The government is not at present considering the question of wholesale emigration to Russia. Most German political conomists are of the opinion that German workers would not take very kindly to emigration to Russia, as they consider Russian conditions too primitive. As a matter of fact, the German worker does not wish to go easts ward from Germany. On the other hand, many German engineers, technicians and chemists are prepared to settle in Russia.

The country districts of Germany, and in particular German agriculture, are suffering severely at present from lack of labor, especially since Galician and Russian laborers, who before the war regularly migrated t fore the war regularly migrated to Germany every spring and summer to the number of about half a million, are now no longer available. Should the conditions of life in the large cities further deteriorate, many industrial workers would find themselves compelled to seek employment on the land, however distasteful that might be to them.

Farmer's Son Killed by Auto in Adams

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 11.—Harold Cashman, 8-year-old son of Charles Cashman, a farmer residing near here, was killed on the Lincoln Highway midway between Gettysburg and New Oxford, by the touring car of J. R. Dosch, of Lancaster, in front of Granite Hill school house. The boy was walking in the middle of the road with other school chilof the road with other school children on their way home when a touring car sounded a horn just to the rear. The car was running at a moderate rate of speed and the children had plenty of time to get off the center of the road.

Cashman, instead of speaking the side of the road opposite the path of the machine, hesitated a moment and then walked in front of the car. Dosch, in an effort to avoid striking the boy, turned his car up an embankment on the right side of the the boy, turned his car up an embankment on the right side of the road. Carlisle Will Observe Armistice Anniversary

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 11.—There will be a parade and public speaking, here to-night in celebration of the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice. The parade will form at the Elk House. It will consist of two divisions, the first being made up of the speakers at the public meeting in automobiles and Post No. 101, American Legion, under whose auspices the celebration is to be held, and the second composed of college student members of of Post 101 and members of other posts. The speakers at the courthouse will be Dr. Leon C. Prince and Fillmore Maust.

REDUCES WORKING HOURS
Mount Wolf, Pa., Nov. 11.—Because of the scarcity of material, attributed to the steel strike, the local branch of the American Wire Fabrics Company has been obliged to reduce its working time to four days a week. This will be followed until conditions improve. The plant was closed to-day in celebration of the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice.
