

BONILLAS SAYS HE NEVER AIDED ANY 'RED' MOVE

Mexican Ambassador Denies Fall Charges of Spreading Bolshevism

Washington, Dec. 5.—General denial of charges by Senator Fall that he had attempted to spread Bolshevist propaganda in this country is made by Mexican Ambassador Bonillas, who declared that he had not at any time done anything to positively direct the efforts of the disturbing elements referred to either in the United States or Mexico.

"I have been the Ambassador of Mexico and residing in Washington as such for two years and eight months, and I have not during that time or at any other time done anything to foster, encourage or aid, actively or passively, directly or indirectly, any of the disturbing elements referred to either in the United States or in Mexico.

Ministers Appealed to in Efforts to Check Tuberculosis Ravages

Colonel Edward Martin, State Commissioner of Health, today issued an appeal to the ministers of the State to aid in the Red Cross Seal campaign, supplementing the appeal to the school children to give their savings for the health of others.

"These people are mostly too crippled to work. Some could get well if they had a fair chance. Many are spreading the disease to little children with whom they come in close and constant contact and who will in turn become invalids, and die about the time they should become self-supporting," says he.

One Day Who Wasn't Drowned by Highest Tide in the History of New York Harbor

Driven by easterly winds which had prevailed for several days, the highest tide in the memory of waterfront workers backed into the Hudson and East Rivers and flooded large areas in lower New York and Hoboken. For several hours ferriesboats were unable to make their slips in New Jersey and thousands of commuters were forced to take the tube. The water in some places was knee deep in the streets. This photograph shows a rubber-boated traffic policeman giving a sponge to a lift.

Is Equipped With American Clothing For Trip to Russia

New York, Dec. 5.—Alexander Berkman is to-day equipped with American clothing in preparation for deportation to Russia. At noon he and Emma Goldman were in custody at Ellis Island, their liberty on bail during deportation proceedings having expired.

Berkman consulted an oculist and had new glasses made yesterday. Then he went shopping in Brooklyn and purchased clothes, including heavy underwear, shoes and gloves. "Conditions on the other side," said Harry Weinberger, his counsel, "are such that there is little or no opportunity for securing light or heavy clothing."

Weinberger plans to institute habeas corpus proceedings to get them out on bail while he seeks to quash the order of deportation on the ground that Miss Goldman is a citizen by marriage and that the constitutional right of freedom of speech has privileged both of his clients to express their anarchistic views.

EDISON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

During the home room activities period yesterday afternoon all the boys of the school were assembled in the auditorium where they were addressed by Scout Commissioner Dr. John H. Fager.

William Henry, 9B-5, vice-president of Edison community, presided over the meeting. Miles Sowers, 9B-5, presided at the piano. The boy cheer leaders, Chief Harold Frack, 9B-1; John Carl, 9B-2, and Louis Himes, 9B-3, led the cheering. Cheers were given for Dr. Fager after which the boys sang a stanza of "America." Mr. Wallace then introduced Dr. Fager, who gave the boys a very interesting and instructive talk.

For a time it was thought that the orchestra would be considered as a club and its practices held during club periods, but it has been decided that it will be a distinct organization and will hold its practices after school hours each Thursday evening. The practice last evening was well attended. The organization promises to offer the student body many musical treats when it is finally organized.

CAR SERVICE HALTS Lemoyne, Pa., Dec. 5.—West Shore street car traffic across the Walnut street bridge was tied up at 7.40 this morning when a feed wire broke down on the island. Passengers were compelled to get off of cars on the east end of the bridge and walk to Harrisburg. Repairs were made quickly.
