BRITISH FEAR MINERS' STRIKE

Miners' Federation to Make Demands Upon the Government

London, Nov. 24. - The British ablic is uneasy from apprehension that Great Britain, like the United life States, may have to face a coal min-ers' strike at a time when coal is a vital necessity.

The Miners' Federation of Great The Miners' Federation of Great Britain, an organization of 975,000 members, obtained a pledge from the 5,250,000 unionized laborers represented at the Trade Unions Congress at Glasgow in September to "take whatever action may be necessary to compel the government" to accept the miners' demands for nationalization of the industry in "cell".

Declares Porto Rico Has Progressed Under U. S. Administration

Say Juan, Porto Rico, Nov. 24. — Progress has marked the first 20 years of American administration in rosto Rico, in the opinion of Governor Arthur Yager. The changes have been so remarkable, he adds,
as to be without parallel.
Almost every sphere of human life and work, the Governor says,
has been completely metamorphosed
and probably the most striking evidence of these changes are shown in the public improvements of the island and the development of the system of public education.

Up to Republicans to End Extravagance, Says Columbia Head

Philadelphia, Nov. 24. - Nicholas bia University, in an address here last night before the Union League declared that "upon the Republicar party rests the responsibility of bringing to an end the veritable orgy of waste, extravagance and administrative incompetence that has the administration."

Enumerating the various crises through which the American Nation has passed, Dr. Butler said the peope would face another crisis in 1920 "brought about by those who have lost faith in America and who no longer believe in or who do not understand the principles of the Declaration of Independence and of the Constitution of the United States." Such men, he said, proclaimed their preference for the political philosophy of a Lenine and a Trotzky to that of a Washington, a Hamilton, a Webster or a Lincoln but the American people, he declared, "will nieet and surmount this crisis as they have those that have gone before."

The speaker, analyzing the history of the political processed the conviction that conviction they have those that have gone before."

The speaker analyzing the history of the Republican party, said that in its making there had gone four sets of influences, viz: "The strong and constructive nationalism of the American Government's founders, the passionate American zeal of Henry Clay, the moral idealism of Abraham Lincoln and the broad, human sympathy of Theodore Roosevelt." If the party remained true to its principles and ideals, he said, and exerted 'itself "to meet face to face the people of the United States who may be troubled or in doubt, the future of this country will be secure and the great problems that are awaiting solution will be solved in the general interest and in a way to promote the progress of our Nation and of the race."

"BIG SIX" VOTES TO END STRIKE

Accepts Mandate of the International Council; Insurgents Undecidea

New York, Nov. 24.-A mandate ssued by the executive council of International Typographical marked the course of the present Unon, ordering the striking members charter was the ultimatum contained in the mandate in which the council expressed the conviction that continued refusal of the "vacationist members," to return to work would result in an openshop and nonunion conditions.

The mandate also ordered, the union to instruct its officers to arbitrate the question of when the 44-hour week should be inaugurated.

Lively scenes attended the reading of the mandate. Hisses and catcalls threatened to prevent the details being heard and oratory continued for almost three hours before the vote was taken.

Conservative leaders informed the strikers that they had no alternative but to accept. Representative of the insurgent faction pointed out that foreign laborers had obtained a 44-hour week while they were obliged to work 48 hours. Some counseled on remaining on "vacation" until the shorter hours were granted regardloss of consequences.

Assurances have been given by the employing printers that all will be taken back without discrimination.
