HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

DECEMBER 4, 1919.

JOHNNY GILL LONDON AWAITS HELPS ANGELO BIG RING FIGHT

Joe Beckett to Clash With Greek Is Anxious to Show the Georges Carpentier For

English Title

By Associated Press.

By Associated Press. London, Dec. 4.—Joe Beckett, and Georges Carpentier will meet in a 20-found bout at the National Sporting Club to-night to decide the question or who is the champion heavyweight of Europe. Carpentier, a Frenchman, at present holds the title. The fight is due to begin at 9.15 o'clock. In-club to-night to decide the fight is due to begin at 9.15 o'clock. In-club to-night to decide the fight is due to begin at 9.15 o'clock. In-club to-night to decide the fight is due to begin at 9.15 o'clock. In-club to-night at 9.15 o'clock. In-decide the fight o'clock. In-decide the fight o'clock. In-decide the fight o'clock. In-the fight of the world. Beckett, who is the champion of lapounds in weight over Carpentier, scaling at about 184 pounds. Also his reach is two inches longer than that of his French opponent. Otherwise the contestants will be virtually equal as regards age, height and measure-ments.

Best Form in Monday Night's Battle that of clinching continually with Cyclene Smith Busy In the semi-windup Cyclone Smi of Lancaster, made Paddy Sylvesi of Shamokin, quit at the end of fourth round. Both lads meted considerable punishment but Smith blows had more steam back of th than Sylvester's did. Young Jim Beckett, of Philadelphia, gave You Gotwait the lacing of his careet. I Quaker City lad had the York boy rounds. In the second bout of the even Young r. The is mercy all through the strong sunds. In the second bout of the evening anky Ralph Grove, the former ex-oliceman, was a winter by the nockout route. Has an and the seconds that will be an another the seconds of eep with but forty-five seconds of angford, of Barling, Willie angford, of Barling, willie id, of Balticoklynte gave the Bal-morean a severe lacing and earned to decision over his dusky rival.

Elect Callahan Brothers to Lead Football Teams

Boy Johnny

York. Pa., Dec. 4.-Before one of he biggest crowds that attended a soxing show in this city, Johnny Gill and the best of his tough opponent. Kid Sheeler, of Philadelphia, in the wind-up of the excellent bill staged a the Orpheum Theater. The local ad battered Sheelers face to ribbons, 111 favoring his right hand, which he njured in his fight with Block, and on which he carried a large boil. Sheeler, came in for a considerable umount of hooting for his tactics, hat of elinching continually with the fork boy.

	may bring forward an opponent for Jack Dempsey, the American heavy-		the decision over his dusky rival.		n the game and also the cheer chorus weight, in a contest for the heavy-		Elect Callahan Brothers	ture which was taken on Thanksgivi	visitors may expect something out ing Day, the cheer leaders are, read in
	Beckett, who is the champion of England, will have an advantage of		to Lead Football Teams	kin, "Bill" Keller, "Red" Huston, "Cl	harley" Atkins, "Freddy" Morgan.	End and the second statement of the 14 nounds in weight over Carpentier,		to Lead Football Teams			p 1
	scaling at about 184 pounds. Also his reach is two inches longer than that		By Associated Press	PORTLAND HIGH	TEAM IS	IDICU CUAMDION of his French opponent. Otherwise	A Visione	Timothy Callahan, of Lawrence,			IRISH CHAMPION
	the contestants will be virtually equal as regards age, height and measure-	· Harris Anna Managara	Mass., was re-elected captain of the Yale football team last night. Calla-	ENROUTE TO	HARRISBURG;	ON DIGUE DITI
	ments. Expect Hard Battle	The second second second	han is registered as a senior in the			ON FIGHT BILL
	While Beckett is regarded as a		scientific school but because of two years spent in the navy, the best	WILL GET	BIG RECEPTION	-der.
•	fighter. Carpentier is credited as be- ing the more scientific because of his		he could get from the university		and the second second and the second	Tommy Sheridan Expects to greater boxing skill. Both men are said to be in the best of condition	THE REPORT TO AND THE	next June would be a so-called war diploma With an extension of his	Postland Maine With acheal		· Give Johnny Herman for the battle.		course here until February, 1921, a	scholastic football champions of New	have six or seven pounds to a man on the visitors.
	The Prince of Wales is expected to witness the contest, as also are a		full degree would be given him and i.e decided to stay. He will leave	England, will arrive in Harrisburg to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock	Officials Not Certain .	Hard Lacing number of peers and members of the		college at that time.	and will play Harrisburg Tech on	the officials, but they will be picked
	House of Commons. No match in re- cent years in England has attracted	"KID" ALBERTS	Captain Callahan played on the championship 1916 eleven at Yalo	the Island, Saturday afternoon for the supremacy of America. The boys	from Taggart, Okeson, Hitchler,	WHAT FANS WILL SEE so much attention in the newspapers.	Realizing that he will be up	and was center on this year's team- being opposed in the Princeton game	from the original drys state of the	take the visitors into consideration
	B J. Angle will referce.	against the toughest proposition of	by his brother "Mike" Callahan, who	union have defeated Waltham, Mass, and Manchester, New Hampshire.	The city will send a large delega-	AT BIG BOXING SHOW
	Ira Plank to Coach	his career when he faces Kid Al- berts, the Reading lightweight in	yesterday was elected captain of the Tiger team for 1920.	They are reputed to be the scholastic	gation to the station to greet the	Windup, 10 rounds, Tommy Sher-
	Gettysburg Baseball Team	the feature ten-round bout of Joe	"Tim" Callahan prepared for Yale	champions of the New England states.	visiting aggregation Friday after- noon. The Tech student body will	Idan, Jersey City, vs. Johnny Her-
		Barrett's all-star show next' Mon-	at Andover, while his brother is a	When the kickoff takes place Sat- urday afternoon at 2.30, the largest	be on hand to great the hove from	man. Northampton. Semi-windup, six rounds, Mickey Gettysburg, Pa., Dec. 4Ira Plank. brother of Eddie Plank, has again	day night before the Olympia A. C., in Steelton, Billy Angelo, the fast				Devers, Allentown, vs. Oppie White of Lancaster.
	toom at Cottyshurg College for the	Greek lightweight of York, through	turn to Vale, the choice of the cap-	is expected. It is the first time that	so that the crowds may not congest	Preliminaries, six rounds, Dick season of 1920. It will be his ninth	his manager, Bobby Brown, has ar-				Gotwalt, of York, vs. Battling Pas- kos, of Reading; Young Deemer.
	which he has made a record which it is claimed, is not duplicated by any	Gill stay in York and get the Greek	quarterback. The selection last	honors in football. The visitors will average about 162, while Tech will	through the gate without delay. A	of Reading, vs. K. O. Casey, of Harrisburg.
	college coach. In that time his teams have won seventy-five per cent, of the	Gill and Angelo will work to-	night was unanimous and a popular		record crowd win see the patie.	-Darnsburg.
	games played, and last spring the Gettysburg Club did not lose a single	gether until they come to Steelton	one.		Billiard Contests Show	"The Irish lightweight champion of ntercollegiate game. Plank developed a number of good	needed to fight some one before an	ANOTHER CALLAHAN CAPTAIN	BOWLING SCORES		the world," is the way which Tommy players at Gettyspurg, and part now-	outside club in the meantime Al- berts is training dafly at Kid Wil-	Princton, N. J., Dec. 4H. A. Callahan, veteran center on this	DOWNING DOONED	Good Scores in Big Contest	Sheridan, of Jersey City, who meets Johnny Herman, of Northampton at ard, one of his pupils, pitched Get- tysburg to a victory over Penn State	liams' gymnasium in Baltimore,	fall's Princeton eleven, was elected		Des descripted Darrow diamond One of	where he has the Vid Tittle T.M.	contain of the 1990 football team	CRESCENTS	By Associated Press.	the Auditorium to-morrow night, bills on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him.	Callahan is > member of the class	Rogers 109 105 104- 318	Philadelphia, Dec. 4 John M.	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked
• .	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is	Rogers109105104318Miller101136156393Sides129118112359	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenles Wilmington Del and Ia	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will
•	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- d in the effort to engage him for	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban-	Callahan is \leq member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence,	Rogers 109 105 104	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je-	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race.
•	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boxer hailing from the	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yaie captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass.	Rogers 109 105 104—318 Miller 101 136 156—393 Sides 129 118 112—359 Taylor 113 140—380 Bamford 124 149 156—429	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na-	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler. a fellow who is ag-
•	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boxer hailing from the	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yaie captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass.	Rogers 109 105 104—318 Miller 101 136 156—393 Sides 129 118 112—359 Taylor 127 113 140—380 Bamford 124 149 156—429 Totals 590 621 668—1879	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard fournament when play elected to	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to picke an audence. He has bards
•	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last year to secure him by reason of his time heing largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that these could be no question. In	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active;	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 VICTORS Storm 107 128 149 384	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now elam-
•	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college placer bin or next springer the was difficulty last to the their largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yaie captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass.	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 293 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 VICTORS Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 527 539	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clami- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon-
•	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him year to secure him as diagon of his time being stars and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play statted to- day, each having won two games and lost, none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to piedse an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now elam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar,
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for- next spring. There was diagon by the time being stage and this year it was ness intic to close a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Ancaited Frees	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the before the bic side to the	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this saturday afternoon at Seventeenth	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches.	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Hérman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and
••••••••	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last tyear to secure him by reason of his ime being largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Associated Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assist him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond Is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state-	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother at "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al-	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 665 665 1879 VICTORS Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 39 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 39 135 355 Totals 555 555 528 1356	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink,	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons. Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last time heing largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOIL MARE By Associated Press New York, Dec. 4Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that tops Sanford of Amsterdam. N. Y.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond Is Fast Boy Richmond Is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 VICTORS Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 280 Totals 663 555 638 1856 556 638 1856	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one viccory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia; James 'Maturo, Den-	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons. Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has
•	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last time being largely occupied methods ness interests, and this race early so that there achall management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Associated Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John's Sanford, of Amsterdam, N, Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey (hub, had paid $20.000 for the seven-	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boker hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-side daffair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. Has been showing class and by do-	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 127 113 166 491 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 Standing of the Teams W. L. Pet. Senators W. L. Pet. Senators 12 9 667	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Raiph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost, none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas City, ys. Edward I. Ralph, Right-	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Hérman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan-
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty lat time being largely this year it was an effort o clog and this year it was an effort o clog a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Ansoited Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Yelub, had paid $30.000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Normarket sales of thorough.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is Fast Boy Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tanweight boker hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-side affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Midditoryn mill backing	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- faifa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 122 141 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 28 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 138 138 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 567 Standing of the Teams W L Pct. Sen Standors 12 9 667 555 Crescents 12 9 667 Cresconts 12 5650 555	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Raiph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost, none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Raiph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn.	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audjence. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Hérman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Paskos on Card .
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last year to secure him by reason of his time being largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Ansociated Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30,000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- preds last Tueeday. She was brod	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford. Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixie Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother at "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and loat none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matchess were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J. and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Balph of Highstown N. J.	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat-
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last time being largely occurs to be ness interests, and thousand the bas- ness interests, and thousand the bas- that there ould be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Associated Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John 'Sanford, of Amsterdam, N, Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey (Lub, had paid $30.000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newminket sales of through- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre-	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boker hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixie Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Farrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- faifa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best amateur backfield in the eity. To date the Royals have lost two games.	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 Storm 107 128 149 380 Benny 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 138 138 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 565 Standing of the Teams W L Pct. Standing of the Teams 12 560 555 Glants 10 8 555 514 Glants 10 14 477 351 <tr< td=""><td>Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one viccory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The palrings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both caster oue avvects year</td><td>himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to piease an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to piease. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and</td></tr<>	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one viccory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The palrings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both caster oue avvects year	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to piease an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to piease. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last time being largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Anociated Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30,000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre-	where he has the Kid. Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Barrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey,	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother at "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday atternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- faifa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best amateur backfield in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A/C. will practice bas-	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 122 143 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 Standing of the Teams W. L. Pet. 8 600 Keystones 10 12 8 600 Keystones 10 11 3417 Nobles 8 13 381 Bicycle Riders Still Tie: 8 13 381 381	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. bot eastern cue experts, yees- terday afternoon broke into the win- ning column in the National Pocket	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fasted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now elam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be giad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight. Jimmy Pappas, He is paired
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last time being largely occurs to be ness interests, and thousand the bas- ness interests, and thousand the bas- bas an effort to ould be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Associated Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John 'Sanford, of Amsterdam, N, Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey (Lub, had paid $20,000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newminket sales of through breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre-	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Parrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminartes	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday atternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best amateur backfield in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A. C. will practice has- teatent Thureday night in the Shim.	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 VICTORS Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 28 99 319 Denny 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 128 149 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 Standing of the Teams WL Pet. Senators 12 9 667 555 638 1555 Glants 10 8 555 Glants 10 8 13 351 Bicycle Riders Still Tie; 8 13 <t< td=""><td>Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matchess were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes- terday afternoon broke into the win- ning column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament</td><td>himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has gerous fellow. Packos on Card. Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Papas. He is paired off with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York heatam.</td></t<>	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matchess were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes- terday afternoon broke into the win- ning column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has gerous fellow. Packos on Card . Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Papas. He is paired off with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York heatam.
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last year to secure him by reason of his ime being largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30,000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E., Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford. Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Barrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best amateur backfield in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A. C. will practice bas- ketball Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and second team will be picked, also	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 668 1879 VICTORS Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 355 638 1856 Standing of the Teams W. L. Pet. Senators 12 9 660 Keystones 10 11 416 555 61ants 10 14 417 Nobles 81 351 81 351 Bicycle Riders Still Tie; Far Behind Former Records 81 351	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one viccory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes- terday afternoon broke into the win- ming column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway build- ing, when they landed victories over	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has grous fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Papas. He is paired of with Dick Gotwalt, the crack Yerk bantam. A great little bout is asured.
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last year to secure him by reason of his ime being largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30,000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E., Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid. Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford. Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Barrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother at "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- faifa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best amateur backfield in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A/C. will practice bas- ketoall Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and second team will be picked, also captains will be elected. The Royals have been successful in obtaining	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 Standing of the Teams W.L. Pet. Senators 12 9 667 Crescents 10 11 476 Wictors 11 3.81 Mobles 8 13 381 3.81 Bicycle Riders Still Tie; Far Behind Former Records By Associated Press. By Associated Press. A To	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one viccory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The palrings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes- terday afternoon broke into the win- ning column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament beling staged in the Parkway build- ing, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralho's third stort of the series	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Wille Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Paakos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Papasa. He is paired of with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York bantam. A great little bout is assured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentow, the
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh, 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- din the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty lat the secure him by read by busi- ness interests, and this year it was an effort to could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Ansold Fress New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that the Newmarket sales of thorough- your discussion of Amsterdam, N. Y. furfman and steward of the Jockey (club, had paid $30,000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Weish, repre- senting Joseph E, Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid. Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Barrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card. This makes thirty-four rounds of great fighting, which promises to be up to the usual standard of Bar- rett's shows, and could not be sur-	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars plcked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best amateur backfeld in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A. C. will practice bas- ketball Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and second team will be plecked, also captains will be elected. The Royals have been successful in obtaining challenges and as soon as the teams	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 Standing of the Teams W.L. Pet. Senators 12 9 667 Crescents 10 11 476 Wictors 11 3.81 Mobles 8 13 381 3.81 Bicycle Riders Still Tie; Far Behind Former Records By Associated Press. By Associated Press. A To	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matchess were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kan- sas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes- terday afternoon broke into the win- ning column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway build- ing, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralph's third start of the series, and Seebach's second, and both play-	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to piease an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to piease. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has grous fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Papas. He is paired of with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York bantam. A great little bout is asured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the home of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Opie White.
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the collese players result- ed in the effort to engiftenity last year to be a sent to engiftenity last where the last the properties of the interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Auscitted Irres New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30.000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E. Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixie Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Barret's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card. This makes thirty-four rounds of great fighting, which promises to be up to the usual standard of Bar- rett's shows, and could not be sur- passed by any of the big city clubs.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars plcked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best mateur backfeld in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A./C. will practice bas- ketball Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and seen successful in obtaining challenges and as soon as the teams are picked they will be acknowledg- ed.	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 424 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 155 Standing of the Teams 12 9 657 Standing of the Teams 10 8 555 Glants 10 11 </td <td>Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes, terday afternoon broke into the win- ming column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway build- ing, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralph's third start of the series, and Seebach's second, aud both play- ers turned in their first conquest.</td> <td>himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has igenus fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Pappas. He is paired off with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York bantam. A great little bout is assured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the horme of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Oppie White.</td>	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Je- rome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the Na- tional American pocket billiard tournament when play started to- day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other play- ers except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Den- ver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Right- stow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes, terday afternoon broke into the win- ming column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway build- ing, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralph's third start of the series, and Seebach's second, aud both play- ers turned in their first conquest.	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has igenus fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Pappas. He is paired off with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York bantam. A great little bout is assured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the horme of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Oppie White.
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the collese players result- ed in the effort to engiftenity last year to be a sent to engiftenity last where the last the properties of the interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Auscitted Irres New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30.000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E. Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixie Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Barret's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card. This makes thirty-four rounds of great fighting, which promises to be up to the usual standard of Bar- rett's shows, and could not be sur- passed by any of the big city clubs.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars plcked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best mateur backfeld in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A./C. will practice bas- ketball Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and seen successful in obtaining challenges and as soon as the teams are picked they will be acknowledg- ed.	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 424 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 138 138 Ofroff 148 138 138 138 Groff 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 Standing of the Teams W. L. Pet. Senators 10 8 Standing of the Teams 12 567 641 3 381 Bicycle Riders Still Tie; Far Behind Former Records 8 13 381 Bicycle Riders Still Tie; Far Behind For	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Raiph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Jerome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the National American pocket billiard tournament when play started to-day. each having won two games and lost, none. All the other players except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Denver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kansas Çity, vs. Edward I. Raiph, Rightstow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Chreneske, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yesterday afternoon broke into the winning column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway building, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralph's third start of the series, and Seeback's the Coach	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Dakes on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Pappas. He is paired off with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York bantam. A great little bout is assured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the- horme of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Oppie White, Lancaster star in another six-round bout. This should also prove an ex-
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the collese players result- ed in the effort to engiftenity last year to be a sent to engiftenity last where the last the properties of the interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Auscitted Irres New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30.000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E. Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boker hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixie Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Farrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Mershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card. This makes thirty-four rounds of great fighting, which promises to be up to the usual standard of Bar- rett's shows, and could not be sur- passed by any of the big city cluba	Caliahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother of "Tim" Caliahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best amateur backfield in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games, winning eight. The Royal A./C. will practice bas- ketoall Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and second team will be picked, also captains will be elected. The Royals have been successful in obtaining challenges and as soon as the teams are picked they will be acknowledg- ed.	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 Totals 590 621 668 1879 Storm 107 128 149 284 Cleckner 122 89 99 319 Denny 140 62 127 359 Groff 148 138 138 138 138 Groff 148 138 138 138 138 Totals 663 555 638 1856 18 13 567 Grantors 12 9 667 555 638 18 13 555 Glants 10 11 417 Nobles 8 13 351 Bicycle Riders Still Tie;	Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Jerome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the National American pocket billiard tournament when play started to-day, each having won two games and lost none. All the other players except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one viccory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The palrings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Denver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kansas Çity, vs. Edward I. Ralph, Rightstow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddle Ralph, of Highstown. N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes. terday afternoon broke into the winning column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway building, when they landed victries over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralph's time datart of the series, and Seebach's second, and both players turned in their first conquest.	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Léon- ard. In Hérman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous fellow. Paakos on Card Local fans will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Papas. He is paired of with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York bantam. A great little bout is asured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the heme of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Oppie White, Lancaster star in another six-round bout. This should also prove an ex- ceptionally good bout. The opening number of six rounds will be between
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the collese players result- ed in the effort to engiftenity last year to be a sent to engiftenity last where the last the properties of the interests, and this year it was an effort to close a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Auscitted Irres New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30.000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E. Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford. Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Parrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card. This makes thirty-four rounds of great fighting, which promises to be up to the usual standard of Bar- rett's shows, and could not be sur- passed by any of the big city clubs. Bob Fairlamb, in Steelton, was the selling of the tickets, reports a great advance sale. Several or- ders have come in from nearby cities.	Callahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars plcked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best mateur backfeld in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A./C. will practice bas- ketball Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and seen successful in obtaining challenges and as soon as the teams are picked they will be acknowledg- ed.	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 99 319 Denny 389 Groff 148 138 128 414 Chargest 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 Standing of the Teams W.L. Pet. Senators 12 8 600 Keystones 10 11 417 Nobles 8 13 381 Bicycle Riders Still Tie; Far Behind Former Records By Associated Press. New York, Dec. 4.<	 Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Raiph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Jerome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the National American pocket billiard tournament when play started today, each having won two games and lost none. All the other players except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Pink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Denver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Kansas City, vs. Edward I. Raiph, Rightsow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Chrales Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes, terday afternoon broke into the winning column in the National Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway building, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralph's third start of the series, and Seebach's second. and both players lunced in their first conquest. Leo Houck to Coach College Boys in Boxing 	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous. Paskos on Card . Local fams will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Pappas. He is paired off with Dick Gotwalt, the crack Yerk bantam. A great little bout is assured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the herme of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Oppie White, Lancaster star in another six-round bout. This should also prove an ex- ceptionally good bout. The opening number of six rounds will be between Harrisburg's knock out artist, K. O. Casey, and Battling Deemer, of Read- her, who usually bance on the K O.
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the college players result- ed in the effort to engage him for next spring. There was difficulty last time being largely occupied by busi- ness interests, and this year it was that there could be no question. In this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Associated Press New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that the Newmarket sales of thorough- ty and $30,000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds has Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E. Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford, Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jinmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Farrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card. This makes thirty-four rounds of great fighting, which promises to be up to the usual standard of Bar- rett's shows, and could not be sur- passed by any of the big city clubs. Bob Fairlamb, in Steelton, who has the selling of the tickets, reports a great advance sale. Several or-	Caliahan is > member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Caliahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars picked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best mateur backfeld in the city. To date the Royals claim the best mateur backfeld in the city. To date the Royals claim the best mateur backfeld in the shim- mell building at which time a first and second team will be picked, also captains will be elected. The Royals have been successful in obtaining challenges and as soon as the teams are olcked they will be acknowledg- ed. Mrs. Hugo Bezdek Must Decide Husband's Future	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156- 359 Sides 129 118 112- 359 Taylor 127 113 140- 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 1879 VICTORS Storm 107 128 149 354 Cleckner 122 28 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 Cleckner 122 98 99 319 Denny 140 92 127 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 155 Standing of the Teams 12 560 661 Kenators 12 9 555 Glants	 Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Jerome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the National American pocket billiard tournament when play started today, each having won two games and lost none. All the other players except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one viccory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The palrings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Denver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Rightsow, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes. The Additional Pocket Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway building, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralp's size cond, and both players turned in their first conquest. Leo Houck to Coach College Boys in Boxing 	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fasted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now elam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has genus fellow. Paskos on Card Local fans will be giad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Pappas. He is paired of with Dick Gotwalt, the crack York bantam. A great little bout is asured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the bare of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Oppie White, Lancaster star in another six-round bout. This should also prove an ex- ceptionally good bout. The opening number of six rounds will be between Harrisburg's knock out artist, K. O. Casey, and Battling Deemer, of Read- ing, who usually hangs on the K. O.
	on the latter's own diamond. One of Plank's teams also met and defeated the University of Pittsburgh. 5-0. His success in making winning teams and in handling the collese players result- ed in the effort to engiftenity last year to be a sent to engiftenity last the top of the properties of the sent in the set of the properties of the sent to close a contract early so this the baseball management at the college was successful. HIGH PRICE FOR MARE By Auscitted Irres New York, Dec. 4.—Word was re- ceived here to-day from London that John Sanford, of Amsterdam, N. Y., turfman and steward of the Jockey Club, had paid $30.000 for the seven- year-old brood mare Dark Flight, at the Newmarket sales of thorough- breds last Tuesday. She was bred by Lord Roseberry. The contending bidder was Thomas Welsh, repre- senting Joseph E. Widener, of Phil- adelphia.	where he has the Kid, Little Jeff and Kid Richmond to assis him. Richmond is on Barrett's card to meet Young Fulton, the best ban- tamweight boxer hailing from the coal regions. Fulton's manager, Frank Bear, takes exception to the report published in a local paper that Battling Paskos beat Fulton. Bear says that when Paskos and Ful- ton met before the Motive Power Club, in this city, several months ago, the fight was a one-sided affair, with Fulton on the big side of the battle, and those who saw the fight will bear him out in this state- ment. Willie Langford. Gill's boxing partner, who beat Dixle Kid in York, Tuesday night, and Jimmy Duncan, of Middletown, will have it out on Parrett's card, in a return match. Harry Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Billy Zimmerman, of Hershey, while Chris Hildebrandt, of Steelton, will meet Kid Kissinger, of York, in the two six-round preliminaries on the card. This makes thirty-four rounds of great fighting, which promises to be up to the usual standard of Bar- rett's shows, and could not be sur- passed by any of the big city clubs. Bob Fairlamb, in Steelton, was the selling of the tickets, reports a great advance sale. Several or- ders have come in from nearby cities.	Callahan is 2 member of the class of 1921 and is 21 years old. He is a brother af "Tim" Callahan, the Yale captain, and lives in Lawrence, Mass. Royal A. C. Still Active; to Play All-Star Eleven The Royal A. C. will line up this Saturday afternoon at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets against the Al- falfa eleven, a team composed of stars plcked from the Edison Junior High school team. The Royal A. C. has been showing class and by do- ing so a large attendance is expect- ed. In L. Davis, Carl W. Dreese and G. Davis the Royals claim the best mateur backfield in the city. To date the Royals have lost two games. winning eight. The Royal A. C. will practice bas- ketball Thursday night in the Shim- mell building at which time a first and second team will be plecked, also captains will be elected. The Royals have been successful in obtaining challenges and as soon as the teams are picked they will be acknowledg- ed. Mrs. Hugo Bezdek Must Decide Husband's Future Pittabureh, Fa, Dec. 4Hugo Bez-	Rogers 109 105 104 318 Miller 101 136 156 393 Sides 129 118 112 359 Taylor 127 113 140 380 Bamford 124 149 156 429 Totals 590 621 668 668 Storm 107 128 149 380 Bamford 107 128 149 384 Cleckner 122 99 319 Denny 359 Groff 148 138 128 414 Cleckner 122 99 319 Groff 148 138 128 414 C. Hargest 146 99 135 380 Totals 663 555 638 1856 565 Grantors 12 9 667 Crescents 12 8 600 Keystones 10 8 555 Glants 10 1476 Vietors	 Philadelphia, Dec. 4. — John M. Layton, Columbia, Mo.; E. Ralph Greenleaf, Wilmington, Del., and Jerome Keogh. Rochester, N. Y., were the leading contestants in the National American pocket billiard tournament when play started today, each having won two games and lost none. All the other players except Louis D. Kreuter, New York, had put one victory to their credit. Kreuter has lost all three of his matches. The pairings for to-day's matches were Layton vs. Morris D. Fink, Philadelphia: James 'Maturo, Denver, vs. Kreuter; Bennie Allen, Rightsown, N. J., and Greenleaf vs. Charles Seeback, Hartford, Conn. Eddie Ralph, of Highstown, N. J., and Charles Seeback, of New Haven, Conn. both eastern cue experts, yes. Billiards Championship tournament being staged in the Parkway building, when they landed victories over their rivals in the third round. It was Ralph's third start of the series, and Seebach's second, and both players turned in their first conquest. Leo Houck to Coach College Boys in Boxing Lanenster, Dec. 4Leo Houck, local middleweight pugilist, was selected in didleweight pugilist, was selected in didleweight pugilist, was selected in the set the series in select. 	himself. In fact, Sheridan is picked by many experts as the boy who will capture the title for the Irish race. He is a rugged, hard fisted, two- handed battler, a fellow who is ag- gressive and the type who never fails to please an audience. He has boxed Eddie Fitzsimmons, Willie Jackson, and a host of others. He is now clam- oring for a bout with Bennie Leon- ard. In Herman he will meet a tartar, a fellow who can box and slug and who never fails to please. Also, Her- man has never been knocked out. On the other hand he possesses a knock- out punch in either hand and has time and again proved himself a dan- gerous. Paskos on Card . Local fams will be glad to see Bat- tling Packos, the sensational little Greek bantamweight of Reading, and pupil of that world famous bantam- weight, Jimmy Pappas. He is paired off with Dick Gotwalt, the crack Yerk bantam. A great little bout is assured. Mickey Devers, an Italian bantam- weight who halls from Allentown, the herme of a mumber of good glove fighters, clashes with Oppie White, Lancaster star in another six-round bout. This should also prove an ex- ceptionally good bout. The opening number of six rounds will be between Harrisburg's knock out artist, K. O. Casey, and Battling Deemer, of Read- her, who usually bance on the K O.

EX ANNE OAKLEYThere are many reasons why ladies shouid go in for both trap and field boting After thirty-six years of ntruthuly say 1 know of no other wards keeping a woman in good hours spent occasionally at trap shouing, and as 1 am learning new shouing code health and eyesight, sho lane are afraid to star in many ladies are afraid to star moverided and fits you properly, you will find little if any recoil I would recoil pad, fitted to the end of this shouing fit he gun is heavy enough, you will find little if any recoil I would
recoil pad, fitted to the end of this shouing fit a gentleman say a shori the traps. He would think of using the traps. He would think of usingsuch a tight gun himself and he doug the first on a top and he do the doug the traps.
A the first you should have some of your shoes should have a low, flat the hat should be wide enough to
the hat should be wide enough to
the hat should be wide enough to the shout the gun a term a target.
A ther the first few weeks you will the a gun think of using the traps. He would think of using the traps.
He would think of using
the traps.
He would think of using
the traps.

Sectional Cage Game Is Tennis Match Near End; Full of Good Playing Gould on Today's Card Basketball is on in full blast at By Associated Press. Camp Curtin Junior High School. In Philadelphia, Dec. 4.— Play _be-the Sectional series, Section 987 won tween Jay Gould, American amateur over Section 9B10, score 37 to 20. The champion and Walter Kinsella, prolineup and summary follows: SECTION 9B7 fessional title holder for the open court tennis championship of the United States was resumed to-day.

CHAMPIONS PENNSYLVANIA Saturday, Dec. 6, 2.30 P. M. ADUL'IS, 75¢-SCHOOL TICKETS, 50¢ Advance Sale J. Harry Messersmith's 212 MARKET ST.

EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY

M. F. Bitti T. O. Ecke

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> ninutes.

4

FISHMAN GARAGE

Fourth and Chestnut Streets Harrisburg, Pa.

Phone, Harrisburg 3685

1

An212.2

See Mr. Wilbur

Ready for the Road Guarantee With Each Car

TOURING CARS-ROADSTERS

Several Cole Eights

Models No. 850, No. 860, No. 861

These Cars Must Be Moved

WE NEVER HAD SUCH

Sale Closes Saturday Night

A Handsome Lot of

and rebuilt-Fully equipped-No extras to buy.

Every Car in the Sale has been thoroughly overhauled

FOR LITTLE MONEY

YOUR CHANCE TO GET BIG VALUE

USED CAR SALE ALL THIS WEEK