To Give Gold Award For Slogan at Alumni Hop

One of the main features of the Harrisburg High School Alumni hop to be held this evening at Chestnut street auditorium, will be the presentation of the prize of ten dollars in gold to the winner of the prize slogan contest held in the interest of the welfare of Harrisburg. The name of the winner will not be disclosed until to-night. Dean Hoffman, a local newspaperman, was judge of the contest. The names of the contestants were not disclosed to him until after the decision was made. Tickets will be on sale at the door, according to an announcement made last night by the committee. This cancels the previous statement that positively no tickets would be sold at that time. The return of large groups of college students and the unexpected demand for tickets necessitated the rescinding of the previous rule, it was stated. The sale of tickets at the Sigler music store and the Diener jewelry store will close at 4 o'clock sharp this afternoon. The entertainment committee will be in complete charge of the event.

CENTRAL HIGH NOTES The P. B. P. Society held its first exclusively social meeting recently at the home of Miss Virginia Morrow, 714 Bond street. Quite an elaborate program previously prepared by various members, was rendered and was thoroughly appreciated by the entire club. The first number was a charmingly folk dance by Miss Katherine Florman and Miss Martha Goodyear. This was followed by a whistling duet by Mrs. W. E. Egan, soprano, and Miss Katherine Clark, alto. Miss Mary Witmyer played the piano accompaniment. After the whistling refreshments were served in the sun-parlor with Mrs. Morrow and Miss Virginia Morrow attending. After refreshments Miss Kathedine Clark gave several impromptu songs, one of a man who carried the World War into his grocery store; another, that of a little child singing "M-o-t-h-e-r." An all around song, followed with Miss Martha Goodyear playing the ukulele. The last and extremely interesting number was the acquaintance of the P. B. P. members with Mr. Morrow and his singing banjo. The society comprised: The Misses Katherine Clark, Marion Davis, Katherine Florman, Martha Goodyear, Mary Witmyer, Elizabeth Clark, Frances Burkholder, Katharine Kohler, Ella Kreidler, Sara Maubach, Margaret Goodman and Virginia Morrow. A meeting of the H. A. Society was held at the home of Wayne Snyder, 204 Walnut street. Several suggestions for a pin for the society were offered, and Richard Robinson, as president, named a committee comprising Benethum Hillegas and Joseph Knauff to visit the different jewelers in the city and see what they have to offer. Also plans were being for a H. A. dance to be given at Easter time at Winterdale. John Minnaugh and Carl Wright composed the committee appointed to take charge of the rental of the hall and orchestra. At the conclusion of the business meeting a very delicious turkey dinner was served to the following members: Richard Robinson, John Minnaugh, Joseph Knauff, Edward Cahill, Carl Wright, Isaac Jeffries, Kenneth Graham, Wesley Stanford, Harold Shearer, James Craiglow, Benethum Hillegas and Wayne Snyder. At a meeting of the senior class held recently in the assembly hall, the following were nominated for the fourth term officers: President John Minnaugh, Vincent Stanford, Donald Ekolf, secretary, Miss Eva Irving and Miss Elizabeth Herr. More suggestions offered for the class motto were read by the secretary and are to be approved and voted upon by the class at the next meeting to be held in the near future. DAMES OF MALTA MOVE The Capital City Sisterhood, No. 53, Dames of Malta, announce that they have moved from the hall at Sixth and Cumberland streets to Sible and Clark's Hall, Third and Cumberland streets. A large class will be initiated this evening, and all members have been urged to attend and give an impetus to the work. THANKSGIVING BRIDAL The marriage of Miss Ella Flora Kessemer and Phillip Jacob Martin was solemnized yesterday morning at the parsonage of Grace Methodist Church, the Rev. D. Robert Bagwell officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Martin ill live at 1623 North Third street. TO GIVE BAZAR The entertainment committee of the Young Women's Hebrew Association is arranging for a bazar and musicale to be given in the near future. The date will be announced later. PREDICTS ROYALIST SUCCESS Paris, Nov. 26.—(Havas)—Prince Ludwig Windisch-Graetz, former Austrian minister without portfolio and intimate friend of former Emperor Charles, is reported to have declared in Berlin that the "re-establishment of the Hapsburg dynasty in Hungary is only a matter of machine guns, the Entete not being able to prevent it," according to a dispatch received here from Geneva.
