Special Glove Sale

$1.20 Pair { Two Pairs $2.35

These gloves are selected menders from reliable makers, who have repaired them so skilfully that it is almost impossible to detect these from the regular firsts. As we are among the largest buyers of good gloves, we enjoyed the privilege of having an allotment of these reserved for us at a price very much below what these would otherwise cost as firsts. Inspect them to-morrow, and you will readily see what a remarkable value is offered at this price.

THE REDFERN

Will Mould Your Figure Into the Perfectly Proportioned Lines

YOU will lose the beautiful lines of your figure unless nature is helped to maintain them.

Nature does very little of her own accord unless wisely assisted. We see this illustrated every day in our fitting rooms in figures that have lost their lines through wearing the wrong corset.

Fortunately, the framework of your body does not change. It is merely the unresisting flesh that has assumed ugly contours.

We have found the Redfern wonderfully adapted to the gentle art of figure-moulding. They are so shaped that they will mould the figure into the most graceful and lovely lines!

Every model is designed on a perfectly proportioned figure—so there is a style designed for a figure of your type, one that will in time mould your figure into the perfectly proportioned lines on which the corset is designed.
