THE CHRISTMAS STORE

"All who joy would win, must share it.
Happiness was born a twin."

Thus wrote Lord Byron, and all other poets and philosopher's confirm it.

"Pleasure shared is pleasure doubled."

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

But you, yourself, know it — you have felt the joy of giving to others and seeing the pleasure that you have created.

And now HAPPINESS TIME is just ahead—CHRISTMAS, the greatest institution that the world has ever evolved—the Day when every normal human being takes joy in giving Happiness to others.

The symbol—the gift—is the small thing; the thoughtfulness, the sentiment, the GOOD WILL expressed is everything.

It is yours to express the Good Will—it is ours to provide the symbols of your friendliness—the Gift-Things.

Never have we presented quite so complete and satisfying an assemblage of Things to Give for Christmas as are now gathered here, for the celebration of the Greatest Peace and Good-Will Day of all time—Christmas, 1919.

All ready for first and choicest selections, now.

Come before the rush-time takes the edge off pleasant Christmas shopping.

It is Personality That Pays

All other attributes capitulate before its compelling force.

Personality is derived from poise,—style. The woman who feels herself distinguished in carriage and dress and figure will immediately acquire confidence in self which is a distinguishing trait of personality.

"Yes," you ask, "but whence comes this all-conquering personality?" Unlike greatness, we are rarely born with it, nor do we have it thrust upon us. It is carefully acquired — thoughtful dressing contributes a large share to its success. Your contour is the first step, and it is made with the Corset. Upon it depends the effect of the dress—the corset is the cause. Now we come to the special type of corset and the answer is a Redfern. It fulfills the corset mission perfectly.

A Redfern Corset would be appreciated from a sister, mother or daughter.

Colonial Hall Clocks

Like the "Chimes of Normandy" or deep-toned cathedral gongs, the Colonial Hall Clocks sound the passing of the hour in a more impressive and musical way than the ordinary tinkle of the bells. And the stateliness of tall design and rich mahogany case adds a distinctiveness to the home seldom equalled by any other article of home furnishing. We have a very attractive showing in several patterns of cases. Both chime and cathedral gong. Antique mahogany cases.
