A. P. Perley, of Williamsport, is to be a candidate for national delegate in that section and the Philadelphia Inquirer says that Highway Commissioner Lewis S. Sadler may be a candidate from this district.

The Slovenian Workmen's Benefit Association, of Johnstown, has replied to the action of the Attorney General requiring it to show cause why its charter should not be changed or revoked because of a provision barring strike breakers from benefits by stating that a strike breaker becomes an extra hazardous risk. This ingenious answer will bring the matter to an issue and the Attorney General will press for revocation or change of the charter on the ground that it is un-American and that the association has no right to forfeit the rights of any member because he chooses to work. The Dauphin county court will be petitioned to fix an early date for argument.

At a hearing before Commissioner John W. The Kittaning Telephone Company filed notice of an increase in rates.

Tech's Championship Team Guest of Rotary Club at Luncheon

The members of the Technical High School football team, which won the championship of the United States by defeating Portland, Me., at Island Park, Saturday afternoon, were guests of the Harrisburg Rotary Club at luncheon in the Penn-Harris Hotel at noon today, together with members of the school board, school officials, Dr. Charles B. Fager, principal of Tech; Prof. P. L. Grubb, Paul Smith, the coach, and other membes of the faculty.

Prof. P. L. Grups, reached and other membes of the faculty.

The luncheon was sevred in the ballroom of the hotel, which was decorated in the high school colors, cards containing the scores showing that not a point had been scored against Tech this year and on the tables were properly inscribed footballs, tokens of the team's vctories.

team's vctories.

President G. M. Steinmetz introduced Dr. C. E. L. Keene, vice-president of the school board, as the presiding officer, and among the other speakers were Dr. Fager, Coach Smith, Prof. Grubb, Captain Frank, Manager Snyder, Carl Beck, Tony Wilsbach, "Bud" Lingle and other members of the team.

College songs were sung, and the College songs were sung, and the Rotarians indulged in a few songs, among them the following, to the tune of "Where Has My Little Dog Gone:

"Oh where, oh where
Has Porland's goat gone,
where, oh where did he stray?
He was captured by Tech,
And they've put him on ice,
i that's where he's likely to stay."

The boys who spoke for their team showed that they are orators as well as players, and even the joke of a 'fake' birthday cake, presented by Frank Davenport, which was not nearly so good as it looked, provided a subject for a swift come-back from the captain of the team.
