Washington, Nov. 17.—The government by an opinion today in the Supreme Court won its fight to have canceled patents for 6,000 acres of California oil land valued at $10,000,000, alleged to have been obtained through fraud by the Southern Pacific Company.

MARKET BREAKS AFTER ANNOUNCEMENT OF DECISION
New York, Nov. 17.—The stock market was subjected to another sharp break at noon today. Heavy selling was precipitated by an announcement that the United States Supreme Court had decided against the Southern Pacific Company in the suit involving 6,000 acres of valuable oil lands in California.

WEST VIRGINIA MEN RETURNING TO WORK
Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 17.—Leaders of the United Mine Workers of America and other officials of West Virginia expressed the opinion early today that a majority of the miners who did not obey union orders to return to work last week, would enter the mines during the day. Representatives of the union were confident that most of the men would be back on the job today.

INDIANA MINERS HOLD OUT
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17.—No union miners returned to work in the Indiana bituminous coal fields today, despite hopes expressed last week by operators that there would be enough defections from the union ranks to allow resumption of coal production at some mines to-day. All persons indebted to said operators are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims will present them for settlement.

PLANT RESUMES
Pittsburgh, Nov. 17.—Operations were resumed today at the Mingo Junction plant of the Carnegie Steel Company, according to an announcement made by the company offices here. There was a shortage of foreign laborers, but the company said the plant would be operated with the men who had reported for work.
