

Red Lion, Pa., Dec. 2.—Her cloth-ng catching fire from a flareup of gasoline and coal oil she had poured n the kitchen stove to hasten a fire, Anna May Leiphart, daughter of Mr. Pastor Says Farewell of paralysis a week ago.

DIVORCED FROM CRIMINAL

Gets Seven Months For

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 2 .--- Harry Ken-

GIVE $75 TO CHURCH HOME

One Day Only Thirty High-Class Coats

For Women and Misses Formerly Up to $45

Thell BSchling Stores

28-30-32 North Third Street

A Sale For Wednesday

Choice $27.50

These coats are in the most desirable materials and models and are really wonderful values. There are all sizes in the assortment and the group offers a most extraordinary opportunity to save considerable money on a high class coat.

Our entire stock of winter coats is very substantially reduced, offering the season's most unusual values. It pays to make selections at once.

Anna May Leiphart, daugner of ar-and Mrs. John Leiphart, was so bad-ly burned she died a short time later. The accident occurred at the home of Wesley Hough, where the girl had been employed. Her body was practically burned to a crisp.

FRIEND OF NEEDY DIES Lebanon, Pa., Dec. 2.—Eli Wal-lace, for more than a quarter of a century known as "Santa Claus" ini astern Lebanon and western Berks among the poor and needy, died at his home in Newmanstown at the age of 79 years. He suffered a stroke of nearby served astroke to Waynesboro Flock

Chambersburg, Pa., Dec. 2.-At a meeting of Mercersburg Reformed ney, of Juniata Gap, convicted in the classis here yesterday the pastoral Blair County Court on the charge of relations between Trinity Reformed involuntary manslaughter in connec-Church, Waynesboro, and the Rev. tion with the death of Daniel Her-

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 2.—Marie urst, of Lancaster, has been granted divorce from her husband. Frank of the nastor and his wife for 4. seven quarts of whisky having been Chambersburg, Pa., Dec. 2.—When Mrs. Roy D. Jones, of this place, drew water from a faucet at her home a water worm more than a foot long came from the spigot. The worm is of a dark brown color and measures one-sixteenth of an inch in diameter.

Camp Hill, Pa., Dec. 2.—The adies' Aid Society of the Camp IIill adies' Aid Society contributed $75 to t mittee was appointed to supply the church until the congregation shall to the fact that Kenney's case have called a successor. In his parting words to his people, Dr. Bahner expressed his gratitude day. He further informed the court for many a base of the society of the Camp IIII and the society of the Camp IIII Methodist Church contributed $75 to the Methodist

Worm Follows Stream For Jones Water Faucet

Causing Death of Man

LITTILE LIINES FROM THEARDIT

Licensition of the light of the second bell states of the second bell the second bell states of the second

