NEFF-CRESSWELL BRIDAL TODAY Ceremony Solemnized at Noon in Westminster Presbyterian Church

The marriage of Miss Martha Louise Cresswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Cresswell, 211 Harris street, to Guy McCauley Neff, son of Jacob Neff, of Alexandria, Huntington county, was solemnized at noon today in Westminster Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Henry W. Miller, assisted by the Rev. Dr. C. W. Levan, of Alexandria, officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of pink chrysanthemums. Mrs. Paul Miller played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the processional and the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" as the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Georgette crepe and a veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of bride roses.

Mrs. George H. Hill, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was of light gray Georgette crepe and she wore a large black hat. The bridesmaid, Miss Sabra Clark, wore a gown of pink crepe with a picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses.
