HUGE QUANTITIES OF WHISKY SOLD AT $10 A QUART

St. Louis Bars Do Rushing Business Following Issuance of Temporary Injunction 'POUR IT YOURSELF' Hotelmen Mob Distilleries; Buyers With Jugs and Bottles Jam Street Cars

St. Louis, Dec. 6.—Intoxicants were sold freely in St. Louis to-day following the order of Federal Judge Paris yesterday temporarily restraining the U. S. district attorney and the collector of internal revenue from interfering with the sale of such beverages. Thousands of gallons of whiskey and wines were disposed of, and it was a common sight to see persons boarding street cars with large earthen jugs and bundles of quart bottles.

Whisky at wholesale brought from $17 to $23 a gallon, according to the proof, and saloons sold drinks at 20 to 50 cents each "pour it yourself." Bottles goods retailed at an average of $10 a quart.

PUBLIC WILL NOT BE SADDLED WITH ANY RAISE GIVEN MINERS

Washington, Dec. 6.—Not one cent can be added to the price of coal to finance any increase in the wages of miners, Fuel Administrator Garfield declared to-day, after reading press dispatches that Governor Cox, of Ohio, had proposed that miners and operators in that State compromise on the basis of a twenty-per cent advance in pay for the men. Dr. Garfield indicated that the government would interpose no objection if the increase could be given without advancing coal prices.

He added that his position was absolutely unchanged from that taken on November 26, with the authorization of the cabinet. Dr. Garfield explained that, in suggesting the fourteen per cent advance, which the miners promptly rejected, that he was not fixing wage scales, and had no authority to do so. He indicated that the increase suggested was merely that which the operators were able to grant without advancing the price of coal, which the government has fixed.
