

Rail Chief Who Began as Track Hand Is Dead

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 18.—George F. Ryan, former Division Superintendent of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, died yesterday at Harden, Ky., of uraemic poisoning, aged 61. He formerly lived in this county and began his career as a track foreman. Later he engaged in railroad contracting and became prosperous.

DON'T DESPAIR

If you are troubled with pains or aches; feel tired; have headache, indigestion, insomnia; painful passage of urine, you will find relief in

GOLD MEDAL HARLEM OIL CAPSULES

The world's standard remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles and National Remedy of Holland since 1895. Three sizes, all druggists. Guaranteed. Look for the name Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitation.

The Wee One burrowed her pink nose deeper in Mother's neck, more cuddly than usual. Mother knew what was coming. National Biscuits came in demand and she smiled, thinking of her "Biscuits and Zu Zus."

"Wee wants a party," she said. "A party!" Mother's smile broke into ripples. "Wee wants a party," she said. "A party!" Mother's smile broke into ripples.

Uneeda Biscuit advertisement featuring an image of a biscuit box and text: "crisp and oven-fresh. Protected from oven to table in the famous In-er-seal trade mark package. Good for all ages—for every meal and between meals."

STERN'S CUT RATE SHOES advertisement with a list of shoe styles and prices.

Evans Triple Phosphates Most Rapid Strength Producer Known, Says Authority. Advertisement for a health supplement.

Absolutely No Pain advertisement for Dr. Phillips, Dentist, located at 320 Market St. Harrisburg, Pa.

GEORGE S. REI NOEHL GUEST AT FAREWELL DINNER

George S. Reinhoel, the newly-appointed manager of the combined Atlantic Coast and Philadelphia divisions was a guest of honor at a testimonial dinner given last evening at the Harrisburg Club. Those present were: J. C. Lynch, vice-president and general manager, Philadelphia; J. L. Kilpatrick, assistant general manager, Philadelphia; J. H. Crossman, Jr., general commercial superintendent, Philadelphia; G. S. Reinhoel, division manager, Philadelphia; H. C. Kannel, division superintendent of plant, Harrisburg; C. E. Booser, division auditor of receipts, Harrisburg; J. T. Harris, division superintendent of traffic, Harrisburg; C. F. Briabin, division manager, Harrisburg; E. G. Simons, district manager, Scranton; K. C. Rapp, district manager, Williamsport; E. G. Mator, district manager, Altoona; E. J. Coover, district manager, Allentown; W. F. Bush, district manager, Reading; W. H. Fetter, district manager, Harrisburg; R. W. Kintzer, district manager, Wilkes-Barre; P. S. Harkins, district superintendent of plant, Scranton; V. L. C. Hassard, district superintendent of plant, Williamsport; H. S. Springer, district superintendent of plant, Altoona; B. O'Donnell, district superintendent of plant, Reading; H. F. Hope, district superintendent of plant, Harrisburg; H. Black, district superintendent of traffic, Altoona; W. F. Page, district superintendent of traffic, Harrisburg; E. McDonough, district superintendent of traffic, Reading; A. DeB. Robins, district superintendent of traffic, Scranton; S. H. Dier, district superintendent of traffic, Williamsport; William Hasletine, division employment manager, Harrisburg; H. E. Prevost, division publicity manager, Harrisburg; G. J. Smith, division chief clerk, Harrisburg; R. L. Brown, special agent, Harrisburg.

On Trial For Death of Boy in Mine Cave

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 18.—Vice-President W. W. Inglis, who is also general manager of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Coal Company, and his assistant, S. D. Dimmick, were to-day placed on trial on the charge of manslaughter. Judge Moser, of Northumberland county, specially presided. The charge against the officials grows out of the death of Robert Warbarton, eleven years old, who was engulfed in a mine cave of the company's workings while playing near his home in West Scranton in August.

NUXATED IRON advertisement with a list of benefits: HELPS GIVE VIM, TO THE ATTRACTIVE YOUNG GIRL, PUNCH, TO THE STURDY YOUNG FELLOW, ENERGY, TO THE BUSINESS MAN & WOMAN, HEALTH, TO THE MOTHER AT HOME, POWER, TO THE STRONG RUGGED FATHER. 3,000,000 people use it as a Tonic, Strength and Blood-Builder.

Hard Cash Demanded For Carrying Big Bass Drum

Harrisburg had a strike on to-day. It was of short duration and worked no hardships. Banner boys and boys who help to carry the bass drum in a minstrel parade refused to serve for a pass only. They wanted an admission ticket and some cash.

LAUNCH TROOP SHIP

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—The Hog Island shipyard to-day launched its second troop ship. It was named St. Mihel for the French battlefield on which American soldiers fought.

VERDICT EXPECTED

Jurors in the suit brought by the Sheet Metal and Supply Company vs. Louis Begelfor were expected to return a verdict during the afternoon session of civil court. In the action it is claimed by the company that Mr. Begelfor did not pay for plumbing fixtures furnished to him.

NEW BOX IN PLACE

Fire Chief Kinder announced that Box 7 had been placed at Fourteenth and Howard streets. This is one of the two new boxes which are to be furnished this year.

EDUCATORS SPLIT ON EXAMINATIONS

and other speakers from the State Department of Health, urged that it be carried from teachers to parents as well as children. Dr. W. C. Cornell, of Philadelphia, said that what is needed is advice, not medicine.

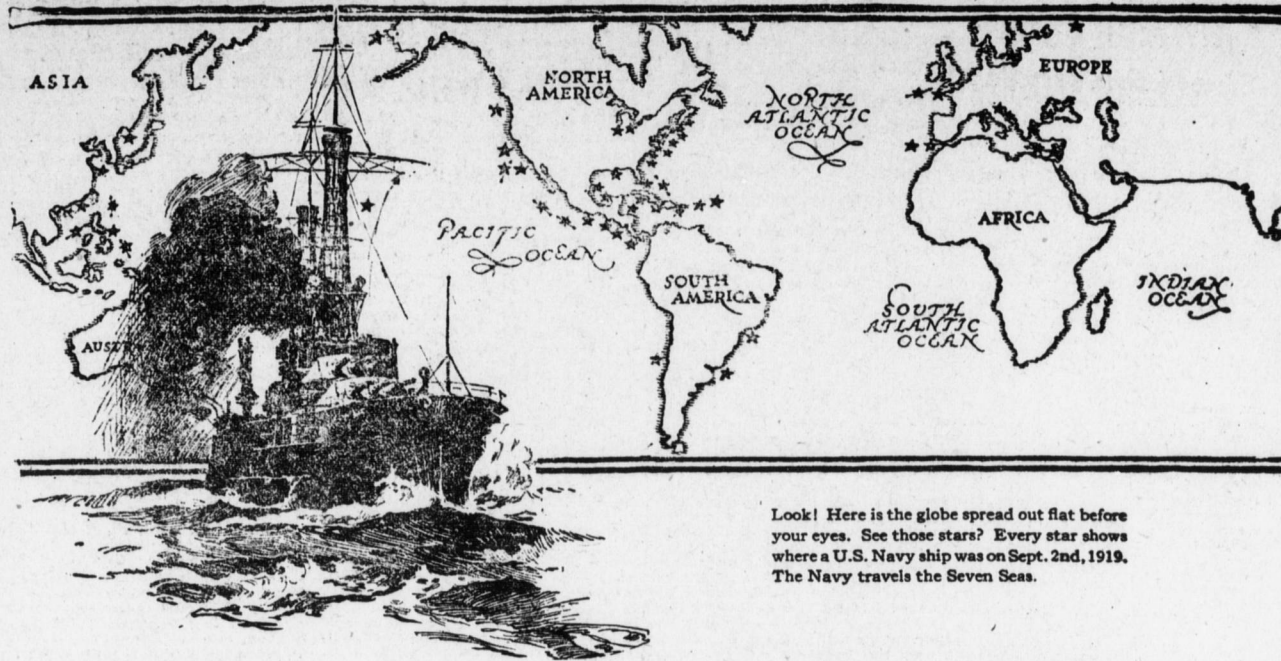

At the vocational education section training of pupils for shipbuilding, agriculture and manual training were discussed. E. S. McNary, of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, and Superintendent A. W. Warner, of York, were speakers and urged that trained workers be placed with students.

Consult Farm Men

Rural education should be adapted to the needs of the community and not be made in accord with a standard and fast rule for a whole State declared speakers at the meetings of the section on rural education.

Barred Out Again

People attending the congress sharply criticised the closing of the supreme court room to the meetings. Some were planned for that chamber, but use was refused and persons who went to the room had to go hunting through the building for the department where they were to meet.

Look! Here is the globe spread out flat before your eyes. See those stars? Every star shows where a U.S. Navy ship was on Sept. 2nd, 1919. The Navy travels the Seven Seas.

Don't you want to see the World?

ROMANCE is calling to you! Strange and smiling foreign lands are beckoning to you. Shove off and see the world! Learn to "parley-vo" in gay Paree. See the bull-fights in Panama. See surf-riding on the beach of Waikiki. Learn the lure that comes with the swish and swirl of the good salt sea. Eat well—free; dress well—free; sleep clean—free; and look 'em all straight in the eye—British, French, Chinese, Japanese, Spaniards, Egyptians, Algerians and all manner of people. Come! Be a real man of the world. See the world. See it with the red-blooded, hard-working, hard-playing men of the U. S. Navy. Pay begins the day you join. On board ship a man is always learning. Trade schools develop skill, industry and business ability. Thirty days care-free holiday each year with full pay. The food is good. First uniform outfit is furnished free. Promotion is unlimited for men of brains. You can enlist for two years and come out broader, stronger and abler. Shove off!—Join the U. S. Navy. If you're between 17 and 35 go to the nearest recruiting station for all the details. If you don't know where it is ask your postmaster.

Shove off! - Join the U. S. Navy

Large advertisement for The GUNZENHAUSER Bakery. Includes text: "We're Making Speedy Headway In Harrisburg's Newest Bakery", "The success of our new plant is certainly assured judging by the satisfactory way our bread is being received by the public of this city", "Comparing Bread", "You should eat good bread regardless of who makes it. We say this because we have so much confidence in the uniform quality of our bread that we believe comparison will prove to you that you should always eat our bread.", "The GUNZENHAUSER Bakery, Eighteenth and Mulberry Streets, Harrisburg, Pa."