SALUTE THE HAM AND---

Think of All the Misguided Dyspeptics Who Refuse the Good Things to Eat For Fear of Indigestion. No Trouble That If You Follow Meals With Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

Lay a slice of broiled ham on a white plate with a couple of nicely fried eggs and there you have a picture. Salute the autocrat of the breakfast table.

But, you say, I can't eat ham and they don't agree. This is the sort of prejudice a host of people have against many of the most tempting dishes, people who have just as much trouble with a glass of milk or oatmeal as they do with fried onions. Try eating what you like and follow your meal with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to relieve possible gasiness, rumblings, drowsiness, sour risings, heartburn, water brash, and the "stuffy" feeling after eating. These Tablets contain harmless ingredients that act with an alkaline effect just as the stomach does when it is perfectly normal.

Boxing Association Has Big Card For Next Show; Tim Dronoy in Window

The next show of the Harrisburg Boxing Association will be held in Chestnut street auditorium, Friday evening, December 5. The ten-round windup will be between Tim Dronoy, of Lancaster, and Johnny Herman, of Northampton. Dronoy made quite a hit with the fans here at the last show by substituting for Charlie White, Thomas on a 15-minute notice.

Thomas was matched to fight "Allentown" Dundee but many of the fans here felt that Dundee could not have put up the fight that Dronoy did. Herman last week fought Dundee and received the newspaper decisions over him. Owing to the fact that these boys are evenly matched it should make a hair-raising bout.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS OF THE THEATER AND MOTION PICTURES

Merle Maddern, Who Takes Stellar Role in "Curiosity"

"Curiosity," which opens at the Orpheum Theater on Friday and Saturday, will introduce to patrons of the theater a new name to conjure with among producers, J. S. Tepper, who has produced a series of first class productions which this firm contemplates launching this season. H. Austin Adams, who wrote that startling play "Ception Shea," which caused a sensation when played by Nazimova, two seasons ago, is the author.

It is a three-act farce comedy, which about the title dialogue and interest-compelling situations. It has been Mr. Adams' intent to inform the public that not women alone are beset with the sin of being curious. The sterner members of the universal family are also addicted to it. It is an interesting aggregation of plays that J. S. Tepper, Inc. have assembled for the production of "Curiosity." It is a fifteen-piece cast, which pleases in whatever role no chances to be, has the leading part. Playing opposite him, is clever Kathleen MacDowell.

Merle Maddern, niece of Mrs. Fiske, has an important role, as has Ramsey Wallace, who never misses an opportunity for good acting. The cast is completed by Arvid Paulson. Orpheum Theater is looked forward to with great interest. At the matinee they will render Donizetti's famous symphony, "Lucia," and at the evening performance they will present Verdi's greatest composition, "Rigoletto." These selections are always bound to be popular with any one who has a taste for music at all. Beside the company of fifty talented artists which will come here, is a fifteen-piece symphony orchestra. The advance seat sale for this attraction will open tomorrow.

AT THE COLONIAL To-day is the last opportunity Harrisburgers have of seeing Mary Miles Minter in "Anne of Green Gables" and the evening performance of "The Fatal Fortune." New show starts tomorrow, featuring "Tom Moore and Girls," "Colonel Jack George," "$5,000 a Year" and two other headline acts, also the last episode of "The Great Gamble," the thrilling stunt serial. Coming soon—"Who's Who in Harrisburg." Starting December 4—The latest Pearl White serial entitled "The Black Secret."

VICTORIA To-day—Last chance to see Olive Thomas in "The Spite Bride"; also "The Lure of Ambition" and "The Mystery of the Yellow Room." All new week—Double attraction; "The Mystery of the Yellow Room," two-reel comedy featuring Harold Lloyd and "Dumping into Broadway," one of the funniest pictures ever made.

COLONIAL To-day—Last opportunity to see "Anne of Green Gables," also a Larry Green comedy. Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday—Harrisburg's popular favorite, Norma Talmadge, in "The Isle of Conquest." This is hailed as the greatest picture in production. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of "The Vengeance of Durand," featuring Alice Joyce.

REGENT Last times to-day—Elsie Ferguson in "The Witness for the Defense"; Marguerite Clark in the Paramount-Artcraft picture, "Widow by Proxy." Tuesday and Wednesday of next week—Maurice Tourneur's "The Life Line," a super-serial.

"THE CAPTAIN AND THE KIDS" The musical comedy bit of the season is promised in "The Captain and the Kids," from the principal newspapers throughout the country by R. Dirks, which comes to the Orpheum. "The Captain and the Kids" is a healthy, amusing piece of hit music, which earned and held its long public endorsement by its incessantly swift-moving, rollicking and dancing fresh characters, all of them more amusing than they are wise. In this respect, it is a masterpiece of the local presentation by a finely balanced company of farceurs and comedians and dancing chorus of twenty-five and an elaborate production and effects.

"UP IN MABEL'S ROOM" At the Orpheum Theater to-day and tomorrow, matinee both days, A. H. Woods will present the brilliant New York farce success, "Up in Mabel's Room," which was one of the most conspicuous metropolitan successes of last season. "Up in Mabel's Room" has been described as a farce de luxe and "de luxe" it certainly is. It consists of three acts and is the work of Joe Wilson, Colleen and Otto Harbach. It may be briefly described as a series of romantic and farcical incidents caused by no less innocent an object than a beautiful lady's chemise. Mabel was a girl in a moment of sentimental aberration, scribbled in bold, big letters "Mabel from Garry." Then Garry fell in love with and married a sweet but painfully unsophisticated little girl and went to spend his honeymoon in the country, leaving his wife to take care of the home of the guests but Mabel was a wee bit jealous and perhaps some of the other ladies present were a wee bit envious. Mabel, Mabel, Mabel! Garry knew that she had the chemise and that she intended to dispose of it in ways that might prove detrimental to Garry's welfare. Of course, she didn't really mean it, but Garry thought she did, so he tried to steal the chemise. It was not "chemise" and the fun that ensued for months. Not the least of the charms of "Up in Mabel's Room" is its elaborate and beautiful display of lingerie. The company is one of the best.

TO SEE HIS FIRST MOVIE David Finckoff, of Paxtonia, who has never seen a movie and has only been to one circus in his life according to the story carried in this paper yesterday, will in all probability see his first motion picture next Monday morning. An invitation was extended to Mr. Finckoff this morning by C. Floyd Hopkins, general manager of the Wilmer and Vincent theater interests in Harrisburg. In case Mr. Finckoff accepts an automobile will be sent to his home in Paxtonia Monday morning and he will be taken to the Victoria Theater to see "The Mystery of the Yellow Room." Mr. Finckoff will also have the opportunity of earning some money while there if he can guess the ending of the picture after seeing five reels of it. Mr. Hopkins said this morning he will give Mr. Finckoff, or any other Harrisburgers $5 if they can guess the ending of the picture at the end of the fifth reel. Mr. Finckoff will be given first chance at the prize money, however, Mr. Hopkins stated.

Sir Gilbert Parker's story, "The Right of Way," is to have an elaborate screening under Metro auspices, with Bert Lytell in the leading part. It is said that the picture was obtained only under the condition that it should be an orthodox, orthodox picture drama. One of the important characters has been entrusted to that sterling young actor, Gilbert Lytell, who has recently completed engagements in pictures with Mary Pickford and George Loane Tucker. Myron Selznick has purchased the screen rights to "Out of the Night" by Josephine Miller, the well known short story writer. "Out of the Night" appeared in one of the popular magazines and Mr. Selznick intends to use it as a future vehicle for Olive Thomas, Miss Thomas is now working on the motion picture version of the famous play "The Girl from Rangoon," which will be released as her fourth Selznick production.

Family of Four Burned; 4 Other Families Homeless

Stroudsburg, Pa., Nov. 25.—An entire family of four was burned to death and four other families made homeless in a fire which destroyed five dwelling houses here yesterday. The dead are Mrs. Phillip Espirao, a widow and her three sons, Austin, Phillip and Charles, aged 12, 16 and 18 years. The fire, which started in the Espirao home, was caused by celluloid clips used by Mrs. Espirao to kindle a fire in the cook stove, the explosion which followed spreading flames all over the structure. The bodies of the woman and her two older sons were burned to a crisp, while Austin, the younger son, who gave his life trying to save his mother, lingered for several hours after the blaze.

Mayor of Canton, O., Permanently Removed

Columbus, O., Nov. 25.—Mayor Charles E. Poorman, of Canton, suspended by Governor Cox a month ago for failure to preserve order during the steel strike in that city, was permanently removed from office by the Governor yesterday, following a formal hearing before the chief executive. Henry A. Schrantz, who has been acting Mayor since Poorman's suspension now becomes Mayor. He will serve until January 1, when he will be succeeded by Henry Ritter, Mayor-elect.
