Out-of-town guests present.

Mrs. Swindells wore her wedding gown that had been carefully preserved for the last half century, without the slightest change in any detail. The "wedding party," comprising the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Swindells with their one son, three daughters, three sons-in-law, and one grandchild, entered the church to the strains of the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" and left to the Mendelssohn "Wedding March." The little grandchild, as flower girl, strewed flowers in their path.

After the guests had greeted the members of the party, fifty children, the children and grandchildren of couples married by the Rev. Dr. Swindells, marched forward, each presenting Mrs. Swindells with a large, yellow chrysanthenum.

The aged pastor married Mrs. Shope's mother and father 48 years ago at Lehighton, at the beginning of his ministry. Some years later he performed the ceremony of Dr. and Mrs. Shope.

This Is the Time For Furs

Furs are going to be worn more this year than ever before, in spite of the high prices. This short coat, with a belted front and a longer ripple back, is of seal with a beaver collar and deep cuffs. A band of beaver is also around the bottom of the garment. Brown is the popular color this year, which makes seal and beaver very desirable furs.
