TURKEYS PLENTY WITH PRICES UP TO RECORD MARK

Ducks, Chickens and Roast in Demand; Accessories For Dinner Sold at Reasonable Figures

MANY PROTESTS AGAINST PRICES ASKED FOR FOWLS

Thanksgiving dinner with turkey to-morrow is possible, if you pay the price—45 to 50 cents a pound.

The figures quoted above were those asked from the time the markets opened up to 8 o'clock.

Protests against the high prices were numerous. Buyers openly refused to pay prices asked, and farmers were told some things about profiteering.

Butchers reported large sales of roasts. This was taken as a further indication that meats were preferred to fowl.

There were no worriment about accessories. Vegetables were reasonable in price.

Buyers at early market met with some humors. One man knickered to a farmer about the price of turkeys.

With her soldier youth once again occupying their accustomed place in the home after the cessation of several years of turmoil and strife.

Practical every congregation in the city has arranged for several religious services in token of the great thanksgiving.

While a reverent spirit will fill the entire day, the less solemn affairs of life will have a place in the arrangements.

Thanksgiving==1919

"God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms." Deut. 33-27.

Thru seedtime and harvest, thru chaos of unrest In post-war's deep perplexity, we turn to Thee!

Thru sad hours and empty, when wells of tears ran dry For graves in Flanders, only Thy dear Hand

Thru glad days of welcoming the ones brought safely home Our spirits moved in humble gratitude

Thru hearing and heeding the call of all mankind America found a kinship with her Lord

To nevermore be lost. Her grateful cry is, "Help me speak Thy glory, oh my God!"

TELEPHONE RATES CUT BY ORDER OF UTILITIES BOARD

Public Service Commission Refuses to Approve Wartime Schedule Put Into Operation by Federal Government

REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT MUST BE MADE IN NEW BILLS

The Public Service Commission in a decision handed down at noon today refused the application of the Bell Telephone Company for continuance of the Federal rates after December 1.

The decision, which was written by Chairman W. D. B. Ainey, is by the Commission and is interesting because the Commission through the Attorney General, went into court last winter in an effort to require rates fixed by the Postmaster General to be submitted to the Commission.

The decision says that there does not appear, from the evidence adduced, that there would be any denial of just revenue by a return to the State rates.
