

With Choir and Organist

At the Elks memorial service, to be held the first Sunday in December, Mrs. Lee S. Izer, soprano soloist of Messiah Lutheran Church, will sing Harker's "God Shall Wipe All Tears" and the obligato soprano solo in the anthem, "In Heavenly Love Abiding," to be sung by the vested choir of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, with Alfred C. Kuschwa directing.

At Calvary Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening the choir will sing Storrs' "Like As the Heart Desires" with Mrs. Broek, with Mrs. Green singing the incidental soprano solo, "O Send Out Thy Light," in the morning "Bread of the World," an anthem by Walter Howe Jones, will be sung.

Miss Louise Baer, daughter of Cameron L. Baer, general manager of the Cumberland Valley Telephone Company, will sing Eville's "Light of the World" at Stevens Memorial Methodist Church temporary morning, Maunier's "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem," will be the concluding evening anthem.

Homer N. Barlett's "O Eyes That Are Weary" will be the evening anthem at First Church of God to-morrow.

One of the most beautiful of the short anthems written, "Sweet Is Thy Mercy, Lord," will be sung by the fine choir of Market Square Presbyterian Church at to-morrow evening's service. Stainer's "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land" will be the morning anthem.

At the weekly rehearsal of St. Patrick's Cathedral choir, the announcement of the election of Joseph D. Brodeur, organist and choir-master of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Albany, N. Y., was received with mingled feelings of joy and sadness by the choir. Stainer's "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land" will be the morning anthem.

ander DuMouchel. The time of his departure from the musical activities of Harrisburg has not fully been determined upon, depending upon the choice of his successor. Mr. Brodeur while here has infused new life into the music of the Harrisburg diocese and made innovations of a permanent nature in all of the choirs with which he has come in contact.

At Reformed Salem Church to-morrow evening Ralph Harmon, bass, is to sing Handel's "Hear Him, Ye Winds and Waves." With Miss Lillian Reiter at the organ and the C. W. Myers directing the singers, the choir will sing as anthems Buck's "Jubilate Dee" in C and Schilling's "Softly Now the Light of Day."

At the evening service in Messiah Lutheran Church to-morrow Mrs. Lee S. Izer, soprano soloist, will sing Burnham's "Something for Thee."

The outstanding musical event of to-morrow in the city undoubtedly will be the singing of Dudley Buck's "Forty-Sixth Psalm" ("God Is Our Refuge") in Derry Street United Brethren Church to-morrow evening under the direction of Howard B. Gensler. There will be 40 voices in the choir.

Decevee's "Gently, Lord, O Gently Lead Us" will be the morning anthem at Zion Lutheran Church to-morrow. Another setting of the hymn-anthem has been written by Charles B. Hawley, many of whose compositions are sung in Protestant churches.

DR. COHEN TO SPEAK

Dr. Solomon Solis Cohen, of the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, will speak at a meeting of the Dauphin County Medical Society to be held in the Academy of Medicine Tuesday, December 2. He will discuss pneumonia and its treatment.

KIWANIS CLUB'S BUSINESS SHOW ATTRACTING ATTENTION

Plan Adopted Here May Be Followed by Clubs All Over the Country

The Kiwanis Club's Business Show will be held the week of February 3, 1920, in Chestnut Street Auditorium it was finally decided at a meeting of the committee. The floors in the two halls will show an exhibition of from fifty to sixty booths. At first the plan was to follow very closely the same layout used by the Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania in 1914. Recently, however, the Publicity Committee engineering this project for the Kiwanis Club has seen fit to change the plans somewhat, reducing the number of booths, in order to give larger space for the extraordinary line of entertainment that will be put on at the Kiwanis Business Show.

The Publicity Committee is laying plans to give Harrisburg the biggest show of the kind that was ever conducted in this city. Nearly half a hundred prospective exhibitors, all members of the Kiwanis Club, have already applied for space. The committee will hold another meeting next week at which the prospective exhibitors will assemble to arrange for the final plans and sale of booths.

A unique scheme for entertainment will be given by a larger number of the exhibitors individually, which alone would be sufficient entertainment to warrant the attendance of thousands of Harrisburgers. However, the very "live wire" entertainment committee that has been appointed will see to it that the Kiwanis Business Show will have an unparalleled entertainment.

The Publicity Committee has held several meetings and reported that enthusiasm has been displayed by the club over the Business Show. The editor of the Kiwanis Torch, Roy Fulkerson, of Washington, suggested when he was in Harrisburg a few days ago and learned of the club's plans for a show that he felt sure the Harrisburg Kiwanis Club is about to sponsor a movement that will be followed all over the country by Kiwanis Clubs. Mr. Fulkerson was very complimentary in his remarks concerning the originality displayed by the Publicity Committee of the Harrisburg Club.

The members of the committees who have been appointed by Charles R. Beckley, Chairman of the Publicity Committee, are as follows: Finance Committee—Al K. Thomas, W. H. Brown, Frank Wall, Harry Perkins and W. E. Bushey. Entertainment Committee—Peter Magaro, Irving Robinson, Charles Schmidt, Frank Blumenstein, Bill-board and poster publicity—Harry Long.

Several other committees will be appointed probably at the next meeting.

Penna. Boys and Girls Active in Club Work

Between three and four thousand young Americans were enrolled in boys' and girls' clubs in Pennsylvania this year. They have raised pigs and potatoes, planted corn, and canned beans, fed chickens and picked the bugs off the cucumber vines. They have produced more food than the whole Massachusetts colony had at this time of the first Thanksgiving, and they have won more cups, medals and recommendations than could be carried on the breasts of a dozen French soldiers. C. G. McBride, of the Extension Department of the Pennsylvania State College, who has charge of this work, says there were pig clubs, corn clubs, potato clubs and cow clubs; gulf clubs, sheep clubs, poultry clubs and beef clubs, canning clubs, cooking clubs, sewing clubs and baking clubs, and baby-beef clubs, a club for each member of the hairy-headed chorus and another one for every crop that grew, totaling in all 274 with a membership of over 2,500.

Besides this, nearly 50 stock and dairy judging contests were participated in by 1,600 youngsters, some of which took home the prize purebred bull calf to start a herd a little larger than Dad's. Mr. McBride says the best results of this work is the interest in scientific farming which is instilled in boys and girls when they are at an impressionable age, and the introduction of better livestock and improved methods of culture in communities where the young folks are active in club work. Boys who belonged to these agricultural clubs a few years ago and who are now over the club age are as interested as ever in the work done, realizing what it means in developing a liking for scientific farming and providing a source of information about how it can be done.

Sales This Week by Backenstoss Company

The following sales of city real estate have been consummated within the last few days by the Backenstoss Realty Company of 331 Market street: residence at 2216 North Third street was transferred from George D. Thern to John C. Orr; 2329 North Sixth street, was sold to Dr. Joseph W. Shaffer, formerly of Millersburg. The consideration in both cases was nominal.

FAST WORK
Two soldiers had left their company in a bit of a hurry during a heavy bombardment at the front. Painted one of them, "What's that bee buzzin' around my ear for?" "It ain't a bee," gasped the other. "Run, Joe, run, it's a machine gun bullet followin' us!"—American Legion Weekly.

ORPHEUM
To-day, matinee and evening—Arthur Hammerstein presents his greatest musical comedy, "Somebody's Sweetheart."
Monday, matinee and night—"Hello 1919," America's greatest colored show.
Tuesday, November 25, night only—Lou Tellegen presents himself and Helen Ware in "The Love of Gold," supported by Helen Reicher.
Thursday and Friday, November 28 and 29—A. H. Woods presents "Up in Mabel's Room."

2-DAY ORPHEUM OFFERING PLEASES
"Somebody's Sweetheart" Is the Right Show For the T. B. M.
A fair-sized audience was on hand at the Orpheum last evening to witness the first performance of a two-day stay of "Somebody's Sweetheart," a Hammerstein production, which is just out of New York after a run of almost a year on Broadway.

MAJESTIC
High grade vaudeville—Fred Elledge, physical culture expert; "Live Good," reproduction of the celebrated musical comedy success in three acts, featuring a comic chorus and a new episode of "The Great Gable." Kiddies' matinee to-day at 1 o'clock.
COLONIAL
To-day—Last chance for Harrisburgers to see "The Love of Gold," starring Lou Tellegen and Dorothy Dalton, co-starring in their celebrated success, "The Love of Gold."
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Mary Miles Minter in a Reelart re-creation of the Green Gables.
Thursday, Friday and Saturday—Norma Palmadge in "The Isle of Conquest," supported by her youngest sister, Natilie.
VICTORIA
To-day—Last showings of Mary Pickford in "Daddy Long Legs," which is the greatest picture ever made in the country like wild-fire.
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Elsie Ferguson in "The Witness for the Defense," the new star in "The Spite Bride."
Thursday, Friday and Saturday—Marguerite Clark in "Widow by Proxy."

REGENT
Last times to-day—D. W. Griffith's "Broken Blossoms" and the Mack Sennett comedy, "His Last Falce Stroke."
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Elsie Ferguson in "The Witness for the Defense," the new star in "The Spite Bride."
Thursday, Friday and Saturday—Marguerite Clark in "Widow by Proxy."

"SOMEBODY'S SWEETHEART"
A picturesque Spanish setting, a haunting melody, the spell of moonlight and the thread of a little love story woven together combine to make "Somebody's Sweetheart," which Arthur Hammerstein presents at the Orpheum Theater, to-day, matinee and night, a musical play of delightful quality.
Among other praises sung by the New York critics during "Somebody's Sweetheart" run of nine months on Broadway, is that the success of the piece was assured when Mr. Hammerstein did this manager place on these players that he has called "The Love of Gold." It includes Violet Rose, Berta Donn, Genevieve Davis, Sylvia Ashton, Adeline, Charles O'Connor, Burton Lenihan, George Dunston, John Dewey, William Howell and Will Adams.

"UP IN MABEL'S ROOM"
"Up in Mabel's Room," the farce which kept all New York laughing for many months, last season, will be presented at the Orpheum Theater on Wednesday and Thursday, matinees and nights. The play has been described as a frivolous farce of femininity and is the work of Will Gilson and Ed Harbach. It is in three acts and the scenes are laid in a country home on Long Island.

TELEGRAM AND WARE CO-STAR IN NEW PLAY
Unusual interest is being manifested in the forthcoming appearance of "Up in Mabel's Room," which is now playing at the Orpheum Theater. As an actor of distinction and great power, Lou Tellegen occupies a notable place in the play, which is a fitting compliment to Miss Ware, who is selected her to co-act opposite him in the new production.

FERRYPOL DO NOT WAIT
Liverpool, Pa., Nov. 22.—Since the days are getting shorter the Liverpool Ferrypol do not want for passengers off the 4:05 train south in the evening. Passengers for this train must be on hand at the ferry landing not later than 5 o'clock.

FATALLY STRICKEN AT PARTY
Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 22.—Stricken while attending a party at the home of her son, Walter Conrad, on Thursday evening, Mrs. Mary Alice Conrad, wife of Zachariah Conrad, died yesterday.

OLDEST INHABITANT IS DEAD
Marietta, Pa., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Catharine Layle, 92 years old, the oldest resident of Bareville, died to-day from infirmities of age. She leaves two sisters. Her father served in the War of 1812.

TAX BOARD TO SET
As a board of revision of taxes and appeals Friday, November 28, to consider any appeals from assessments this year. About 500 properties are involved because of the construction of new buildings or improvements to present structures. City Assessor James C. Thompson said.

TO GET BASKETS
Thirty families in the city are to be furnished Thanksgiving baskets through the Associated Aid Societies if the appeal of that organization is responded to by residents of the city. These families are particularly deserving according to the Aid Societies' officials and a request has been made for contributions. By phoning or calling at 5 North Market Square, the name of one of the families to be helped can be secured.

Federal Clerks Ask For Minimum Wage Law
"The long-suffering, loyal Government clerk is the real victim of the high cost of living, and the Nolan minimum wage bill will actually be a live-saver to many of the federal workers," said C. F. Hutchinson, of San Francisco, fourth vice president of the National Federation of Federal Employees. Mr. Richardson is a member of Local No. 1, of that city, which started the organization of clerks in 1912. "The Federal workers gave many of their number on the battlefields of France and others labored unceasingly and contributed as generously as any class to encourage them at home. Yet in every city where there is a Government building will be found men working for $5 a month. "Our workers in San Francisco are in dire enough straits, but the situation of those in Chicago is worse. They actually look underfed and ragged. In San Francisco men are 50 per cent cheaper than in Chicago and clothing and shoes are much cheaper, despite that there are virtually none manufactured on the coast. The Nolan bill, which provides for a minimum of $3, looked very big to the struggling Federal employes when it was introduced, but the constant rising in prices has made it shrink, and a minimum at $5 would be all too little under the present conditions."
