EACH MUST PAY SHARE OF COSTS

Carlisle Jury Frees West Fairview Citizen of Assault Charge

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 3.—In court here yesterday a Cumberland county jury brought in a Scotch verdict in the case of J. R. Wilson, a West Fairview man who was charged by H. J. Morrow with assault and battery.

The jury found Wilson not guilty, but ordered that he pay half of the costs and Morrow the other half. There was a fight between the men in the back yard at their homes in West Fairview. Morrow testified that Wilson came up as he was talking to a Mrs. Curry about Mrs. Wilson, who had died, and about Wilson's new housekeeper, a colored woman. Wilson became angry and began to fight. Morrow had a shovel and Wilson went and got an ax with which he cut Morrow's coat and then threw the ax at him and broke his arm.

Wilson said Morrow started the fight and that Morrow's daughter, Mrs. Logan, first hit him over the head with the shovel. Morrow also hit him. Wilson had as a witness Mrs. Dell, who said that she saw the beginning of the fight and that Morrow struck Wilson and knocked him down. Wilson also had a number of character witnesses.

Judge Sadler sentenced Earl Green, a Philadelphia colored man, to four years in the penitentiary after he had pleaded guilty to stealing an automobile from the Miller garage at Mechanicsburg.

Thomas Kelly, of Baltimore, who pleaded guilty to robbing Thomas Moore's bungalow, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

"Fad" Mickey was sentenced to the Huntingdon Reformatory and William Raustin to the penitentiary for not more than three years, both having pleaded guilty to robbing a sortable house at Lemoyne, on oath of Eli Garrett.

Charles D. Jackson, who snatched the purse of Mrs. Jennie Miller on the street here, was fined $10 and given 90 days in jail.

CIVIC CLUB MEETS. Marysville, Pa., Dec. 3.—At the monthly meeting of the Marysville Civic Club at the home of Mrs. E. J. Sellers, reports of committees were read. Action was withheld because of the absence of the president, Mrs. Jennie Wox, who is ill. A special meeting will be held during the month. The next regular meeting will be held on Monday, January 5.

Motor Mail Service For Waynesboro District

Waynesboro, Pa., Dec. 3.—Arrangements have been completed for the running through Waynesboro each afternoon of a motor truck mail service.

The new service became operative yesterday. The truck leaves Gettysburg at 10 o'clock in the morning and passes through Two Taverns, Emittsburg, St. Marys, Thurmont, Lewistown and Harmony Grove, reaching Frederick at 1.30 in the afternoon.

Leaving Frederick at 1.50, the truck touches at Braddock Heights, Middletown, Boonsboro, Benevola and Funkstown, reaching Hagerstown at 3.30. It leaves Hagerstown at 3.45 after passing through and stopping at Lettersburg arrives in Waynesboro at 4.35 o'clock. Departing from here the stations of Quincy, Mont Alto, Sanatorium, Caledonia Park, Cashtown, McKnightstown and Seven Stars are passed, making Gettysburg at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Tells a Secret Manufacturer of Famous Medicine Tells Ingredients, So Public Can Appreciate Pure, Reliable Medicine

Many people fear to take medicine to check and abort colds, cure coughs, catarrh, etc. This fear is groundless with all the products of The Blackburn Products Co., Dayton, Ohio. Not one contains opium, narcotics or harmful drugs. Mentho-Laxene, for coughs, colds, catarrh and all distress following a cold is a compound of Wild Cherry, Tolu, Cascara, Grindella, Mentho-Ammonium Chloride, and alcohol sufficient to preserve and keep in solution.

Every ingredient is in concentrated form and the medicine is so strong that only ten-drop doses are to be taken in the "raw" state. But the ideal way is to make into syrup by emptying a 2 1/2 oz. bottle of Mentho-Laxene into a pint bottle and then fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup, made by dissolving a pint of sugar in a half pint of boiling water. It is said by thousands that this makes a most effective home treatment for all cold troubles. The manufacturer guarantees it to please or money back. Sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

CRIMINAL COURT QUICKLY ENDED

Northumberland County's Shortest Term Brought to Close Today

Sunbury, Pa., Dec. 3.—What was probably the shortest term of a Northumberland county criminal court in a dozen years was brought to a close today when the last case was tried before Judge Moser. Many bills of indictment were ignored and a number of cases continued.

Frank Howdy, of Shamokin, was acquitted of stealing a team of horses from George R. Reigel. Howdy was arrested in Pittsburgh and held on the strength of a newspaper clipping telling of the robbery that was found in his pocket. There was no evidence, however, to establish his connection with the crime.

In one of the Sunbury silk mill cases in which Josephine Bottom-stress is accused of attacking Florence Ritchie, Herold and Helen Bower while they were on their way to work after the mills had been reopened in a successful effort to break the strike, the court granted a continuance until the next term.

Attorneys for the silk mill back of the case were in New York, it was stated.

Nicholas Sturgeonis, charged with assaulting his wife at their Shamokin home, was allowed to go without his case being presented to the grand jury. He is repentant and he will be given another chance.

Dr. J. S. Hammer, an alienist from the Danville State Hospital for the Insane, to-day examined Julius Padutti, Mount Carmel, who shot and killed his aunt, Mrs. John Marionell, last summer. The expert found that Padutti is a paranoiac.

WOMAN CHEATS LAW BY BULLET

White Officers Wait, Mrs. Daisy Baker Shoots Self Through Heart

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 3.—Refusing to leave the home of Wade H. Wolfe, near Wolfsville, where she had been living for several years, Mrs. Daisy Baker, aged 36 years, after being placed under arrest by an officer, swung upstairs and shot herself through the heart with a .32-caliber pistol. She lived about twenty minutes.

The officer was waiting downstairs to take the woman away, following efforts of Wolfe to have her ousted from his home. Wolfe tried to get rid of the woman, who was of a nervous temperament, but she refused to leave and when she started breaking dishes and furniture Wolfe telephoned officers for help. Wolfe told the officer Mrs. Baker had threatened to shoot him and herself.

Mystery Continues Over Missing Young Man

Columbia, Pa., Dec. 3.—The disappearance of George Carl Webster, 19-year-old son of George F. Webster, assistant foreman in the Pennsylvania transfer station at this place, a mystery. Webster has been missing from home since last Wednesday night, and the supposition is that he had drowned himself. Yesterday a trackwalker on the Low Grade Line, near Santa Harbor, telephoned to Columbia saying he had met a young man answering his description, and that he was carrying a grip. The belief still obtains among some of his friends that the young man simply wandered away from home and that he is still alive. His father and some others think he drowned himself in the river.

Fulton County Man on Trial For Manslaughter

Chambersburg, Pa., Dec. 3.—Michael Zulanko, of Karney, Fulton county, who is charged with involuntary manslaughter as the result of a collision of an automobile and a motorcycle at the Back creek bridge along the Lincoln highway, west of Chambersburg, in which Floyd De-Long lost his life, is on trial here. Both attorneys exhausted their challenge when the jury contained only 10 persons, but each reconsidered a for-mer challenge and the jury was filled. The case went to trial yesterday and occupied all of the day when court opened.

Stranger Seeks Life of Gettysburg Citizen

Gettysburg, Pa., Dec. 3.—An attempt was made to take the life of Herman Bream, resident of this place, but was unsuccessful. As Bream was seen to drive into Eberhart's garage a strange man standing in the dark close by remarked to a boy walking along the street that he intended to "get that guy" and pulled a revolver out of his pocket and started to load it. Officers were notified a short time afterwards but the man could not be found. About ten o'clock at night the telephone in the Bream home rang and a man asked if Mr. Bream was home and when told no asked where he could be found. It is thought it was the same man.

Town Cuts Down Its Lighting to Save Coal

Chambersburg, Pa., Dec. 3.—With only a twenty days supply of coal on hand, the town council of Chambersburg has authorized the light committee to cut the lower standards of lights on the white way standards in order to conserve fuel. By doing this Manager of Utilities Mowrey says there would be a saving of 500 pounds of coal per night. The are lights will be turned off only as a last resort. If this is done more than 3,000 pounds of coal can be saved each night.
