ENTERTAIN FOR LOCHIEL MOTHERS

Lt. Governor Beidleman, Who Clarence Dickinson, of Brick Knew Them When a Boy, Makes an Address,

The Thanksgiving entertainment given for the "Lochiel Mothers" last evening was in charge of a commit-tee from the Market Square Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. William T. Scheffer, superintendent, and Mrs. James Baker, organist and chorus

James Baker, organist and chorus leader.

The program began with Scripture reading and prayer by the Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes; Morley Baker and Miss Helen Opperman played a duet and Miss Sparrow sang delightfully.

When these meetings first started, Edward E. Beidleman, who was clerking for his father in a store at Lochiel, knew most of the mothers and it was a delight for them to have him as Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania, address them last evening. He spoke of their former association and of the good things in store for all in the future, and was heartily applauded and afterward greeted by the members of Lochiel. Refreshments closed a delightful evening. lightful evening

Carl Patterson Receives the Award at Alumni

Hop

"Harrisburg, the city with a conscience," was the prize-winning slogan for which a ten-dollar gold piece was awarded Carl A. Patterson, the originator, at the Central gestion for partition of the German High Alumni hop in Chestnut Street war fleet. Under the arrangement Auditorium last evening. This contest, in the interest of a better Harrisburg, was conducted by the enciation. Dean Hoffman, a local newsciation. Dean Hoffman, a local newspaper man, was judge and the award was made by W. Lowrie Kay, chairman, before the several hundred people present.

C. Laurence Sheney was floor manager at the hop, which proved to be an unqualified success. Among the interesting features of the evening was a Paul Jones and a grand march led by Professor and Mrs. Walter E. Severance.

A most delightful program was given at intermission with Mrs. Roy G. Cox and Elmer E. Ley singing several solos and the duet, "Sometime," from the opera by that name. They scored a great hit, with the later number being recalled repeatedly by insistent applause. Mrs. Anna Hamilton Wood, the well-known writer and storyteller, told an appealing little tale of a group of boys and their beloved pup that the dogcatchers caught. Mrs. Wood told the story in her inimitable way, bringing out the pathos and humor of the tale most charmingly to the great delight of her responsive audience.

U.S. CONSIDERS WALLACE DEATH AT TAMPICO

Washington, Nov. 22.—President Wilson's Message will-go to Congress on Tuesday, December 2, the second day of the new session, it it was stated at the White House. The President is still working on the message, but he is expected to have it completed and ready for the printer the last of this week. Government Officials Give No Intimation of Action They Contemplate

Washington, Nov. 29.—Represent-atives of the United States government are to-day giving serious con-sideration to the murder of another American in Mexico. Up until noon to-day there were virtually no offi-cial pronouncements for the guidance of public opinion as to what action, if any, the government might be contemplating.

from Washington on the subject.
Brigadier General Connor, commander of the American troops in France, recently met the French authorities to discuss the procedure in man. The Wallace referred to is believed here to be W. M. Wallace, an employe of the Gulf Refining Company familiarly known to his associates as "Jim." Wallace recently went to Tampico after having been in Colombia for the Gulf company.

He is about 40 years old.

The murder of Wallace, however ssumes proportions of overshadowing importance. Petrero Del Llano, the ranch on which he was murder ed, is six to nine miles south of Tampico. The oil pipe lines of the Aguilar, Gulf Refining and Huastoca Company's office at Houston, Texas, responded that Wallace probably was W. M. Wallace, who was known to be in the Tampico district and on the Potrero Del Llano property.

Eighth of One Company

If the identification be correct, Wallace is the eighth employe of the Gulf company to meet death at the hands of Mexicans in the Tampico district and the eighth American to be killed in Mexico since July 22, when the United States warned Carranza that further murders of Americans would seriously affect the relations between the two countries. the two countries.
