PARLOR CARS OFF DEC. 10 While orders have been issued by L. W. Baldwin, regional director at Philadelphia, cutting off chair cars and eliminating certain passenger trains on the Pennsy and Reading, they are not effective until December 10. It is the belief that the coal strike will be declared off sometime to-morrow, and that in that event, orders issued yesterday will be modified. PARLOR CARS OFF DEC. 10

Offering Unsold Portion of 5000 Shares Aviation Stock

At $10.00 Per Share, Common Stock CAPITAL $50,000.00

You are convinced that Aviation will revolutionize the world.

This is a Harrisburg Company made up of aviators native to your city and for whom you paid the taxes that Uncle Sam was enabled to train so thoroughly to meet the Hun above the clouds.

To you, Mr. Stockholder, we claim to furnish the brains and the labor to revolutionize transportation. Every dollar you invest goes directly to the management of the company. We sell the stock ourselves.

This company, which has already started in business, has more work ahead of it than it has capital to meet the demands. We are looking to the day when this company will be operating transportation routes, hauling passengers, parcels and mail between every city in the East.

Wall Street millionaires cannot handle aviation. It takes an aviator, and you, Mr. Stockholder, to carry this enterprise to success. You certainly are interested in home activities and one of the greatest enterprises in history, a solid organi-

This is one of the questions which arise in Constance Talmadge's dainty photoplay success which is playing to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday at the Colonial Theater. She takes the Colonial Theater. She takes the control of the screen, entitled "ribution to Vamp." During the screening of this production some argument was started as to the virtue of a vamp so the picture was called "The Wirtuous Vamp." It is one of the most entertaining and successful pictures ever released starring this universally known screen favorite.

PROFITS BY STRIKE

A little thing like a strike can' stop a motion picture director. Frank Lloyd proved this the other day wher he and the "Silver Horde" company of Goldwyn players were on location in San Francisco. They had gone to make some scenes of ships and dock and they walked right into a strike of all the longshoremen. A regiment of police was guarding the waterfront. Mr. Lloyd got into communication of the waterfront of the strike of the company of the strike of the
