

Happenings of a Year in Central Pennsylvania

VETERAN LAWYER TO BE COUNSEL

Major General Clement Likely to Guide Northumberland Commissioners

Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 19.—Major General Charles M. Clement, former commander of the 28th Division, is likely to be solicited to the new board of Northumberland County Commissioners. This statement was made today by one of the men closest to the inner councils of the Republican organization. From a business standpoint, he is considered one of the best men in the county. The commissioners could choose his recent trial of the R. B. Moulton Coal Company case showed wide knowledge of the law on property titles, contracts and business dealings. General Clement lives in Sunbury and thus will be available at all times.

It seems settled that William H. Deppen, deputy county treasurer will be chief clerk to the county commissioners. Deppen would not deny this to-day. As he is one of the big men in Republican party councils it is believed he will be the man. No other appointments had been determined upon as far as the commissioners' office is concerned, it was said last night. The salaries in the commissioners' office run from $105 to $140 a month. The chief clerk will be paid $150 a month with $200 for the chief clerk. The only place settled at the fall is that of William H. Calhoun, of Northumberland.

Rioting Striker Who Fled Grabbed by Law

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 19.—Charged with riot and assault, a battery in connection with the Waynesboro strike, H. D. Manns, who fled to Baltimore when the excitement was at its height and he became implicated in the riot charges, was arrested here yesterday. He said he had come to this place to "help with the butchery." Two officers recognized an arrested him and he was placed in jail until he could find a bondsman. He will be tried at the next session of criminal court.

Chief of Police Quits Chosen to Higher Post

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—Horace E. Emley, who has been chief of police for several years, sent his resignation to council last evening, effective December 1. Andrew V. Emery will act as chief until the beginning of the year. Emery will spend the month in deer hunting and becoming acquainted with the duties of the office of register and recorder, to which place he was elected at the recent election.

WILL HOLD CONFERENCE

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—The Franklin County Sabbath School Workers' conference will be held in the lecture room of the Central Presbyterian Church on Friday, November 21. The theme of the conference will be "Building."

CHEW

With False Teeth?
SURE
Dr. Wernet's Powder

Keeps them firm. Prevents sore gums. White. Flavored. Antiseptic.

If your dental plate is loose or drops, to get instant relief use Dr. Wernet's Powder regularly. You can eat, laugh, talk with ease. Guaranteed by Wernet Dental Mfg. Co., 116 Beekman St., N. Y. 25c, 50c, & $1.00. At Drug and Department Stores. Refuse imitations. This is the original powder.

MANHATTAN SHIRTS

FORRY'S, Penn-Harris Hotel Bldg. OPEN EVENINGS

Umbrellas AND Articles of Leather

at reasonable prices and of finest quality, make splendid gifts for Christmas.

Men's and Women's Umbrellas, mounted with silver and gold, and with wood sticks and heavy covers, are priced at from $6.50 to $18.00. They are long remembered gifts, for they withstand years of wear.

Articles of leather in the better qualities will be found here in good assortment, from a sturdy cigarette case, priced at $4.00 for a man, to a woman's over-night case fitted with ivory toilet articles and marked at $40.00.

It is not too soon to make selections for Christmas.

C. Ross Boas

Since 1850 Harrisburg's Best Jewelry Store
28 N. Second St.
Harrisburg, Penna.

Church Societies Active in Cumberland Borough

Shiremanstown, Pa., Nov. 19.—The various societies of St. John's congregation are actively engaged in work and study. This evening the Luther League will hold its monthly business and social meeting. Mrs. S. S. Rupp will read current events of the church abroad and at home. The social committee will have its usual surprise for the members of the league. The league is planning a surprise for poor children at the Christmas and anticipate inviting a group of photographs of the boys of the congregation who served in the late war. L. G. Harpel, Lebanon, State photographer, is preparing the photographs.

Citizens Petition Court to Hurry Councilmen

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—Trying to hurry the town council in its action to have Springs avenue in the town's fire zone, citizens of that town have petitioned Judge McPherson to declare the fire zone "operative and void," claiming the action of the town council as it now stands "unjust, unreasonable, and unfair." The petition, which was filed weeks ago at the Springs avenue residents appeared before the council asking that a new ordinance be passed which would include Springs avenue in the fire zone. The ordinance committee was instructed to draw up a new ordinance to cover the section in question, but the citizens are apparently not willing to wait until the next session of court.

Bishop Confirms Class at Bonneville Church

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—The Right Rev. Philip R. McDevitt, bishop of the Harrisburg diocese of the Roman Catholic Church, confirmed a class at the St. Joseph's Church, Bonneville, Pa. The bishop was assisted in the confirmation of the class by the Rev. W. J. O'Callahan, of Littlestown, the Rev. W. P. Boyle, Gettysburg, and the Rev. Dr. Augustus Reudler, McSherrystown.

Sheriff Opens Jail Doors For 53 Strikers

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—Sheriff Enos Horst yesterday opened the jail doors for 53 Waynesboro strikers convicted of riot and assault. They have finished serving 30-day sentences. Their fines and the costs, which amounted to the gross total of $2,492.84, were paid through a fund raised by the federated union of Waynesboro aided by the union men of this place. Wives and mothers and a few fathers or brothers were on hand to meet the men and to take them home in automobiles or by the trains or trolley cars.

Franklin Sheriff-Elect to Retain Major Huber

Waynesboro, Pa., Nov. 19.—Sheriff-elect Jacob H. Mayer announced here today that Major Lester Huber will be his deputy and that Horace Mayer, his son, will be turnkey. Major Huber is deputy under Sheriff Horst and has made so good an official that he has been re-elected a bit in securing his services. George W. Atherton, one of Franklin county's best known attorneys and who went down in the printing press at the recent election, will be attorney to the sheriff.

WILL UNVEIL MEMORIAL

Felton, Pa., Nov. 19.—On Saturday a $500 memorial will be unveiled and dedicated by citizens of Felton in honor of the 14 boys and one Red Cross nurse who were engaged in the World War. A parade at 1 o'clock will precede the unveiling exercises. A banquet will be tendered the service men.

Man and Bear Run Away From Each Other

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 19.—While crossing the mountain near McVeigh town into the Licking creek section, Harvey Varner heard a hoarse in the brush ahead of him. Going to investigate, he saw a black bear which came out into the path. Varner took to his heels. Looking back expecting to see the bear follow him he found the animal going the other way as fast as he could run. The bear was scared as badly as Varner.

Woman 88 Years Old Has Unusual Record

Marietta, Pa., Nov. 19.—Mrs. Deliah Montgomery, 88 years old, is one of the most remarkable women in this river borough. She does all of her housework and is the oldest person attending Sunday school here, being a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church. She is a fancier of poultry, and by careful feeding gets eggs when no one else does. She even shovels her "own snow" in the winter time.

ATTEND SPIRIT FUNERAL

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cline, Mrs. George Leese, Mrs. Herbert Bair attended the funeral of George Spahr at Mechanicsburg yesterday.

JUNIORS CHOOSE THEIR OFFICERS

West Fairview High School Class Selects Blue and Gold as Colors

West Fairview, Pa., Nov. 19.—The junior class of the high school elected the following officers: President, Clarence Deets; vice-president, Harold Erford; secretary, Ruth Frank; treasurer, Esther Banks. The class colors chosen are blue and gold. The first meeting will be held next Tuesday evening at the home of Esther Banks, on Second street.

Mrs. May Inch Died of Heart Failure, Finding of the Coroner's Jury

Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 19.—The coroner's jury inquiring into the death of Mrs. May Inch, who was found dead in an automobile at Trevorton early Sunday morning, decided the woman had died of heart failure while in the throes of an epileptic fit. Irving Orms, the last person who saw her alive, says that when he got out of the automobile Mrs. Inch was alive. He was of the opinion her death was sudden. The body was taken to Mount Pleasant Mills, Snyder county, where the funeral was held to-day from the home of her sister.

Little News Cleanings From Duncannon Borough

Duncannon, Pa., Nov. 19.—Mrs. Eli Shope, of Carlisle, after a visit to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Boyer, returned to her home, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Boyer and little daughter, who spent several days with her and returned to Carlisle here Sunday.

Chambersburg Firemen to Banquet Service Men

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—Tomorrow evening the Junior Hose and Truck Company will hold its twenty-second annual banquet in honor of the 40 ex-service members. A roast pig and sauerkraut supper will be served to more than 200 members. The toastmaster for the occasion will be United States Commissioner Norcross. The band of the Lincoln Scotland Industrial School will furnish the music.

Journey to Michigan For Pure-Bred Cattle

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 19.—Robert McClay and Ray Warner, of Belleville, are on a trip to Michigan, where they have gone to purchase pure bred cattle for the farmers of Mifflin county. Farm Agent Thompson accompanied the two men. Mifflin county farmers hereafter will buy only the best stock, having come to the conclusion it does not pay to raise any other kind.

Hotel Will Close

Columbia, Pa., Nov. 19.—The Wagner House, one of the oldest hotels in Columbia, will go out of business, due to prohibition, Saturday night. All of the boarders have been notified to seek quarters elsewhere. Since the death of H. F. Wagner, his widow, Mrs. Rose Wagner, has been operating the hotel, under the management of James W. Carls.

Great Piles of Coal Afire at Mechanicsburg

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—For several days the huge coal piles containing more than a thousand tons of the valuable article on the ground surrounding the D. Wilcox Manufacturing Company has been on fire. Efforts to put it out so far have been unavailing, and the men are hauling it off by the load to a neighboring field.

The Greatest Breakfast Bobby

Nothing made that beats POST TOASTIES

Sure Relief

BELLANS FOR INDIGESTION

YEARS CHANGE THE COURSE OF THE INSTITUTE

Teachers Better Dressed Than a Decade Ago and Many of Them Now Paid by State, Come to County Seat in Automobiles

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—With the 60th annual session of the Franklin county teachers institute in progress in the Orpheum Theater with over 400 teachers attending, the pretty school marm is here. The gathering does not include Waynesboro's teachers. Four years ago the Waynesboro educators took the notion they would not attend the institute held in Chambersburg, but would hold a local institute, which the code permits, and so they play a lone hand in this town.

FIFTEEN HAZERS ARE SUSPENDED

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 19.—Suspension of 15 students by the faculty of Franklin and Marshall College for participation in the hazing of Robert Dattenhofer, a freshman, preceded by a few hours the institution of legal proceedings against 20 men. Dr. Henry H. Apple, president of the college authorities yesterday and it was later learned that suits had been brought by the father of the boy before Alderman Heintz, Constable Stogerswald served notices upon the alleged participants in the hazing to appear before the alderman.

HUNT TURKEY IN NORTH MOUNTAIN

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—The Tuscarora Mountains, between this place and Fulton county to the west, are overrun by wild turkey hunters and the news which comes to town tells of some splendid specimens of this great game bird having been bagged. Gobbler weighing 18 to 20 pounds have been shot and the general run of those killed would average 18 pounds. In the South Mountain, toward Gettysburg, turkeys are scarce compared to the North mountains, but some fine ones have been shot north of the Lincoln Highway in the Caledonia Reserve.

State Couples Marry Over Mason-Dixon Line

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 19.—Marriage licenses were issued here to the following couples from Pennsylvania: Reed B. Gutches, Millinburg, and May A. Walburn, Selinsgrove; Albert M. Barley and Mary Lippert, both of Carlisle; John C. Baker, Hollidaysburg, and Laura H. Ritter, Altoona; William Bowman and Stella R. Willard, both of Harrisburg; Ray C. Benneth, Lebanon, and Nellie W. Shally, of Myerstown; Frank E. Mader, Harrisburg, and Sarah Ellen Starner, Penbrook.

Ten Street Employes Strike at Gettysburg

Gettysburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—Ten employes of the William P. McDonald Company, of Philadelphia, engaged in the work of paving Chambersburg on Monday afternoon, and, saying their demand for higher wages had been refused by the McDonald Company, Samuel A. McDonough was the only employe who showed up for work yesterday morning and a messenger was sent to Baltimore to get the necessary workmen to complete the job.

William Roy Danner Is Married at Carlisle

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 19.—William Roy Danner and Bertha M. Sebelist, of Carlisle, were married on Tuesday by the Rev. H. B. Stock. Miss Sebelist is a daughter of Harry Sebelist and an employe of the Carlisle Shoe Company.

Little Lines From Nearby

Carlisle—In alighting from a buggy here Mrs. Jere Barbour, of Pine Grove Furnace, slipped and fell and broke two ribs.
Middleburg—While cranking a car Hiram Hackenbush, 15 years old, had both bones of the lower arm broken on Sunday.
Lewistown—The Henderson hose company of this place, has organized a team of pool players with some experience in this number.
Middleburg—Within five miles of this place 23 wild turkeys have been killed thus far and it is reported hunters are shooting the birds as they come out at night.
Carlisle—Thieves broke into the home of Sylvester H. Laury in West High street and stole a can of lard, $2 and some of Laury's cigars, overlooking a quantity of sugar.
Lewistown—Mrs. Nancy Corbett, of this place, does all of her own housework, cuts kindling, tends her garden, goes to church and calls on friends although well on in her eighties.
Mount Pleasant—Ninety-two men, twelve women and three children, assisted at a barn-raising on the farm of Ellsworth Bushey in Monaghan township. The building is to take the place of one destroyed by lightning during the summer.
Carlisle—A half hour after sunrise on the opening day of the wild turkey season Herbert Sheaffer, a Dickson farmer, shot a wild turkey and friends recall that last season he had to choose between shooting a turkey and a wildcat. He shot the cat.

YOUNG WIDOW IS SERIOUSLY HURT

Has Bullet in Neck and Says It Was Result of an Accident

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 19.—The mystery surrounding the shooting of Mrs. Ethel Bostetter, aged 23, a widow and pretty brunette, employed as an operator at the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company's exchange here, was cleared when Lynn Full, a young drug clerk, appeared at police headquarters and gave bond for a hearing on Thursday on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Wilson College to Have Big Association Session

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—The Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government, including all eligible colleges east of the Mississippi, will be held at Wilson College on November 20 and 22, the first time in the history of the association it has chosen to meet at any other than the largest universities and colleges. The selection is attributed to the fact the student government system of Wilson College has been highly successful. Wilson College is a charter member of the association.

Church of God Society Gives Excellent Program

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—Under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Church of God an excellent program was presented last evening in the lecture room. Following prayer by the pastor, the Rev. J. Russell Bucher and a hymn, his program was given: Piano solo, Miss Mary Ross, violin solo, Miss Correll Martin, of Harrisburg; "Reminiscence" pictures by forty-five persons with story by Miss Nell Myers; "America," audience. The committee of arrangements included: Miss Nell Myers, Mrs. Howard Barch, Miss Rose Bowman and John Seal.

Hunter Mistakes Wild Turkeys For Tame Ones

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 19.—Never before in the history of Lewistown has there been such a scarcity of houses. Every person who can is buying a home and people who have to vacate find it almost impossible to get a place to rent. Many are storing their furniture and taking up residence with relatives until they can find a place. The town needs 100 houses at a moderate rate of rental at once. The high cost of building material no person wants to build houses to rent and the poor man cannot afford to buy.

Columbia Church Will Welcome Soldier Members

Columbia, Pa., Nov. 19.—Holy Trinity Catholic Church will extend a big welcome to its returned service men this evening in the parish hall. The church had 74 men in the service, of whom four held the supreme sacrifice; Joseph Seebauer, Leo W. J. Blitner, William Swartz and William P. Kray.

Huntingdon Couples Are Wed at Altoona

Huntingdon, Pa., Nov. 19.—Miss Martha Lois Yocum and William E. Johnson were united in matrimony yesterday morning at the parsonage of the First Lutheran Church at Altoona. The officiating clergyman was Rev. James H. Kling. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Marks. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yocum, of Huntingdon. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ida Robertson and is also a resident of Huntingdon. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left on a wedding journey which will include Cleveland, Detroit and other points. They will be at home to their many friends after December 15 at South Huntingdon.

Henry Schaner Dies in His Eighty-Ninth Year

New Cumberland, Pa., Nov. 19.—Henry Schaner, died in County at his home in Reno street. He was 89 years of age and had been a resident of New Cumberland eight years, having moved here from Newberrytown. He was survived by his aged widow, two daughters, Mrs. Annie Yinger, of this place, and Mrs. Charles Stuller, of Philadelphia, and one son, Oscar Schauer, of Lemoyne. The funeral will be held on Thursday. A short service will be held at his late home at noon, conducted by the Rev. C. H. Heiges, pastor of the Church of God. Further services will be held at 1.30 in the church at Paddletown, York county, where burial will be made.

Lebanon Painter May Die of Fractured Skull

Lebanon, Pa., Nov. 19.—Jacob Lehman, a plumber of this place, is at the Good Samaritan Hospital in a serious condition as the result of an automobile accident which occurred on the Myerstown road a half mile east of the "Narrows," when a truck belonging to Schaefer & Altender collided head-on with a Ford truck driven by John Ebling. Lehman was riding on the seat of the Atlas truck. When the collision occurred he was thrown to the ground and sustained what is thought to be a fractured skull. Hopes for his recovery were slight last night.

Houses Are Scarcer Than Ever in Mifflin Capital

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 19.—Never before in the history of Lewistown has there been such a scarcity of houses. Every person who can is buying a home and people who have to vacate find it almost impossible to get a place to rent. Many are storing their furniture and taking up residence with relatives until they can find a place. The town needs 100 houses at a moderate rate of rental at once. The high cost of building material no person wants to build houses to rent and the poor man cannot afford to buy.

WILL PRESS FOR LIFE OF SLAYER

Friends of Man Murdered in Shamokin Engage Special Council

Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 19.—George Vouletis, Greek, charged with the murder of John Saviolis, of Shamokin, last month, will spend Christmas in jail. His case has been continued to the February term of court.

"Learn the Jersey Difference"

To Develop Brain and Muscle

give the children something they will like for breakfast—Jersey Pancakes.

They can be prepared in three minutes from Jersey Pancake Flour—a new cereal combination composed of strength-giving whole wheat and other grains.

Ask Your Grocer for

JERSEY Pancake Flour

THE JERSEY CEREAL FOOD CO. Conal, Pa.

Makers of the Famous Jersey Corn Flakes, the Kind That Stay Crisp in Milk

Store Closes Every Saturday at 6 P. M.

Shell's Schlemmer Stores

28-30-32 North Third Street.

Extraordinary Sale of High Class Dresses Thursday Only

Values up to $45.00
Choice $24.75

This is a rare opportunity. The woman and miss who is looking for an unusually pretty dress at a very attractive price will find this sale one of the most tempting of the season.

These dresses are taken from our regular stock and include the most favored materials such as Tricotine, Serge, Jersey, Satin and Georgette.

The group is not very large but each dress is very choice and therefore warrants your immediate attention.

On Sale Thursday Only One Day