

HOLDING FIRM
 Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 2.—There were no desertions in the ranks of the union miners in the Kanawha district yesterday and those who answered the strike call November 7 did not return to work, union leaders of District No. 17, United Mine Workers, declared here to-day.

A Sure Way to End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; wash enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

MAYOR APPROVES HOLIDAY PAGEANT

Many Civic Bodies Will Join in the Welcoming of Christmas

"The Pageant of the Nativity" planned by the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce as a community observance of Christmas, to be staged Christmas night in the vicinity of the State Capitol, this morning received the hearty approval of Mayor Daniel L. Keister. "I think the project should be generally approved," he said, "for it is a pleasant departure from the Community Christmas Tree custom, while it at the same time retains the desirable features of that plan. However, I think anything that will direct the mind of the public to a consideration of the significance of Christmas Day is welcome in these days of unrest. I think the Pageant will have a healthy effect on the public mind."

With the approval of the Mayor and the civic bodies assembled in meeting last evening for a consideration of the project, nothing now stands in the way of its successful culmination, said those at the Chamber office. The civic bodies which gave their approval last evening are the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, Boy Scouts of America, Civic Club, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Ministerial Association, Harrisburg Diocese of the Roman Catholic Church, Central Labor Union, Red Cross, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Wednesday Club.

The work will be under the direct supervision of the Community Service Bureau of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, the Department of Special Activities of the Harrisburg School District, and the Department of Parks and Public Property. The Municipal band will furnish instrumental music, having offered its services free of charge.

Many Harrisburgers will be in the cast, which will be composed of two choruses, one of youths and the other of adults. The scene will be the manger at Bethlehem, with the Star of Bethlehem overhead guiding the Wise Men of the East to the sacred birthplace. Following the Wise Men, "the Shepherds who guard their flocks by night" will also proceed to the manger and make abseance to the character representing Mary and Joseph with the newborn Saviour. So, step by step, the Pageant will unwind the well-known Bible story of the first Christmas morn.

The entire spectacle will last about three quarters of an hour, and will culminate in a burst of radiance as electric signs blaze forth the Christmas spirit of "Good Will on Earth, and Peace to Men."

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED
 "Mr. and Mrs. Hardy A. Bortell, of 212 North Fifth street, announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary A. Bortell to James L. Young, of Boston, Mass. The ceremony was performed November 29. Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside in this city."

EVERYTHING WENT WRONG, SHE SAYS

"For the past two years it just seemed as if everything was wrong with me," said Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, 2516 Orianna street, Philadelphia. "My stomach refused to digest the most simple foods. I felt dizzy at times and had no energy. Rheumatism added to my misery. I tried Tanlac and was astonished at the complete change. To-day I have a ravenous appetite and food never causes me any suffering. The rheumatic pains left me, too. The stomach regulates the condition of the blood and is, therefore, the fountain-head of health or disease. Tanlac is intended primarily for this most important organ, but it is not uncommon for persons who have used it to say that Tanlac relieved them of rheumatism and many ailments not generally recognized as having their origin in stomach trouble. The genuine J. I. Gore Co. Tanlac is now being sold by leading druggists everywhere."

"High Spots" in Nation's Critical Coal Situation

LIGHTLESS nights and deprivations as in war days, coupled with an industrial shutdown, are in store as a result of renewal of war-time coal rules to avert a nationwide fuel famine. This was the outstanding development in the coal crisis to-day. Other features in the situation were:

Warning to the public by Attorney General Palmer, against yielding to threats and indications of a fuel shortage, to support claims for more than a 14 per cent. wage increase offered the miners. A still higher cost of living, he said, would be the result.

Kansas volunteers entered the mines in that State yesterday and are working under military protection to relieve conditions of want.

Few union miners, if any, returned to work yesterday. Reports from the coal fields indicated even more mines idle.

Efforts to reopen Pennsylvania mines in the Western and Central districts failed.

Steady decline in the nation's coal supply goes on, with the shortage and conditions of need increasing, especially in the Middle West.

STILL HOPEFUL MORE MINERS WILL GO BACK

Government Officials Put Faith in 14 P. C. Offer; Wartime Rules On

NEW COAL RULES IN EFFECT AT ONCE

New York, Dec. 2.—The Eastern new coal committee members said wartime restrictions on the use of coal would be put into effect immediately. Railroad officials expressed the opinion that no further drastic curtailment of railroad service was in prospect.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Government officials were still hopeful to-day that the advance of fourteen per cent. in mine workers' wages would result in getting some of the men back to work, especially in view of the fact that coal operators generally were backing up the offer. But at the same time it was said that a period of several days would be required before the effect of this could be determined. Members of a mine operators' committee were in Washington watching the situation and preparing for a general session Wednesday when details of application of the 14 per cent. increase will be arranged, but had no reports of work resumption.

Wartime restrictions on the nation's coal, more stringent even than those applied during the war, were ordered into effect yesterday to stave off a fuel famine.

Moved by reports of diminishing coal stocks and growing danger of distress in numerous sections, the government sought no compromise with striking mine workers whose walkout forced the emergency, but asked for national determination to endure privation and discomfort until coal mining was resumed on its terms.

EXTENSIVE SHUTDOWN NOW IN PROSPECT

increase ordered by the Federal government and acceded to by the operators.

In Wyoming new labor troubles threatened to decrease the small amount of coal being brought out. Except for brief shutdowns at the beginning of the strike and twice since, the mines in that State generally had maintained operation.

Members of the railroad brotherhoods in Kansas to-day were expected to act on a resolution adopted last night to request authority to refuse to handle coal mined by non-union workers.

Curtailed Production

Under the sweeping order of Fuel Administrator Garfield, limiting delivery of fuel or power only to essential consumers in the first five classes of the war priorities list, curtailment of production was in prospect in factories turning out boots and shoes, brass and bronze manufactures, clothing, machinery, (except where specifically exempted); iron and steel, jewelry, marble and stone products, musical instruments, paper goods, (news print excepted); rubber goods, (news print excepted); rubber wood manufactures, sheet and metal products, leather goods, mattresses, paints and varnishes, photographic supplies and miscellaneous non-essential.

Theaters and Churches

Theaters, motion picture shows and all other places of amusement faced complete shutdown. Churches and schools also were included in that category, although efforts were being made to postpone closing schools as long as possible.

Bakeries, except those producing only bread; also fell under the ban, as did confectioners and certain packing plants.

In some of those industries, however, an immediate shutdown might be forestalled if the regional coal committees permitted them to operate until their present supply of fuel was exhausted.

Many operators to-day believed that work in the mines soon would be resumed under inducement of the increased wage scale and the government and public appeal. On the other hand, John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared the government must redeem "its pledge to the miners of a thirty-one per cent. increase. Lewis said the situation was unchanged as far as the miners were concerned. He would not predict the next move to end the tie-up.

Little Suffering

Despite low temperatures that have spread over the west for the last few days, little actual suffering because of the fuel shortage to-day had been reported. In Nebraska, where near zero weather prevailed, Kilgore had been without coal ten days. Western Kansas, also without coal several days, to-day was to obtain an emergency supply, the first taken from the strip pits of that State.

Suspension of all traffic over the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad lines out of Oklahoma City to-day was said to be only a matter of hours unless coal were supplied.

John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America in a statement issued at Springfield, Ill., declared the strike will be settled only by agreement on a 31 per cent. increase.

The Public Utilities Commission of Illinois, issued an order forbidding further use of electricity for street signs and show window illuminations. Earlier in the day 30 evening schools and 63 community centers were ordered closed by the Board of Education.

Kansas City business houses opened at 9 a. m. and closed at 4 p. m. Schools were closed and amusement places not allowed to open.

According to railroad officials in Oklahoma City, suspension of all traffic over the St. Louis and San Francisco lines out of that city is only a matter of a few hours.

At the Hanna, Wyoming, mine, 450 men struck, and at Hudson, Lander and Gebro 500 additional men refused to report for work. The 14 per cent. increases, which they deem insufficient is the cause of the new strike.

Already trappers are making from $200 to $500 a week and some school boys here have made as much as $65 a week by trapping during spare time. Released Frenchman Claims Germans Still Hold Many Prisoners

[By Associated Press]
 Dijon, France, Sunday, Nov. 30.—Germany still retains French prisoners of war in close confinement, it is asserted by Louis Boucher, a French volunteer of the 1920 class, who was made prisoner at Villers-Bretonneux, June 6, 1918, and returned to his home here to-day.

Boucher declares that he, with two comrades, was tried before a court martial for attempting to escape, and was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment in a fortress. He was taken to Danzig, the other being sent to Koeningberg. The French mission from Berlin which visited the Danzig fortress discovered, according to Boucher, seven prisoners in solitary confinement and had them released. Boucher was among those given their freedom. French war office records carried word "disappeared" against the name of Boucher, who had been unable to communicate with his relatives after his capture.

Looking Backward—

Let this Christmas be an Old-Fashioned Christmas.

Let your mind's eye go back to Grandmother's time. In those good old days, were the gifts those of practical value or were they merely some trifle to appease the vain desire to "give something?"

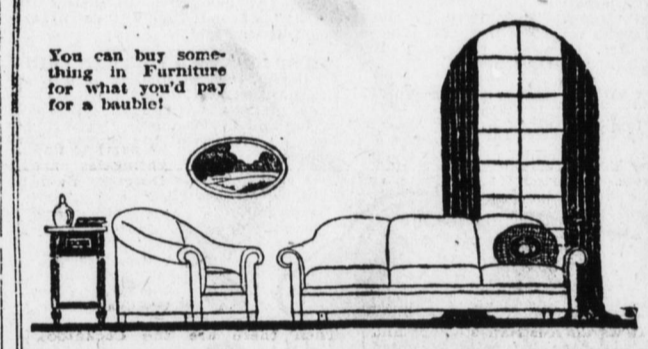

Christmas in those good old days was a season for the interchange of practical, useful things—like furniture, for instance.

Member the big four-poster bed, which, for generations has been pointed out as Grandfather's gift to Grandmother "way back when YOUR mother was a wee youngster?"

In those good days they gave practical gifts—like furniture.

Let's make this an Old-Fashioned Christmas.

This Christmas-- Give Furniture!

You can buy something in Furniture for what you'd pay for a bauble!
