meeting in one legislative chamber at the state capital, the Democratic state convention in the opposite chamber endorsed President Wilson for a third term by an unanimous vote. Under the Richards state primary law, the county delegations cast their vote in basis of their voting strength at the last state election, and a majority was necessary to endorse or nominate. Wood received 28,899 votes and Lowden got 15,442. The necessary majority was 25,538. The Republicans then quickly endorsed Governor Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, for the Vice Presidential nomination. Coolidge received a heavy majority. A few scattering votes were cast for Theodore Roosevelt, Senator Hiram Johnson and Henry Allen, of Kansas. Democrats did endorse Vice President Marshall for a third term if he is a candidate.

Governor Peter Norbeck was nominated as United States senator by the Republicans to oppose Senator Ed S. Johnson, who was renominated by the Democrats. The only other presidential possibility mentioned at the Democratic convention was William G. McAdoo. After President Wilson was endorsed, a delegate moved that the convention endorse McAdoo in the event that President Wilson decided not to be a candidate, but the motion was ruled out of order.

In the Republican nominating speeches several of the Lowden supporters declared they were returned soldiers and asserted that the sentiment in the army, particularly in the ranks, as they observed it, indicated that a majority of men who served the colors were opposed to a military man for President. Wood supporters reviewed his record in the army and Lowden supporters declared they were returned soldiers and asserted that the sentiment in the army, particularly in the ranks, as they observed it, indicated that a majority of men who served the colors were opposed to a military man for President.

Kansas Coal Mined by Volunteer Workers, Is on the Railroads

Pittsburg, Kan., Dec. 3.—As a result of the labors of volunteer workers in the strip pits of the Pittsburg district, one car of coal last night was en route to Coldwater, Kansas, and other cars were expected to be started to towns and cities where the coal famine was most acute.

Yesterday the volunteers—clerk, business men, college students, Kansas lawyers and candidates for Congress—worked under most disadvantageous conditions. The dirt walls of the pits were frozen and at the bottom ice was encountered. It was a day that ordinarily would have halted operations.

Some hundred additional men arrived to-day to don their working clothes and go to the pits.
