he had been living with a woman not his wife at Lewistown. "Why can't you be a man and support your wife," asked the court, after which he made the order.

The effects of the high cost of living have been shown in Franklin county in an unusual way. Hitherto when a man has had the parentage of an unmarried woman's offspring established by the jury his sentence carried with it an order that he pay the mother 75 cents a week until the child becomes 10 years of age, this in addition to other coses with which he was mulcted, Judge Rush Gillan has taken into consideration the increased cost of living and in sentencing several young men doubled the former rate, making it $1.50 a week.

Visitors to the Cemetery usually most adore monuments of simple dignity and good taste. We are proud to say that very often memorials of our making are selected by visitors as the finest of all they have seen. Yet our work is not expensive. You will learn upon inquiry that you can procure a monument here for a surprisingly small sum considering quality of stone and workmanship.
