To Give Musicale at County Almshouse

An attractive program to be fea-tured by the participation of a num-ber of local people prominent in musical gircles has been arranged by the Community Service Bureau of the Harrisburg Chamber of Com-merce and will be enacted at the Dauphin county almshouse this evening. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Florence Ackley Ley.

charge of Mrs. Florence Ackley Ley. Other programs will be arranged and carried out throughout the city, in industrial plants through the par-ticipation of the employes, and by local talent, charitably-inclined, in such places as the almshouse. The entertainers have volunteered their talent and will serve without charge in order to further the commun-ity service work. The participants in to-night's program are as follows: Mrs. Earnest Keys, contralto, Messiah Lutheran Church: Miss Naomi A. Ackley, soprano; Mrs. Anna Hamilton Wood, of the Story Tellers' League: Samuel Fackler, baritone; Miss Correlli Martin, violinist, of the Wednesday Club; Miss Mildred Rudy, organist at the Church of Christ, and Mrs. Flor-ence Ackley Ley, of the Chamber of Commerce.

Jack Frost has no Terrors for Atlantic Gasoline

Atlantic Gasoline functions perfectly in the most wintry weather. No draining the battery or wearing out the starter in order to make Atlantic take the spark.

A few spirited turns of the crank-shaft, and away she goes, every cylinder firing regularly-eager to transmit lively motion to drive-wheels the moment you let in the clutch.

You know the disappointments of inferior gasoline. The churn-churn of the laboring "starter". The opening of pet-cocks and the tedious priming. Meanwhile, the chilly blasts that numb your extremities and mock your efforts.

Guard against this thing by using tried-and-true Atlantic Gasoline, the all-year motor-fuel.
