

WOULD DISBAR JACOB MARGOLIS

Allegheny Bar Association Grievance Committee Makes Report

Pittsburgh, Dec. 6.—Recommendations that disbarment proceedings be instituted at once against Jacob Margolis, a member of the local bar, and an alleged anarchist, and syndicalist, were made in a report to the Allegheny County Bar Association here by the grievance committee of the association.

Mr. Margolis for several years past, the report states, has "assisted and encouraged divers unions and associations, including the Union of Russian Workers, the Industrial Workers of the World and the Communist party of America, and divers individuals, including Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman in the propagation and promulgation of plans and projects for the overthrowing of the Government."

Mr. Margolis is reported to have admitted to the Senate committee investigating the steel strike that he was an anarchist when he appeared before the committee several weeks ago.

GOES TO ALABAMA
Lewistown, Pa., Dec. 6.—James Woerner, of this place, has left for Alabama, where he will spend the winter at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Treaster.

It radiates "home" in a measure all out of proportion to its size. The daughter of the house had chosen it as her own little apartment because of its sunny bay window.

"Thanks to the National Biscuit Company and the other packers of good things," said the girl, "I can live well without a kitchen."

A thick, warm-toasted cracker invited one to lounge on the sofa, while the big, fringed cushions scattered about gave evidence that this was a place where it was permissible to be comfortable and double-crocheted meadow gave way to a rolled-up rug other until the eyes in blue dress conveniently placed cheeriness against weather, and atmosphere during the chairs enjoy reign.

A the wi an th wi un doo close the gues. "Chicke girls," the announce. Ther box of Uneeda Biscuits a part of of friends grew closer, day by day, potted chicken. Nimble fingers chatting in the sunny bay window would set to work and in a twinkling little piles of chicken sand-

It not only leaves the oven as the best soda cracker in the world, but it reaches you with all its original taste and freshness. Uneeda Biscuit has no rival in the esteem of American housewives.
