JOHN LINDNER IS SUED FOR $50,000

Merchant Says Shoe Manufacturer Bea. Him Up Badly in Lawyer's Office

Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 20.—Edward S. Kronenberg, of the clothing firm of S. Kronenberg & Sons, this place, has made information before Justice of the Peace Eckels against John Lindner, the shoe manufacturer; Joseph P. McKeenan, the attorney; G. A. Bouter and N. T. Arvidson, both of New York, charging Lindner with assault and the defendants with conspiracy to assault.

The fight in the office of Mr. McKeenan was the outcome of negotiations with Kronenberg to rent an office to Bouter and Arvidson, who gave Lindner as reference. Mr. Lindner accused Mr. Kronenberg of making remarks to the two New York men about him, and of deceiving Mr. Kronenberg to sign a paper putting in writing what remarks he had made. When he refused the fight followed.

Kronenberg also instituted a civil suit against his assailant, stating in his bill of complaint that Lindner assaulted him in the office of Joseph P. McKeenan by striking him with violent blows in the face and head and other parts of the body; that the defendant threw him to the floor and kicked him a great number of times; that by reason of the attack the plaintiff has been unable to look after his business and has been forced to spend large sums of money in endeavoring to be cured; that he has suffered great pain and distress of body and mind and has lost the use of his left eye for the balance of his life; that plaintiff has suffered the loss of respect and esteem in the community and will suffer the loss of large sums of money in his business; that by reason of the injuries inflicted he has suffered damages to the extent of $50,000.

BEAUTY SPECIALIST TELLS SECRET

A Beauty Specialist Gives Simple Home-Made Recipe for Darkening Gray Hair

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair: "Any one can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the drug-sist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. This is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

Tyrodentto CRÈME TOOTH PASTE.

MISS MARY NEBINGER, 414 S. Fifteenth St., Harrisburg, Pa.

writes us as follows: "It was my good fortune to find PYRODENTO CREME TOOTH PASTE—for I discovered that besides cleaning my teeth antiseptically, I was conscious of its beneficial action on my gums. I can say, sincerely, that before I had used one-fourth of my first tube of PYRODENTO, the occasional bleeding of the gums ceased entirely and they took on a strong, firm feeling of health."

PYRODENTO clings to the mouth tissues for hours, a protection against the ravages of Pyorrhoea and contagious diseases resulting from decay of teeth.

Clothes in One Car With Drummer Left in Another; Leaves Train in Pajamas

Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 20.—A Bloomsburg messenger, on his way from Philadelphia to this city, became separated from his clothing and landed in Altoona without either clothing or funds, while the latter arrived here safely and on time.

The man, with a friend, had a berth on a westbound train leaving Philadelphia and asked the porter to call him at Sunbury so that he could leave the train at Northumberland and make connections on the D. L. & W. After divesting himself of his clothing, putting it in his berth, he donned his pajamas and went into the sleeper on the rear end of the train to visit a friend.

When the porter endeavored to waken the man as the train neared Sunbury, he could not find him and upon inquiring of the drummer's friend learned that he had gone into the car in the rear.

"Laws," the dark-faced porter declared, "that your car was taken from Harrisburg and is on the way to Pittsburgh now." The station agent at Altoona was wired and the drummer in his pajamas, without clothing, was taken from the train at that place.

Lebanon County Organizes For Red Seal Campaign

Lebanon, Pa., Nov. 20.—Representative women from all sections of Lebanon county met here and organized a Christmas Seal Sales Campaign. The Rev. and Mrs. James H. Gladhill was named chairman and with the naming of committees in a few days she will start a vigorous seal campaign.

The meeting was addressed by A. M. Dewees, executive secretary, and G. H. Craze, field secretary of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. The committee decided to order 250,000 seals from seal headquarters at Harrisburg for distribution in Lebanon County.

This committee will form the nucleus for a permanent tuberculosis organization to follow the seal sale. The committee realized from the seals to push the local fight on the white plague.

Bullet Clips Skin Off Nose of Sunbury Toiler

Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 20.—While on his way from his home to the city hall W. W. Yarker, an employe of the Sunbury Converting Works was fired at in the narrow alley in the rear of his residence. One of the small shot, presumed to have been from a shotgun, clipped the skin from the bridge of his nose. A voice from the darkness cried, "Hey, you scab."

Unnerved by his experience, the old man continued to the city hall, where he reported the incident to the police. An investigation immediately was made by a patrolman, but no trace could be found of the assailant, and nobody saw any person carrying a gun.

DISPLAY AFRICAN LILY

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 20.—Probably the only one of its kind in the county, an African lily is on display in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Rhoades of this place. The bulb was brought here by Miss Lulu Clippinger, a returned missionary from Africa. The flower is white and has the calyx of a morning glory and six petals fringed as many petals, which are three inches long.
