

AIRPLANES FOR AMAZON VALLEY

Brazilian Government May Apply Them For a Survey

Paris, Brazil, Dec. 2. — Airplanes may be employed to map the valley of the great Amazon river. The French are successful in their effort to use aircraft for surveying the routes of the rivers of French Guiana. It is understood the Brazilian government will apply the same method to the survey of the Amazon and its affluents.

A French company is said to have been formed in Cayenne, with hangars on the Maroni river, and French aviators with flying experience gained in the war are being employed to run the twenty-five hydroaeroplanes said to have been furnished by the government.

port freight over distances which the hydroaeroplanes can cover in as many hours, with always large stretches of smooth water offering a suitable surface for landings and "take-offs."

The freight charges are said to be high, and the traffic is expected to consist mainly of gold, balata and essence of rosewood—which are the principal exports of the colony. The passenger business is not expected to be heavy.

These hydroaeroplanes will also be used for prospecting the forests for balata trees, which grow in groups so that the foliage can, it is said, be readily distinguished by aviators flying low over the tops of the forest trees. In the past the securing of fresh sources of balata has been a work of much danger and difficulty. Specially trained balata workers, well armed, traveling in bands of 15 or 20, have been employed to explore the forests and they had to carry with them supplies to cover many months.

Confetti-Covered Couples Cannot Be Wed in His Church

Maryport, Eng., Dec. 2.—The Vicar of the parish here, the Rev. J. A. Richards, strongly disapproves of persons showering confetti on their wedding parties when they are entering the church to be married. Writing in his parish magazine he says:

"All right thinking people must realize how unseemly it is for a couple to stand before the altar on their wedding day literally dripping with confetti. The practice is also unkind. The wedding day is a great event in a girl's life. Much time and money have been expended on costumes. The bride and bridesmaids take a pride in looking at their best, and it is abominable that vulgar, brainless people should be allowed to smother them with confetti."

Strong measures, the Vicar adds, "should be taken to put this down and we wish to give notice that people covered with confetti will not be allowed to enter St. Mary's Church. They will have to come to church in a decent and fitting condition before the ceremony can proceed."

American Capital Is Invested Heavily in New Mexican Mines

Mexico City, Dec. 2.—American capital is reported to have been invested heavily in mining property in the northern part of the republic, the largest single deal having been made by an American smelting and mining company, which secured an interest in the Rosita coal mines in Coahuila for which a million and one-half pesos were paid. The Rosita fields in the past have furnished the greater part of the coal supply of the country and the new owners are said to contemplate enlarging the field and placing Coahuila coal on the United States market.

Hamburg-Rio Ship Service Is Promised

Rio de Janeiro, Dec. 2.—Letters received in Porto Alegre from German commercial firms in Hamburg state that immediately upon the conclusion of peace, freight and passenger steamship service will be resumed between Hamburg and the port of Rio Grande.

Porto Alegre is the capital of the state of Rio Grande do Sul, one of the most prosperous states in the union. A large proportion of the population is German, and the state exports to Germany from the state by direct lines of steamers. The letters just received from Hamburg stated that it was proposed to resume this trade, especially as Germany was sorely in need of the foodstuffs which Rio Grande do Sul produces in abundance.

HUNTERS TURN IN THOUSANDS

State Gets Over $350,000 From Licenses During Fiscal Year Just Closed

Pennsylvania's revenue from hunters' licenses during the fiscal year which ended with November 30, 1919, was over $350,000, but that record-breaking figure does not represent the total of the licenses, as many of the county treasurers have not yet made their returns to the auditor.

The income for the coming year will show many of the licenses taken out this fall. During the fiscal year which ran from November 30, 1918, to the same date this year, the revenue from resident hunters' licenses was $352,261, and from nonresident hunters was $7,026. Fishing licenses yielded $17,173.

Among the interesting items reported by Auditor General Snyder in his summary of the receipts is $129,280 interest earned on the State road bond issue fund deposits. The sinking fund which is maintained for redemption of securities long over due and which State officials have been vainly trying to locate, earned $13,401 in interest. The State school fund earned over $15,000.

Over $66,000 was turned into the general funds of the State through escheated estates and property, while $28,709 was escheated for the school fund, being property left by persons who died intestate and without heirs.

One of the interesting items of the times at the State Capitol is the filing of applications for changes of name by brewing and distilling companies which have been securing charters lately.

Senator R. D. Heaton, of Schuylkill county, was among visitors here yesterday.

Applications for 1920 automobile licenses have started off with a rush at the automobile division of the State Highway Department and checks and money orders representing thousands of dollars have reached the department in the last 24 hours. The applications are being listed as they come in, the low numbers having been reserved for cars owned by the State. It is expected to start the shipment of the tags the middle of this month. All requests for numbers have been coming to the division offices.

Adjutant General Berry has called attention of officers of the former National Guard regiments to the fact that Mexican border service medals held for men who served in the State militia on that occasion have not been called for. It is suggested that in the case of men who are dead that their heirs make application.

Twenty-one counties of the State will have farmers' institutes during the month of January, according to announcement made to-day by the State Department of Agriculture. The institutes started yesterday in four counties and it is the plan to hold them in about twenty counties this month, stopping for the Christmas vacation. The preliminary reports on institutes have been very favorable, the plan of having the discussions relate to the product raised in the locality being generally approved.

Public Service Hears Pittsburgh Case

Public Service Commissioners sat to-day for the final argument in the complaints against the Pittsburgh Railway Company, which began in the spring of 1917 and on which there have been numerous hearings and a valuation of the properties of the company by five different sets of experts. The argument began late yesterday afternoon and was continued this morning. It may be weeks before the Commission reaches a decision.

A. W. Robertson, who opened for the company, contended that the reproduction cost at present prices as agreed upon would be $102,000,000, while George A. Alter, the second speaker for the company, said that taking figures of the complainants the fares were not as high as justified. Even if the valuation was as low as $18,000,000, as some wanted to make it, he asserted that the agreed upon annual expenditure, exclusive of the wage increase would be more than the $14,000,000. The wage increase was estimated at a million dollars more. This would make nearly $16,000,000. If the rate of returns is to be 7 per cent it would make over three millions more or an annual charge of $18,400,000. The best estimate of 1920 revenues he said were around $17,000,000. He said that there was no complaint now against service.

C. K. Robinson, opening speaker for the city, declared that the public should not be forced to pay for superseded property and declared that earnings had gone to 10 and 12 per cent. He insisted that items in the valuation should be wiped out and that the profit had already paid for them. He also assailed the schedules; continuing his talk to-day. George Munro, for Pittsburgh, and Howard W. Douglas, for McKeesport, closed for the complainants, while E. W. Smith was the concluding speaker for the company.

Harrisburg Men, Disabled in War, Placed in Schools

Several Harrisburg men disabled during the war have been placed in institutions through the efforts of the Federal Board for Vocational Education. Throughout the State nearly 1,300 disabled men have been cared for in this manner.

The local men and the institutions in which they have been placed are Jesse L. Bason, Carnegie Institute; Dave E. Duple, State College; Delmar Lantz, Carnegie Institute; Charles B. Ruch, Williamson Trade School; Allen Ridge, Duff's School; Charles W. Ridgway, Philadelphia Trade School; and Edward Lee White, Harrisburg Light & Power Company.

American Soldiers Are Troublemakers, Say Mexican Newspapers

Mexico City, Dec. 2.—American soldiers in search of liquor who cross the boundary line into Mexico and frequently cause disturbances before they return are the cause of much concern to the Mexican military chief of the border district, according to several newspapers here yesterday.

The soldiers, it is alleged, boldly cross the line and except in rare cases come fully armed. After patronizing a few cantinas surreptitiously hidden by their owners for this particular trade, it is charged that the soldiers at times become boisterous and unruly and fortunate circumstances alone in the past have prevented serious trouble.

PARTY COMMITTEE MEETS

Middleburg, Pa., Dec. 2.—The Republican county committee met in Middleburg on Saturday. Resolutions commending the State and county administrations were adopted. Plans for the next presidential campaign are already being formulated. The convention was addressed by Congressman B. K. Focht, Senator W. C. McConnell, A. F. Gilbert and John A. Wetzel.

"It was there to make a sketch of her. Luncheon was just over, and she was talking to a little knot of women. The first words I heard, as I staid quietly into a nearby seat, were 'National Biscuit,' recalling pleasantly my own tasty Unecda Lunch. I liked her, and settled comfortably as she spoke again of her days and ears busy.

"Between the dark and daylight, she was quoting 'there's always a bit of pause in the happiness, seems waiting and listening—for the children. Since they were tiny babies, I've given that hour to my children, as we must then, when they are all, and we would to toddle, I tried to get and after their me in my arms. I never missed the pad of my hand, but always they were warm and dainty. You see, even though I was always dainty, I went on, 'are much like me, depending as only National Biscuit Products can be. During the most tractable after they've had years when my babies were growing something to eat. National Biscuit up we never missed the child dainties always begin our children's hour with its fasty feast."

Help Relieve Yourself of Indigestion Gas, Etc., by Eating

Physician tells how—if three meals a day distresses you, take five meals a day to get rid of your troubles. The "Food Treatment" for dyspeptics often gives most surprising results in a few days' time.

The real and true relief for most stomach troubles must be found in the proper chemical combinations of foods, the quantity eaten and the methods of eating, and not in strong drugs nor starvation diets—which diets often only further weaken the stomach and impair the digestion by weakening the whole system on account of depriving it of proper nutrition.

Most people foolishly seem to pay but little attention to excess acid gas and food fermentation until it gets quite bad, then they usually take some drug meant to neutralize the acid and give temporary relief, but they do not reach the cause. The victim continues to suffer on frequent occasions until the disease finally becomes chronic. The walls of the stomach and intestines become highly inflamed and what was first a simple irritation now develops into gastric catarrh and finally, perhaps, into a stomach ulcer. A highly inflamed, irritable stomach is a good deal like a sore on your finger, if you keep rubbing and irritating it, it may never get well. Every time your food ferments and excess acid gas forms, it only further irritates you already weak, sore and irritated stomach walls.

To bring about relief you must avoid food fermentation and the consequent constant irritation it produces. It is often not so much what you eat that does damage as it is wrong chemical combinations of food. For example: The following would be a very bad breakfast from the standpoint of correct food combinations:

Grapefruit or sour oranges, with sugar, Oatmeal, or other cereal, with milk, White bread, eggs and coffee.

The fruit acid tends to ferment the sugar and the milk; the coffee may cause an excess of acid and these two may start fermentation in the starch of the bread and oatmeal or cereal. Then the fat in the yolk of the egg becomes a burden and things may generally go all wrong. Also what appears to be a simple breakfast of grapefruit, sugar, rolls and coffee, may, on account of the bad mixture of fruit acid with sugar and starch (bread), start a vinegar acid factory working day and night in even a fairly strong stomach for twenty-four hours at a clip while a proper combination of foods would probably digested in the same stomach without the slightest difficulty.

If you have not made a careful study of the suffering that may be caused by bad food combinations, and how they may not only tend to prevent the formation of excess acid gas and stimulate the stomach, but also weaken your whole physical organization, you ought to read the interesting folder on this important subject which has been issued by the manufacturers of Pan-Zenn, which is a valuable anti-acid, carminative and stimulant to the stomach and digestive tract. Pan-Zenn used in connection with proper food combinations is intended to prevent the formation of excess acid gas and, strengthens the stomach and increase the digestive power and thereby get it into such a condition that it will properly digest food without artificial assistance. Then you do not have to be so particular about your food as you do now. Once your stomach gets well you can mix most anything together and it will digest. Pan-Zenn also may be taken where quick relief is needed which it produces usually in ten to fifteen minutes' time. Pan-Zenn is not a secret remedy, but a scientific preparation. A copy of the folder on advice on correct principles of food combinations is contained in each package you purchase. Be sure to examine the first package that you purchase and see that it contains this folder, as this information is highly important to every stomach sufferer. Pan-Zenn is for sale in this city by Croll Koller, G. A. Gorgas, H. C. Kennedy.
