

GOVERNMENT WILL SEIZE AND OPERATE BITUMINOUS MINES WITH ARMY'S HELP

MERCURY 20 BELOW ZERO IN TERRIFIC BLIZZARD; FUEL SHORTAGE IS FELT Two Feet of Snow Adds to Distress of the Far West Which Is Feeling Effect of Bituminous Strike

COAL STRIKE SETTLEMENT IS REFUSED UNDER TERMS OFFERED BY GARFIELD

Washington, Nov. 28.—Seizure of bituminous coal mines where the owners do not show a disposition to co-operate in increasing production and use of troops to protect all miners who desire to work, has been decided upon by the government in an effort to end the bituminous coal strike, it was stated to-day officially. In mines seized by the government the 14-per-cent wage advance agreed upon by the Cabinet will be put into effect immediately, it was said. These plans of the government were agreed on by the Cabinet last Wednesday, officials said, so as to meet the situation resulting from a refusal of the operators or miners, or both, to agree to the government's wage increase proposal. Cabinet officers expected many mine owners to put into effect voluntarily the 14-per-cent wage increase. Whether the mines of those refusing to do so would be seized was not made clear, but it was said that there was no general plan for government control; that each individual case would be decided on its merits. Mines taken over by the government will be operated by the Fuel Administration, but details as to compensation to the owners were not disclosed. While various Federal agencies were preparing to carry out the government's program, Fuel Administrator Garfield reaffirmed in even more emphatic terms his position that "profiteering on the part of either labor or capital will not be tolerated."

Situation Critical Chicago, Nov. 28.—Cold weather with snow and sleet storms to-day had spread over the Middle West and Southwest and rendered more critical the fuel situation brought about by the strike of bituminous coal miners, who have been idle four weeks. In many small cities and towns the coal shortage was acute, with an accompanying prospect in some. Moderation of the cold wave by to-morrow, was forecast. In the large producing coal fields of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, the miners apparently were firm in their determination not to return to work until some wage adjustment was agreed on. In fact some district officials of the United Mine Workers in West Virginia predicted that many men who had returned to work would walk out again to-day. Some operators in that state, however, asserted that production to-day would be increased. With no prospect of immediate resumption of production in sight, and no indication of what the next step by the government toward providing fuel would be, following the walk out of the miners and operators' negotiations at Washington, efforts of Governor Henry J. Allen, of Kansas, to obtain volunteers to mine coal, and the announcement by Frederick D. Gardner, governor of Missouri, that he would call a conference of governors of coal producing states, attracted attention. The most drastic conservation measures announced by any of the coal producing states to-day had been ordered in effect at Kansas City, Mo., next Sunday. Schools, theaters and all places of amusement were ordered closed. The less essential manufacturing plants will be closed immediately if the fuel administration announced, and others will be listed in order of their importance. Coal from the schools' supply will be distributed to domestic consumers.

Trains May Stop In Chicago to-day there were renewed reports that train schedules were to be curtailed, but there was no confirmation of this. J. P. Hines, director general of railroads. Virtually all the mines had remained in operation or where work had been resumed were idle yesterday, it being a holiday, but those mines generally were expected to continue production to-day despite breaking up of the strike conference. There were no reports of changes in the general situation as regarded the miners over the holiday period. The conference of governors which Governor Gardner said he would call, provided the Government failed to act, probably would be held at St. Louis, Chicago, or Indianapolis. He indicated the states might take over the mines and operate them. Governor Gardner recently was appointed chairman of the committee to devise means to lower the living cost by the governors' conference at Salt Lake City.

Appeals for Volunteers Every department of human life is bound up in the situation, a statement by Governor Allen, of Kansas, concerning his appeal for volunteers to dig coal to protect the people of Kansas, "who are in a state of dire and unresolvable unless relief is afforded." Mr. Allen said, "that is not in any sense a strike breaking enterprise," and that the state's poor would be used only to relieve the coal famine and to protect the lives of those engaged in carrying out the effort. Messages were received by the governor from men from Kansas, Missouri and Texas offering to work in the mines. "The response is fine for the first day," he said. "Arrangements for moving the men into the coal fields were being worked out to-day. The question of jurisdiction over 55 prisoners arrested at Carneyville, Wyo., by Federal troops acting with Federal officials and the county sheriff to-day remained undecided. They still were held in jail.

SNOWSTORM IS RAGING WITH MERCURY LOW Much Suffering Throughout Middle West With Fuel Scarce TRAIN SERVICE CRIPPLED Heavy Rains and Floods in Arizona; Many Lives in Danger

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Snow ranging in depth from two feet to an inch to-day covered most of the country between the Mississippi river and the Sierra Nevada mountains, and from Canada to Northern Texas, with low temperatures prevailing throughout the area. A slight snowfall occurred in Northern Illinois, Indiana and as far east as Toledo, Ohio, while word came that some snow fell in Los Angeles, Cal., and that two inches of snow covered the ground at the aviation field near Riverside, Cal. South of the snow belt heavy rains fell and floods swept the lowlands bordering the Salt and Agua Fria rivers in Arizona, with possible loss of life. Suffering in many places in the central and southwest was in prospect because of the extreme cold and the limited fuel supply resulting from the coal strike. Cattle on the western ranges also were reported endangered. In the western plains state trains were badly delayed and wire communication was crippled. Lander, Wyo., was the coldest place in the country, according to reports the temperature there being twenty degrees below zero. At Abilene, Texas, it was six degrees above zero.

His home is in Mukkeha, Wis. For twenty years he was in the banking business and later was a salesman and carried on a life insurance business. ON WAY TO ITALY, COUPLE HELD FOR THEFT OF $2,500

Man and Wife Say They Were Holding Money For Accuser

Planning to set sail from New York for their native Italy to-morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bartenzetti, of Gallitzin, Pa., were arrested here to-day, while on their way to New York.

Accused of the theft of $2,500, they were arrested to-day by Pennsylvania Railroad police and are now in the hands of Harrisburg police. They expect to be able to prove their innocence and to be on their way this afternoon in sufficient time to set sail to-morrow. The couple tell a story which police authorities are inclined to believe as the truth.

Living in Gallitzin with them was Pedro Vesta, a man they had known in Italy. All had felt a desire to return to their native land and had made preparations to start. Passports had been secured, luggage packed and the journey of the trio was to have started from Altoona last night. Vesta had previously drawn $2,500 from an Altoona bank and had given it to Mrs. Bartenzetti to keep for him until they started, the story runs.

Last night Vesta failed to meet them in Altoona at the appointed time. They started out, however, expecting to meet him before they set sail, they declare. In the meantime police authorities were notified and instructions to hold the couple were sent ahead.

Vesta never had intended to go to the old country, reports from Altoona say, but the Bartenzettis declare this to be a misstatement. They produced as evidence his passport, which they had been instructed to keep for him. Some clothes of his are in their luggage, which was likewise stopped. Some of their clothing in addition, is in the luggage of Vesta, they say.

JUNIOR SCHOOLS BATTLE TO WIN FOOTBALL FAME

Edison and Camp Curtin Elevens Playing at Island Park Today

FIRST ANNUAL CONTEST

Thousands of Students Cheer Teams as They Line Up For Play

Football with thrills, smashing line plunges, long runs and great punting was on the grid ball at Island Park this afternoon. It was the first battle for city junior high honors with a crowd that appeared as large as that of yesterday for the annual Thanksgiving game. The contestants were the Camp Curtin and Edison junior high elevens.

First Annual Battle This was the first annual battle and rivalry was strong. The game will take the place of the former Tech-Central contests, for the juniors are out for the best that can be offered. Each school has its coach and complete athletic organization. The juniors have been working all season for this game. Both Camp Curtin and Edison have played strong teams this season. While the West End school has a shade on Edison in scores and victories there is no telling the outcome of to-day's battle until the final whistle is blown. In weight the teams are about even, and there will be plenty of speed. Horace Geisel has been tutoring the Camp Curtin boys, while "Shorty" Miller is looking after Edison. The crowd to-day rivaled that seen each year at the annual grammar school games.
