cago and Detroit. From all these cities come similar reports: Crowded church; multitudes of blind, deaf, lamb, paralytics, and from all come the reports of many cures.

During the general convention of the Episcopal church held last month in Detroit, Hickson addresser the convention. As a result, a commission of bishops, priests and laymen was appointed by the convention to consider the fuller recognition to consider the fuller recognition of the ministry of healing in the church and the need of its revival under proper sanctions and safeguards.

"Finally, guided by the assisting priests in the aisles and the helping hands of women, came the great, never-ending stream of those who were waiting patiently their turn, each with a different story of suffering, borne perhaps through many years; a body stiffened in its prison home of arthritis, eyes without vision, ears without hearing, lips that were dumb, nerves shattered and destroyed, wounds unhealed, a malignant growth eating into the very ing. borne perhaps through many spars; a body stiffened in its prison home of arthritis, eyes without vision, ears without hearing, lips that were dumb, nerves shattered and destroyed, wounds unhealed, a many dignant growth eating into the very life; the bereaved, whose vital force had gone in the burying of their dead; the father fearful in his illness that he might not be able to provide for his family; the mother distorted by a nervous shock praying that she might be made well to care for her baby; the young wife praying that she might become a mother; the grandmother broken by a life of toil praying for renewed strength to carry the burden of the grandchidren whom she had brought with her; the man of business; the humblest artisan; the officer of Army or Navy; the girl of fashion; the city missionary; the interil limited in the double bond of suffering and of faith.

Cures Blind and Deaf

Early in November Hickson conducted a mission of healing in Evansten, Ill., following a mission held in Chicago. The Evanston News-Index of November 6, gives the following account:

As the church was entered, one saw it to be a third filled with persons who had come, some in simple and believing faith and some only in curiosity, to watch while Mr. Hickson prayed with those who had come to seek his aid.

Tense quiet and a spirit of prayerfu' expectation filled the atmosphere.
In the chancel before the altar sat a hundred persons, the sick and afflicted. In the pews immediately below sat more for whom there was no room in the chancel above.

"They were of every age. Mothers sat among them, carrying in their arms the infants for whom they hoped faith would bring a cue. There were children, young women, the middle-aged, and the whitehaired and feeble, who had nearly reached the end of life's decline.

end of life's decline.

"Among them was nearly every deformity and illness. A little boy on crutches, urged forward by an anxious mother, went to receive the healing power. A man who was blind, led by his wife, ascended to the chancel. Children were there who borgplaster casts on their diseased limbs, offen persons whose pallor betrayed wasting illness, and those who were deaf, all came to be healed through God, as Christ healed those who came to Him with faith.

"Before the communion rail knelt.

"Before the communion rail knelt a long line of the afflicted. Along this line passed Mr. Hickson, stopping for a few moments, at the side of each sufferer. As he turned from one to the next who was kneeling in prayer before the altar, he leaned down and spoke a few quiet words; then, placing his right hand on the head of the sufferer, he bowed his head end prayed.

Two sermons delivered by Dr. Charles R. Bowers, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Sunbury, Pa, entitled, "Sunbury's Reign of Terror" and "Our Nation's Deadliest Perils," have been published in pamphiet form and are now ready for delivery. These messages consain a scathing denunciation of the "Ex-Corset Fitter" of Berwick, Pa., and Jim Maurer, president of the State Federation of Labor. These are messages straight from the shoulder and hitting hard the diabolical paid labor agitator and anarchistic adherents of the red flag.

Manufacturing Plants of Middle West Suffer
For Want of Fuel

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Closing of additional manufacturing plants in the Middle West with others placed on a further curtailed fuel ration, and alessening of production even in the mines which have been worked since the strike of bituminous coal miners were the great production fields came an indication to-day that the miners had altered their disposition to await an agreement by the operators'-miners' conference at Washington. In Wyoming and Oklahoma there was a prospect of production being resumed. In West Virginia, where the greatest quantity of fuel has been brought out since the strike started, state troops were ready to curb radicales who threattened to shoot miners returning to work and it was expected the ten per cent, loss of production reported tyesterday would soon be regained.

Super-Serials and Feature Films Offers an Exceptional Opportunity to Investors

Not a Motion Picture Venture

A bonafide investment in an established and producing Motion Picture Corporation

The men behind SUPREME PICTURES Inc., are all at the head of large, profitable industries; they are men of the highest standing, whose business integrity has never been questioned—they are men who would not associate themselves with any enterprise, unless of the highest standard.

Mr. Sidney Reynolds, President, is one of the most favorable known figures in the picture industry -he was formerly one of the chief executives and managers of the Fox Film Corporation, which is today the largest individual and most successful Motion Picture Company in the world. Mr. Reynolds, because of his rare judgment of subjects and scenarios, purchased all books and plays produced by the Fox Corporation-it was Mr. Reynolds who had much to do with building the Fox Corporation from almost nothing to a $10,000,000 concern. This same energy, hard work, keen and unusual judg-
