GRIDIRON In seven games Tech has tallied 437 points to its opponents' 0. Some record. Last season's—597 to 10.

Tech is out to run up a bigger score than the 39 to 0 defeat handed to Captain Clarence Beck. Brother Carl will have a chance to avenge the disaster.

No better goal kicking is seen anywhere than is shown on the island. Samuel Comfort and Emanuel kicked 9 out of 9. One of Emanuel's was from a bad angle. W. and J. lost 7 to 6 to Pitt, and Penn was defeated by Dartmouth 29 to 19 through inability to kick a goal.

Last week's captain Ebner, spent the weekend in the city on his way home from Syracuse. Ebner was just about to capture a forward pass launched by Syracuse and had a clear field for a touchdown, when one of his "pals" knocked down the ball.

"Hennie" Kohlman gave this version of his accident: "I saw Beckie headed around left end, with Lingle leading off. I was afraid 'Buddie' would take me out, so had to make a high tackle. When I woke up, I was in the hospital. While I was in the game I played my hardest, as I did not want it said in front of my friends that I did not do my best for Bethlehem. I had groomed myself to play the best game of my career, and am sorry that I could not finish the contest."

"Danny" surely showed the goods in running with the ball. There is some chance that he will return to Tech to complete his course rather than return to Bethlehem.

King, who took Kohlman's place at fullback, is a star baseball player. Last year he was a third baseman for the Buffalo Internationals.

Penn State outplayed Lehigh at all angles of their annual game on Beaverfield by a score of 29 to 7. State made 17 first downs to the losers' three.

W. and J. was the team forced out of championship honors by Pitt. Harvard lost ground by playing Princeton to a 10-point stalemate. Colgate and Syracuse meet next Saturday, when another of the big teams will be eliminated.

Lebanon Valley lost out in the last minute of play to Mount St. Mary's when Friday kicked a goal from field. It was the only score of the contest.

Gettysburg and Villanova staged a college game at York and the Battlefield lads won 29 to 0.
