

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH A NEWSPAPER FOR THE HOME

Published evenings except Sunday by THE TELEGRAPH PRINTING CO. President and Editor-in-Chief E. J. STACKPOLE

Members of the Associated Press—The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association Eastern office, Story, Brooks & Finley, 111 E. 1st St.

Entered at the Post Office in Harrisburg, Pa., as second class matter.

By carrier, ten cents a week; by mail, $2.00 a year in advance.

From the lowest depths, there is a path to the loftiest height.—CARLYLE.

THE COAL STRIKE

The Government has won its point in the coal strike. The majesty and authority of constituted law have been upheld.

The union chiefs have bowed to the law. They have declared themselves to be law-abiding citizens.

They have differences with the operators. The operators say the demands are unjust. The miners say the operators are unreasonable and arbitrary.

It must be conceded that the work of the miner is of such a character as to warrant considerations that would not be admissible in other lines of labor.

It behooves both sides to approach the coming arbitration with clean hands, with nothing but the facts on the table and each ready to abide by whatever decision shall be reached.

Those folks who are defying the authority of the United States might take a lesson from the biography of one Jefferson Davis.

A LOSS TO THE CITY

HUNDREDS of friends of George S. Reinold, who will rejoice in his promotion to an important post in the service of the Bell Telephone Company, will regret that his advancement will necessitate his removal from Harrisburg.

We used to think that the United States government was all powerful; now we know it.

ONE COMMON ISSUE

WE ARE fast approaching the Presidential year. In a month or two plans will be well under way for the spring primaries, when delegates to the National conventions will be chosen.

Do you remember the time when you used to throw your old shoes away?

If Mr. Domain isn't a little bit more reasonable, Thanksgiving will have to be postponed a week or two.

Politics in Pennsylvania

The decidedly energetic manner in which the Republicans of Luzerne, Lackawanna and other counties of the hard coal field are moving to end the ballot frauds which have been the subject of so much discussion the last few years and which have resulted in contest after contest in the courts is attracting attention.

—David B. Oliver, who served as a member of the School Code Commission and as a member of the State Board of Education, has been elected president of the Pittsburgh Board of Education for the ninth time.

—Auditor General Charles A. Snyder is being complimented at the Capitol upon the splendid showing of the Republicans of Schuylkill county.

—The rout of Bruce Sterling's army in the Twenty-third congressional district during the election last week continues to furnish the Republican newspapers of Fayette county with much material for comment.

—The Shuman-Gennarin contest in Columbia county is attracting the whole State. Charges that the Republican candidate was counted out by desperate Democrats are being endured with perfect confidence of approval for the proposed school bond issue.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

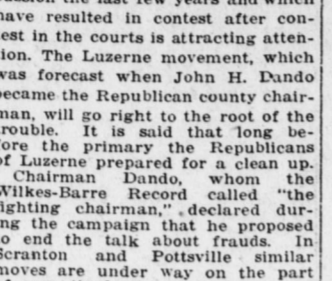

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

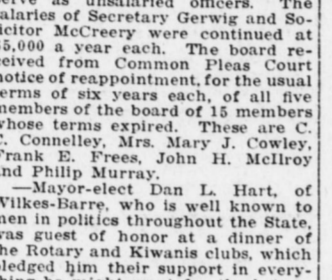

—The Johnstown Tribune in a lengthy editorial urges the people of that community to give their best support in such a questionable way.

Wonder What a Prince Thinks About?

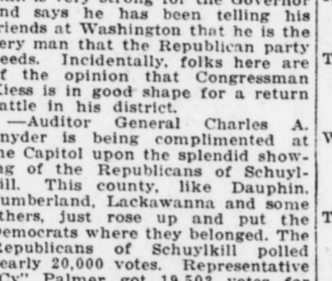

THIS IS A GREAT LIFE—I WONDER HOW IT HAPPENED TO BE A PRINCE ANYWAY—I SUPPOSE I'M HAVING A LOT OF FUN AND ALL THAT SORT OF THING BUT—

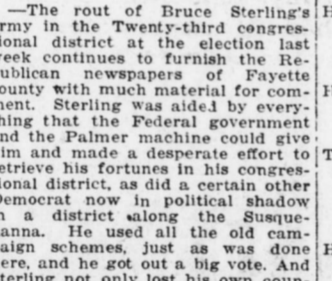

OH-H-H THOSE SPEECHES—EVERYWHERE I GO I HAVE TO LISTEN TO THEM—I'VE GOT KEYS TO EVERY TOWN I'VE VISITED HOW'D IT HAPPEN TO BE A PRINCE ANYWAY

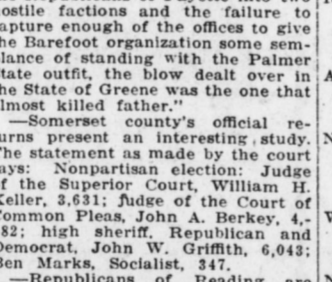

I'D LIKE TO PROVE THAT I'M A REGULAR GUY—BUT THEY DON'T GIVE ME A CHANCE. THAT WAS A SWELL LITTLE GIRL THAT SMILED AT ME BUT I DARES'N'T BAT AN EYE

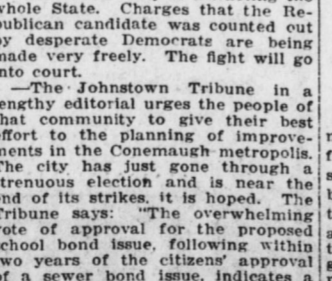

I HAVE TO LAUGH AT SOME OF THE SPEECHES I HEAR—ON THE SQUARE THEY'RE A SCREAM! WISH I HAD THAT GIRL'S ADDRESS.

WHOO! I'M SLEEPY—WONDER HOW IT HAPPENED TO BE A PRINCE—THAT'S WHAT I'D LIKE TO KNOW—

SO THIS IS AMERICA! WELL—WELL—WELL—THEY TELL ME THE GIRLS ARE PRETTIER HERE THAN IN ANY OTHER COUNTRY—WELL SHOW ME!! TERRIBLY HANDICAPPED THIS BEING A PRINCE

WHEN YOU MENTION—"Car" You cannot live in peace, for your troubles will increase.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

Rattlesnake and Bolshevist.

WHEN a rattlesnake bed is found every wise man recognizes the necessity of immediately killing the reptiles in order that they may not continue to breed an increasing supply of these deadly enemies to mankind.

The rattlesnake in its deadliest anger is a friend of the man to whom it strikes its poisoned fangs as compared with the Bolshevist.

We might as well undertake the existence of the rattlesnake when we were looking at a bed of rattlesnakes, as to undertake to deny the danger of the Bolshevists, permitted to breed malice and with his infernal activity keep on breeding it, is ever putting forth a new brood of poisoners of the Nation's life.

Aggressive action on the part of the Government, the hunting down with unceasing vigilance every anarchist and Bolshevist, and deporting or imprisoning them, should be the universal demand of all right-thinking people.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

When you rise in early morn and have tasks you must perform.

After the Sugar Profiteers

From New York comes the cheering news that two men charged with the crime of gouging the consumer have been indicted by the Federal grand jury.

While the starry-eyed sleep, 'Tis the time to "tuck in" baby Just before he falls to sleep.

Oh, the love thoughts mother whispers in hushed tones, And the tender things she'll think As she hovers over baby

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

Wild Cats and Liberty Bonds

A fellow I read about in a story once said to another fellow: "Can a wildcat ever be tamed? No. He'll make a gallery mess of 'em!"

I think of that every time I read the literature of one of those get-rich-quick outfits that want to take the nest-egg savings from an American on the promise to make it multiply.

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

General Wood's Service

The splendid efficient work of the federal army at Gary, formerly at Omaha, is a reminder of the value of that branch of the government in domestic as well as in foreign affairs.

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

Evening Chat

Now that the filling in of the Capitol Park Extension has advanced so that people can observe the grades that will be established one gets an idea of what a hole the extension of the State domain, which is to be the civic center of a Commonwealth, has made in Harrisburg.

What park extension means to the city is that a section of State street is just taken off the map. South and Cranberry streets and some of the ends and become like Locust and Pine.

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

When our long, long day is over, And our little work all is done, When we turn our weary eyelids Toward the setting of the sun;

HISTORIC HARRISBURG Harrisburg people contributed for the first trees planted in Capitol Park.