posed memorial.

It is planned to erect the monument in one of the local paris. It will cost from $8,000 to $10,000, and the committee now plans to have it erected as a memorial to the firemen who were in service and also in honor of the work of the volunteer department. JAMES T. WALTERS, Executor, 591 S. Front St., Harrisburg. "Harrisburg will soon become a

"Harrisburg will soon become a second-class city and will have a second-class city and will have a paid fire department," Mapor Keister said. "We plan to use the monument both to commemorate the soldier heroes of the fire companies and the excellent work of the volunteer fire-fighters."

Each company has offered to pay $100 toward the cost of the memorial, and it is planned to raise $2,800 additional by contributions of $1 from each fireman. The balance will be raised by a firemen's bazar and similar events. Number of Realty Transfers Breaks Records

During the last few weeks in November 254 properties in the city were sold, according to Assessor James C. Thompson, having an assessed valuation of $662,325. Included in this number were 227 houses or other buildings and 27 vacant plots.

In November 360 properties were sold, valued for taxation at $978,240.

In the following list of transfers $1 in stamps is carried for each $1,000 consideration. Sales from November 8 to November 29, inclusive follow:

Consider tion on Deed. en's furs, because "they have become practically a necessity since winter fashions dictate their use."

Encouraged by success of its campaigns to check rising prices of other necessities, the government expects to bring the pelt of the beaver and mink down to fit the purse of "the thinnest clad grisette."

French women in Paris, although it is near midwinter, now wear knee skirts and dresses of the sheerest material. This, in the opinion of the government, makes it necessary the women have some warm overgarment, and since they want furs the government has decided they shall not be overcharged for them.

Scores of fur shops recently have opened in Paris. Their owners apparently are reaping rich harvests, R. Ross Rhoads to Harry M. Sanson 3-s, brk, dw. Admiral Millo Working With Captain D'Annu With Captain D'Annunzio

MRS, LUCY LEACH

Mrs. Lucy Leach, 26 years old, died on Saturday evening at the Harrisburg Hospital, Her death is the third in the family within eight months. She is survived by her husband; three children, Elsie, Russel and Louise, the latter being only six weeks old; her father, P. W. Metzger; one brother, J. L. Metzger, and one sister, Mrs. T. Boone, Funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Lesch in Lemoyne, Burlai will be in New Cumberland cemetery.

Paris, Nov. 20.—Admiral Enrico Millo, commander of the Italian occupation forces along the east coast of the Adriatic, is working hand in hand with Captain D.Annunzio, according to information received here from an authoritative source. All along the Dalma-tian cost, it is said, the people believe the Italian fleet and the D'Annunzio army are co-operating for the purpose for occupying all Dalmatia.

In Jugo-Calva official circles here it is felt that the excitement among the population may result in uprisings which will make Serbian intervention absolutely necessary.
