

NEW STRIKE OF MINERS SPREADS

Some of the Districts in West Virginia Continue to Remain Inactive

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 21.—While the situation in the Kanawha coal fields is gradually improving, the New River mining district is being swept by a new strike of miners, according to reports received here. The mines at Kayford and Whitesville did not resume operations as union leaders had predicted. The strikers there, it is said, are holding out until they learn more about the situation. Conflicting reports as to the scope of the new strike in the New River district have been received here. Officials of the United Mine Workers at Beckley, the district headquarters of the union, claimed that the strike in the New River field is spreading. On the other hand the operators refused to confirm or deny the strike reports, but asserted that the mines were operating at about 35 per cent of their normal capacity. E. Stafford, district board member of the United Mine Workers at Beckley, said: "We cannot keep the men at work after they have been notified by the mine superintendent that the check off system has been abolished and the union contract terminated."

FIRE HALTS WEDDING PLANS

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Honey-moon plans of Odis Bury and Miss Nella Grant, both of Gloucester, went awry when fire badly damaged the house which they expected to occupy after their wedding. They will be married in two weeks.

BEFORE "SAND-MAN" COMES

Prepare for a Clear, Bright Day Tomorrow by Taking "Cascarets" for Liver and Bowels

"Cascarets" to-night sure! Your system is filled with liver and bowels poison, which keeps your skin sallow, your stomach upset, your head dull and aching and your system full of cold. Your meals are turning into poisons, gases and acids. You can not feel right. Don't stay bilious or constipated. Feel splendid to-morrow by taking Cascarets before you go to bed. They act gently and griping or inconvenience. They never sicken you like Calomel, Sals, Oil or nasty, harsh Pills. They cost so little, too—Cascarets work while you sleep.

Do Your Gums Bleed When You Brush Your Teeth? CUT THIS OUT

Says Pyorrhoea, Riggs Disease, Sore Inflamed, Bleeding, Reddening, or Pus Discharging Gums and Loose Teeth May Be Quickly and Easily Corrected By New Simple Home Treatment

Thousands of people suffer from Pyorrhoea or Riggs Disease or diseased gums who, having tried various dental creams, lotions and treatments, without success, believe they must have all their teeth pulled and go through life with false teeth. Yet their case is not hopeless. A prominent New York Dentist has recently perfected a home treatment that works wonders in the treatment of just such cases and usually brings relief from the worst symptoms very quickly. If your teeth are loosening or if your gums are receding and are sore or tender, inflamed or bleeding, spongy or flabby or if they discharge pus you may be sure that Pyorrhoea is present and that unless you can quickly find relief you will have to lose your teeth.

Go to H. C. Kennedy, Geo. A. Gorham or any good drugstore in Harrisburg and get a small package of Epithol. This is not a dentifrice and is not applied with a brush, but is gently rubbed into the diseased gums with the finger tips or a soft cloth. It seems to work like magic. Teeth tighten, the gums grow sound and healthy and the bleeding pus discharge soon stops. Glen Stiner of Mitchell Ave., Birmingham, says: "My gums were sore and badly inflamed. I used Epithol a short time and all soreness has disappeared and my gums are healthy and well." The druggists named above are all authorized to refund the purchase price in any case where Epithol does not give complete satisfaction.

PREFER DEATH TO RULE UNDER TURKS

Want Right to Live Alone, Says Premier of Armenia, Concerning Proposal of U. S. Mandate With Ottoman People

Erivan, Capital Armenian Republic, Nov. 21.—The Prime Minister of the republic, M. Khatibian, received the correspondent of the Associated Press and talked freely concerning the proposal of a United States mandate for Armenia.

"If we manage to live through the rule of the Allies, together with the help of America," said the Prime Minister, "then other Armenians scattered the world will come to us and we shall make our republic a proper one."

"It is now being proposed, I hear, to rule together with the Turks. In the past we lived together as master and slave. Now we want the right to live alone, away from the Turks. We want the Peace Conference to set aside a section of territory for us and then the Turks will leave us. It is a matter of life and death for us right along. The only solution possible is to define our frontiers and if the United States, in whom alone we place our case and with whom we trust, will help us morally and materially for twenty years, we will pay back money equivalent to the wealth of our land. If such help is not given, then we must wander over the earth like slaves, without a home."

Premier-Physician

Premier Khatibian, who appears to be the ruling force in Armenia, was formerly mayor of Tiflis for a period of ten years, serving as a Russian official. He is a physician by profession. Short, bald, black-eyed, with close-trimmed beard, he looks as much Russian as Armenian, and in his appearance from the familiar Turk he is almost unrecognizable. He is a commanding figure either physically or intellectually, he seems to do the best he can for his country, fully realizing the fragile thread by which it hangs to life.

Regarding the question if Armenia should be ruled under a blanket mandate, as part of Asia Minor, he said: "Whatever America decides is best for us we will follow out. We are satisfied if America has only our interests at heart. However, we believe our frontiers should be determined now, no matter when we are set free to walk alone as an independent state. If Americans will consent to rule us, to establish order in our country, to take over the administration of our affairs, we shall be satisfied. We love in this world but three things, freedom, work and education. When we are given the chance to earn these we will show America what we are capable of. We are now a tottering little government, we realize that we are weak, that the fire we have gone through has crippled us mightily, that the citizens here are worn out or are not our best material but with time we shall improve.

Many Would Return

"It must be recognized that both in Turkey and in Russia, Armenians have always furnished a large class of intelligent public officials, bankers, traders and farmers, and those of us who are left, from massacres, together with our educated people now in Egypt, France, England, Bulgaria, will form a good nucleus for a prosperous state. I have here a long list of names of those Armenians in America, representing a half billion dollars capital, who have declared their intention of returning to live here when circumstances will permit."

Asked whether, if the United States took a mandate to Armenia, meaning thereby practically a military protectorate, the Armenians would not soon be quite different from missionaries, Premier Khatibian said: "There is a big colony of our people in America who meet all classes, and there are none of them who do not entertain deep affection for America and regard her as a mother. I saw last year three hundred dead per day on the streets of this city and if America had not helped feed our hungry there would have been a half million Armenians dead of starvation. After such a history it is our dream to have Americans here, and if they don't come it will be our end."

Asked if reconstructed Russia would not demand back any territory the Peace Conference might now set aside to form an Armenian state, he said: "Distinctions must be made between Georgia, Azerbaijan and Armenia. Old Russia wanted an Armenia reaching to the Mediterranean Sea so they might have the outlet they couldn't get except by possession of Constantinople. New Russia might not wish to oppress a state so different in population, also she might not have an interest in troubling us, whereas she would need the Caucasus because of the railway to Batoum and also the oil riches of Baku which have their outlet at Batoum to the world markets. Besides, we have assurances from Denikine that we will not be disturbed."

Would Raise Rates and Reduce the Size to Save Newsprint

Pittsburgh, Nov. 21.—Radical increases in advertising and subscription rates and the adoption of plans for conservation of newsprint paper were subjects included in resolutions adopted here yesterday by the Western Pennsylvania Association of Dailies, composed of newspaper publishers. Fifty publishers from all parts of the western section of the State attended the meeting and speakers, for the most part, took as their subjects, the newsprint shortage and the increased cost of materials and labor.

Prior to a vote on resolutions, those present discussed the newspaper business from all angles, and in connection with the paper shortage, speakers presented many remedies, including rationing, reduction of sport and society news, elimination of daily and Sunday comic sections, combination of papers, refusal of all advertising for four or five days, and the publication of only a four-page daily paper in Pittsburgh.

THIEVES RAID ADELPHA

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Sneak thieves operating on the seventeenth floor of the Hotel Adelpha early today stole jewelry, clothing and other valuables worth about $3,000.

American Firms Eager to Purchase Largest Diamond

Chicago, Nov. 21.—American diamond firms have cabled their agents in South Africa to attempt to purchase a 442 1/2-carat diamond recently found in the Dutoitspan mine. If they succeed in buying it, it will be by far the largest diamond ever imported into the United States. It weighs roughly about a quarter of a pound.

The largest diamond in this country is the Tiffany yellow diamond which weighs 280 carats when found and cut to 125 1/2 carats. If cut to a single gem, the new diamond would lose about half its weight and become a jewel of about 220 carats or less. A diamond of that size would be worth in the market at present prices about a quarter of a million dollars. Even at this figure, it is believed it would have a ready sale among American millionaires.

How to Remove Wrinkles Quickly

If the average woman only knew it, it is not at all difficult to preserve the youthful contour and velvety smoothness of complexion. Every woman hates to see her face wrinkled or buggy, and practically every one has experimented with some sort of patent remedy in the effort either to remove such condition or ward it off. As a matter of fact, the most effective remedy in the world is one that any woman can easily make up herself at home, in a moment's time. Let her take one ounce of pure powdered saxolite, which she can purchase at any drugstore, and dissolve it in a half pint of witch hazel. Apply this harmless and refreshing solution to the face every day for awhile. The results are surprising, to say the least. Even after the very first application a marked improvement is apparent. The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a comfortable, amuzing feeling of firmness that is most delightful.

HEAP LUXURIES ON GERMAN GIRLS

American Soldiers Accused of "Spoiling" Frauleins in Occupied Zones

With the American Forces in Germany, Nov. 21.—Among the civilians in the American occupied areas complaints, originating with the German men, are often heard to the effect that the American soldiers are "spoiling" the German girls by heaping luxuries upon them and by spending money recklessly for entertainments, wines and good things to eat. Since the antifraternalization regulations were revoked by Army headquarters several weeks ago the cafes in Coblenz have been crowded each night with soldiers and frauleins, and many of the German men have openly asserted that the Americans were entirely too considerate of the German women and girls. Cafes in Coblenz and other towns in the zone held by United States troops have been doing lately the greatest business of their existence. One in Coblenz which is conducted by two Americans who recently obtained their discharge from the Army, seats twenty-two hundred persons. Yet on Sunday afternoons and evenings, the crowd becomes so great, Americans and Germans together, that on several occasions the military police have to be called to maintain order.

Palmer on Verge of Nervous Breakdown; Ordered to Take Rest

Washington, Nov. 21.—Attorney General Palmer is reported on the verge of a nervous breakdown and under orders from his physician to get away from work and take all the rest he needs. Mr. Palmer's physician has told him, it was said at the Department of Justice, that "unless he quits work for more than a week he would not be responsible for the consequences." It was explained, however, that this was not to be taken to mean that he was in a serious condition.

Pistol Discharged in Huge Pocket Knife Barely Misses Man

Fairmont, W. Va., Nov. 21.—United States Commissioner Charles R. Lilley, of Grafton, W. Va., narrowly escaped injury or death yesterday when a bullet was discharged from a pistol concealed within the handle of a huge pocket knife found in raiding alleged radical headquarters at the Dakota mines, near here. When Commissioner Lilley, who was assisting Department of Justice agents in the raid, picked up the knife from a table it was discharged instantly, the bullet tearing a hole through the sleeve of his coat and barely missing his body.

"Bill" Carlisle Is Still at Large; Detectives Nervous

Cheyenne, Wyoming, Nov. 21.—Laughingly defiant, "Bill" Carlisle, train robber, is still at liberty. Soldiers, trappers, sheriffs, detectives—all are searching the country around Casper for the bandit. Police agents of the Union Pacific are nervous after his sending a telegram from Casper to Union Pacific officials taunting them for the failure of their detectives to capture him after he had, single handed, robbed the Los Angeles limited Tuesday night. They do not hesitate in expressing the opinion that the next time they hear from Carlisle it most probably will be in the form of information that another trans-continental passenger train has been robbed.

Cut Two Loaves of Bread

Cut a loaf of our bread in two and cut a loaf of another baker's bread in two. Here's one way for you to compare the two—and in doing so we have little doubt which bread you will decide is the better. Compare the nature of the texture of each loaf of bread as you see it. You will find that our bread is firm. It will not crumble. You will also find that when you spread butter on our bread it will not crumble. The firm texture holds the slice intact while you are spreading it. Then taste the two kinds of bread. See which one smells sweet and see which one has the creamy white color. And we again leave the verdict in your hands. Your grocer cannot serve you call 4976 on either telephone.
