IN MEMORIAM In memory of my dear husband, Paul Hill Leitch, who fell asleep December 1, 1919.

I cannot say, and I will not say, that he is dead—he is just away. With a cheery smile and a wave of his hand.

He has wandered into an unknown land. And yet we dreaming how very far it needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you—oh you, who the widest yearning for old-time step and the glad return—Think of him faring on, as dear in the love of those as the love of me.

And loyal still, as he gave the blow of his willing strength to his country's gentle as he was brave.

When the sweetest love of his life he gave. Think of him still as the same, I say. He is not dead—he is just away.

By HIS WIFE AND SON. In loving remembrance of our dear sister, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Maguire who departed this life December 2, 1914. Gone but not forgotten.
