WEDNESDAY CLUB TO HEAR LECTURE

State Supervisor of Music to Address Members Next Wednesday Afternoon

Paul E. Beck, state supervisor of music will speak before the Wednesday club in Fahnstock hall, Wednesday afternoon, December 10 at 3:30 o'clock on "The Mechanism and Dynamic Construction of the Modern Symphony Orchestra." All members of the Wednesday Club, their friends and all those interested in music are invited to hear this lecture.

At yesterday's working musicale, Mrs. Frederick W. Abbott, second vice-president of the National Federation of Women's Musical Clubs and for the past five years president of the Matinee Musical Club, of Philadelphia, spoke of the work of the Federation with suggestions for activities recommended by the State Federation which will hold its next annual meeting in this city next November.

The musical program was given by Mrs. J. L. Zimmerman and Mrs. Clarence H. Zorger, pianists; Mrs. Edwin J. Deceve, soprano and Miss Louise Johnson, substituting for Miss Mary Worley, who was ill. This was Miss Johnson's first appearance before the club, of which she is a guest-member, this winter.

She has a beautiful contralto of great promise, and has been studying with Dudley Buck, Jr., and David Biphham in New York. Miss Alice Deceve and Miss Ruth Kravbill were the accompanists and Mrs. H. Rhoda played the second piano in Mrs. Zimmerman's closing number, "Concerts in A Minor," second movement by Greig.

Members of the Paxtang Music Club recently organized, were invited to be present yesterday. The Wednesday club has heartily co-operated with the Paxtang club and has offered its help in various ways for the benefit of the new organization, of which Mrs. W. H. Corry is president.

COUNTRY STORE AT THIS BAZAR

Polyclinic Auxiliary Opens Big Sale Tomorrow in Market Street

One of the interesting features of the bazar to be held to-morrow and Saturday for the benefit of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Polyclinic Hospital will be a well-stocked country store where fresh meats, sausage, salads and baked beans will be on sale. There will also be a table of delicious homemade cakes, candies and pies, one of dainty gift handkerchiefs, one of entertaining books, as well as those bearing fancy articles, aprons and children's dresses. A grab-bag filled with mysterious packages and an attractive doll show are among the more unusual attractions planned by the committee.

The bazar will be held by the Needlework Guild of the auxiliary in a Market street store room, just opposite the Bowman store, and the proceeds will be devoted to the fund for the payment of the Nurses' Home, at 1524 North Second street. Mrs. Edward Kirby Lawson, of Penbrook, is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Penbrook Community Club in Bazar Opening Tomorrow

The Penbrook Community Civic Club will hold a bazar in the club house in Banks street, to-morrow evening and Saturday afternoon and evening. THE PREMIER SALE OF FINE FURS

Ends Tomorrow--Friday--at Five O'clock

Beautiful Women and Beautiful Furs—They Are Inseparable

What is more flattering to a woman's natural beauty than luxurious Furs?

There is nothing that adds zest and comfort to frosty days of Winter like a deep furred Scarf, or a Coat of rich Seal. They are Nature's protection against the cold. One may snuggle down into their furry depths and enjoy all the comforts that apparel protection can give. They are a luxury indeed. There is an elegance and beauty to the long Regal Wraps of today that no other garment attains. And the smart, jaunty look of a short Fur Coat, or a small one, or two-skin Sable Boa with the Winter Suit has no equal.

This Sale of Furs That We Are Holding in Our Store Shows

All That Is Best in Style and Quality in Furs of All Descriptions

Foxes rich and rare from countries of the far North. And Foxes in all the most desired shades of taupe and brown are shown here in profusion. Foxes ranging in price from $45.00 to $175.00, and rare old silver blacks up to $1,500.00 a skin. There are Mink Capes and Cravats of fine Eastern pelts, deep furred and silky, with all the shades of brown that are now so desirable in this most durable of all furs.

Beavers are here in that golden shading which no other fur can boast, with a thickness and depth of fur, obtainable only from collectors of the rarest pelts.

We are showing at this sale a goodly collection of Paris favorites this season—Skunk—Splendid, silky full furred Skunk, second only to Mink in their wearing qualities.

And Lynx, the favorite black fur, with its silky luster and lightness of weight, will attract those of you who prefer scarfs of this shade. This sale closes tomorrow, Friday night.
