

ZEMBO PATROL PLAYS GALAHAD VOLLEYBALL STARS TONIGHT---JOHN HESS REFEREE

HARRISBURG FOOTBALL FANS TO SEE ARMY-NAVY GAME ON ISLAND PARK FIELD

New York is not the only city in America which will see an Army-Navv game this year. It was announced today that teams representing the Army and Navy will play a game on Island Park Saturday afternoon, November 29. Both teams will be composed of American Legion members, who are promoting the game.

"Charley" Thomas, former lieutenant of Company I, old Eighth Regiment, N. G. P., and Josiah P. Wilbur, Company D, have been put in charge of the Army football team and will announce a tentative lineup in a few days. They said today that there are six ex-Army men in the city who play on the famous Twenty-eighth Division team, which was a runner-up for the championship of the A. E. F. To date about 15 players have been lined up, and the calibre of the oufit is sufficient to insure a pretty hot fight when the soldiers and sailors mix it up.

Strong Navy Team

The Navy organization is being completed at the present time, and will be announced shortly. There are enough gobs in town to give the soldier players a good run for their money, and as one of them said this morning it won't be any skirmish like the "Saturday nights in Brest and St. Nazaire."

The American Legion posts in this city are determined to make this game an annual affair, and say that Harrisburg football lovers will see some snappy gridiron work. Any doughboy or gub who would like to get into the game is asked to write to or come in to see the sporting editor at the Telegraph.

SNOODLES

GREAT JOCKEY IS NOW BOOTBLACK

Victim of Drugs; Once Rode Real Winners; Had Money

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Once he earned more than $20,000 a year and was the idol of the sporting world; today he is working for a Greek, shining shoes.

Former jockey James Sims, a negro, begged for morphine Saturday at the headquarters of the narcotic squad in the Federal building where he was taken as a witness in a drug case.

Sims first became a follower of the race track when he was 13 years old, and attracted the attention of Harry Payne Whitney, millionaire horse owner, who engaged him as a jockey. Sims won many famous stakes for the Whitney stable, and during his career ranked among the top-riding jockeys such as Isaac Murphy, Fred Taral, Tod Sloan, Redfern, Doggett, Clayton, Littlefield, and Griffin.

Sims rode Ben Brush to victory in the Kentucky Derby of 1896 and two years later piloted Plauditt to victory in the Blue Grass classic. He rode the winners of the Belmont stakes of 1893-94, they being Comanche and Henry of Navarre, respectively. In 1897 he brought Ben Brush home a winner in the Brighton handicap and again won it with Octagon in 1897. The Tremont stakes of 1897 was another winning race for Sims when he piloted Handball home in front.

During the last years of his career as a rider, however, he smoked opium to keep his weight down and never was able to free himself from drugs.

When Sims was at his best as a jockey, his earnings, including receipts from bets, sometimes amounted to as high as $30,000 a year. "What are you doing now?" asked a Federal agent.

"I'm ashamed to tell you," said Sims with a hanging head. "I'm shining shoes for a Greek. I've been broke for years."

LEAGUE RULE TO STOP LATE SALES

National League May Prohibit the Unloading of Stars to Strong Club

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Serious effort will be made at the annual meeting of the National League early next month to curb a practice which reached its height last season and threatens to become worse unless restricted. It is that of weaker clubs selling players to pennant contenders in the latter part of the season when two or three owners are willing to pay almost any price to strengthen up for the home stretch.

Manager Moran of the world's champion Reds has complained bitterly against the unwillingness of the other National League club owners to let go of any players to help out Cincinnati when it was crippled for lack of an outfielder but there seemed to be no unwillingness to sell or trade pitchers to the Giants when they were going badly.

Fix Sale Limit.

There is a strong sentiment in favor of adopting a rule that no National League owner shall sell or trade a player to another club in that circuit subsequent to August 1. Some clubs are willing to fix it as early as July 1, while others favor a later "dead line."

The commission's rules protect the world series against any such jockeying by a rule that no player shall be eligible to the post season scrap unless under contract to his team prior to September 1. There is nothing in the league's rules to prevent a club owner purchasing a flock of players to use in the last week of the championship race, provided some losing owner is willing to sell them. The proposed rule is designed to guard against any such possibility in the future and to restrict trades in the same league to the first half of the season.

If there had been such a rule in force in the American League this year there would be no Mays maze to tangle up the works in that circuit and the major organization may follow the older league's lead and adopt one this winter.

GALAHAD PLAYS ZEMBO PATROL

First of Series of Tuesday Night Games With Dance Program

VOLLEYBALL TONIGHT

Chestnut Street Auditorium, Zembo Patrol vs. Galahad. Game starts at 8.15. John Hess, referee.

Cancellations in volleyball are becoming as numerous as in football. Three teams were lined up for tonight at Chestnut Street Auditorium and then all canceled. At a late hour yesterday afternoon Manager "Cappy" Hoy, who has been confined to his home all week, managed to land an attraction, and to-night the Galahad team will meet Zembo Patrol.

This is not Galahad's first appearance in the sport that is now attracting much interest from the public. It will be the first appearance of the Hill champions in public. Galahad has been meeting all comers in various gymnasiums, and because of the demand for volleyball attractions, decided to play all comers. Following this game to-night, Galahad will play a series of out-of-town games.

Zembo Keeps Busy

Zembo players have been practicing every afternoon for the game. It was announced at the last game that there would be volleyball every Tuesday, and this is what will happen until the close of the season, unless it becomes necessary to change the date because of the inability to secure the auditorium.

Patrons may expect a good game to-night. Play will start at 8.15 and "Big Jaw" Hess will referee. The added feature, a two-hour dance, will be continued at all games and the public will be welcome. It is not a costly proposition as both the game and dance requires a small outlay. A twelve-piece orchestra will furnish the music and the program runs two full hours.

French Champion, Who Is Training to Meet Joe Beckett, and His Sparring Partners

Left to right: Georges Carpenter, Eddie McGoorty and Paul Journe. Georges Carpenter, French heavyweight champion, who was out of the ring for five years on account of the war, is putting in a long period of training for his coming fight with Joe Beckett, English heavyweight champion. His friends say his long absence from the game has not stowed him up and that he is as clever as ever. He is seen here at his training quarters near Paris with Eddie McGoorty, the American whom Beckett recently defeated, and Paul Journe, a French heavyweight. They are his sparring partners. Carpenter is confident he will beat Beckett and thus get a chance at Jack Dempsey's world title.

ERIE MAY COME HERE SATURDAY

Tech High Manager Is Trying to Secure Strong Attraction For Maroons

Tech High School "knocked off" a period yesterday morning to celebrate the victory gained Saturday over Greensburg High at that place.

Prof. Grubb told the story of the trip from the time the team left Harrisburg amid the cheers of the student body, until the final trip home. Captain Frank gave a number of incidents about the trip, after which the cheer leaders mounted the platform and gave a cheer for each of the members of the squad who made the trip.

No practice was held last night so that the squad would have a chance to rest after the hard battle. To-day Coach Smith had the entire squad on the field in preparation for a game Saturday. Manager "Bud" Snyder wired Erie High School to come here for a game Saturday. The Erie lads have not been scored on this year, and claim to have a hard time to get opponents.

They say the crowd leaves the field before half of the game is played, because of the overwhelming score by which Erie has been defeating her rivals. Erie claims the championship of Ohio, Northwestern Pennsylvania and Southern New York. They lay claim to being real champions and dispute Tech's claim.

Another Claimant

Ever hear of Pottsville, Ohio? Out in that "burg" they have another team that has not been scored on in eight games. They also want a crack at Tech. Faculty Director Grubb sent a letter to several Cleveland papers, and replies have already begun to come East. Then there is Masten Park High, of Buffalo. They want to come to Harrisburg December 6. Tech is out for the championship, and will meet all comers. Local patrons are promised real sport before Tech finally closes its season.

That local fans are back of the Tech team is shown by the fact that 400 rosters followed the team out to Greensburg to see their favorites win the game. These same camp followers raised enough cash to engage the Latrobe Band. These musicians did much to enliven the crowd.

In case Erie High is not the opponent Saturday either the Pitt Freshmen of the Army and Navy Prep School, of Washington, D. C. will oppose the big Maroon eleven.

GETTYSBURG CRIPPLES

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 18.—Briggs and Lerew and Kiser, the Gettysburg stars hurt in Saturday's game with Bucknell, are still suffering from their injuries. Lerew will be in the scrimmage in a day or two, but Briggs was kicked in the jaw and suffers somewhat from his wound, so that he may not be used until the Thanksgiving Day game at Lancaster with F. and M. All of the squad were tired yesterday after the hard fight with Bucknell and only a light workout was given.

Dr. B. S. Behney, Dentist, has resumed practice at 236 North Second street. Bell 1814.—Adv.
