

DR. FREDERICK G. COAN, OF PERSIA, TO SPEAK IN MARKET SQUARE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

REOPENING AT GRACE CHURCH

Special Program Arranged For Presentation During Week; Visitors Here

Grace Methodist Episcopal Church will be the scene this week of the re-opening and dedication services, held in connection with the improvements and the gift of the magnificent organ and bronze memorial tablet to the church, by William P. Starkey, trustee of Grace Church, and prominent Harrisburg business man.

The first of these services will be held Sunday morning, December 7, at 10:30 o'clock, with the following program: Prelude in E Major, Verdi; processional hymn, No. 32; The Apostles' Creed; prayer; Dr. Rev. George Preston Mars, D. D., LL. D.; anthem: "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord," Garrett, Sunday responsive reading, forty-sixth Sunday, Psalter, page 71; Gloria Patri; scripture lesson; offering: "Draw Me to Thee," quartet; Nevin; hymn No. 661; sermon, Bishop Joseph F. Berry, D. D., L. L. D.; prayer; benediction; recessional hymn, No. 219; postlude, "Festal March," Calkin.

This morning service will inaugurate not only the use of the new organ, but also the first appearance of the newly vested choir, under the leadership of Bernard R. Mausert, organist and choir director of Grace Church, with a formal processional and recessional.

Immediately after church, the Sunday school will have its Annual Rally Day Service, following an intensive canvass of all the members of the church during the past week. It is anticipated that the program will be an extraordinary one, with Bishop Berry making the principal address, but that the attendance at this Rally Day service will break all previous records.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, Bishop Joseph F. Berry will preach the sermon, and Dr. George Preston Mars, D. D., will offer the prayer, with the chorus choir singing the anthem, "O Lord, Our Lord, How Excellent is Thy Name," by Rogers, and the quartet, consisting of Mrs. Arthur H. Maser, soprano; Mrs. Carl Cross, alto; Wm. Ray Chapman, tenor; William Boyer, baritone; will sing the anthem, "The Shadows of the Evening," by N. E. Johnson, and the organist will play "Prelude in F Major," by Lefebvre-Wely, and the Postlude, "Grand Choeur," Op. 68, by Salomon.

He will also preach on the evening of the 7th. The morning subject of the new pastor will be "The Message of Hope." In the evening he will speak on "Go Forward."

CHOIR AND ORGANIST

Robert C. Smith, baritone soloist at Zion Lutheran Church, is to sing at a vesper service in Market Square Zion Church, Lebanon, to-morrow evening. Mr. Smith is on the program for two solos and will sing in a duet with Mrs. Cowan. At a recent concert at Lebanon Mr. Smith's singing of "O Trusting Eyes" and "Love Is Mine" received such favorable mention as to result in his engagement for to-morrow evening's special service.

Following a business session of the Harrisburg Association of Organists in Pine Street Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening Joseph D. Broder read an interesting paper on Gregorian chant and Mrs. John R. Henry and Alfred C. Kuschnig played organ numbers, Mrs. Henry's number being "Elfers," and Christmas variations founded on an ancient Polish Noel by Andreo Guilman, and Mr. Kuschnig's Walter Edward Howe's "Homage to a Bonnet" and Buxtehude's "Fugue in C Major." Frank A. McCarroll, organist and choirmaster at Pine Street Church, is president of the association.

Ralph Manley, who had been conducting choir at Olivet Presbyterian Church for several months, has been engaged as bass soloist at Second Reformed Church, succeeding Henry Stewart, who has joined the First Church of God choir.

Mrs. C. W. Myers, soprano, and Miss Cassel, alto, will sing Kelly's "Hark, Hark, My Soul," at Reformed Salem Church to-morrow.

Manney's "Manger Throne," a Christmas cantata, is to be sung by the Olivet choir, with choir director the direction of Abner W. Hartman, at Christmas time.

The Christmas music at Calvary Presbyterian Church is to include Watson's "Come Near, Ye Nations," and Saint Saens' "Praise Ye the Lord," together with arrangements of "O Come All Ye Faithful" and "Oh, Holy Night."

The numbers to be sung by Horatio Conell at the Elks majestic service in majestic theater tomorrow afternoon will be "How Deep the Slumber of the Floods," by Carl Loewe and F. Warrington's "Guard While I Sleep."

Recently Miss Bertha Dolne, contralto soloist in Boulevard Presbyterian Church, Cleveland, O., visited friends at Newville and sang in the Big Springs Presbyterian Church here her numbers being Rogers' "Hear My Cry, Oh God," Carl Pluiger's "Thy Will Be Done" and Biedermann's "Abide With Me." She had been the guest of Mrs. William McLaughlin.

Among the Christmas numbers to be sung by the Pine Street Presbyterian choir tomorrow afternoon will be "Sing, Oh Heavens," one of the most beautiful and effective of all the music written for the Christmas festival.

Messiah Lutheran Church choir has taken up the reading of Dudley Buck's "Te Deum in B Minor," one of the most elaborate and melodious of the Buck compositions.

At the service last Sunday Calvary Presbyterian Church choir sang "John Goss' 'O Saviour of the World' and shortly will sing the same composer's beautiful setting of "O Taste and See How Gracious the Lord Is."

The music at Grace Methodist Church to-morrow is to be one of the features of the reopening service. Bernard R. Mausert has prepared a good program for the people who are certain to throng the State street edifice to-morrow.
